Christian Churches in County Group

Christian churches of Washington county met Sunday at the Hillsboro church and effected a permanent association of the churches. C. H. Noser of Hillsboro was elected president. The other officers are: T. B. Edwards, secretary; Forest Grove, vice-president; and R. L. Putnam, minister, Hillsboro, secretary-treasurer.

There were about one hundred representatives of the various churches present for 1 o'clock potluck dinner fellowship and the organizational meeting that followed. Neal McClaason, choir director, Forest Grove, delighted the group with his sacred solo.

Evangelist Teddy Levitt has been engaged by the association to conduct a monthly campaign in the county and expects to hold a series of revival services in each church in that time. He began the first revival of the series at the local church Sunday night and will continue nightly, except Mondays.

Tonight the evangelist's sermon dealt with the scientific mind as does Friday evening's message. The subjects are "Science and the Bible," "Do They Agree?" and "Science in the Bible." In the latter sermon the speaker mentions the radio and scripture as well as other scientific discoveries. The evangelist promises to give facts, facts within and without the Bible to support his position. And the local pastor says they are "astounding facts."
