

Helvetia Band Plays at Hood

Sunshine Club Prepares for Its Bazaar Activity

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)

HELVIETIA—Helvetia community band played Sunday at Mr. Hood for the annual Portland winter sports carnival, under the auspices of the Cascade Ski club. Band members were furnished transportation and were dinner guests of the club at Government Camp. Many saw ski jumping for the first time. All members were present, except two girls, who were ill.

Committees Named

Sunshine club met with Mrs. Charles Spiering January 16. The club now has 50 members. A property committee, whose duties it will be to distribute and collect material for the annual bazaar, will be named from each district. The committee named: Mrs. O. Solberg, North Plains; Mrs. J. Bernards, North Plains; Mrs. L. Leppin, West Union; Mrs. J. C. Wenger, Helvetia; Mrs. J. Bertrand and Mrs. W. E. Mulkey were assisting hostesses. Mrs. E. Zurcher will be hostess February 20.

A group of Sunshine club women met at the Mrs. E. Zurcher home January 23 for an all day sewing session. A pot luck dinner was served at noon. Many garments were made and the ladies took some unfinished sewing home with them. Present were Mesdames E. Batchelder, R. Sandford, J. Ketter, A. Hundley, G. Walder, Ray Dorland, the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Staehl.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson attended Boy Scout honor court in Hillsboro Thursday.

Maxine Dahne of Portland visited her grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Feuerstein Sunday. Helen Pierce, who accompanied her, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Piger.

Mr. and Mrs. Aina Nydegger of Milwaukee visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young, Sunday.

Lilly Young returned to school Monday after an absence of two weeks due to illness.

Mrs. Peter Jossy and Harry Badertscher visited their brother, Clarence Badertscher, who is convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. Butterfield, in Portland. He hopes to be out in a few days.

Red Head Gets Head 'Read'

No, this isn't a hat for the morning after. It's a new device used for detecting the bumps on one's head so true abilities may be discovered. But even without it anyone could tell that Iris Adrian's auburn locks must cover a bump for acting.

Bend People Hold a Birthday Party

(By Mrs. O. H. Peterson)

BEND—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bowne and family entertained January 23 in honor of the birthday of their son Clarence. Those present were Mrs. Aina Howard, Robert Richards, Roy Wortman and Lynn Howard.
