

Mail Changes Made at Banks

John Kessler, Retired Mail Carrier, Honor Guest

(By Mrs. Fred Wolford)

BANKS—Employees and their families of the Banks post office gave a surprise party for John Kessler at his home Saturday evening, celebrating his retiring as mail carrier on route one out of Banks. The evening was spent in music and visiting and looking at old pictures some of which showed John as he carried mail with the early type of mail vehicles. A fine steel fish pole, line and tackle was presented to Mr. Kessler by the post office force. Those present were Postmaster and Mrs. A. C. Wahl and three sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilcox and two children, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Hutchens, Mrs. W. Moore, Miss Sylvia Severson, George Drake and Mr. and Mrs. John Kessler and two daughters, Elsie and Geraldine.

Mr. Kessler started as a rural mail carrier from the Greenville post office August 1, 1904, going by Hayward, Orcharddale, Hillside, and Greenville. He has traveled this same route all the time with a few additional route changes. In 1907 the post office was moved to Banks and Mr. Kessler carried from here. He retired April 1, 1935, after 30 years and eight months of service. Many changes have taken place in that time over the route, but probably the greatest is in the roads. Thirty years ago the entire route was dirt roads. Now it is all paved roads which can be traveled the year round by automobile. Then it took seven or eight hours to cover 20 miles during bad weather. Now the 38 miles of the route are covered by automobile in 3 1/2 hours. During his service Mr. Kessler has carried mail by horseback, bicycle, a two-wheeled cart, an old fashioned mail sack and then by automobile beginning with an early model Ford which he used in summer time.

When he started carrying mail W. L. Moore was the postmaster. He served until the Wilson administration. J. W. Vanderzant was the next postmaster, followed by Henry Atlee, who served until the Coolidge administration when the present postmaster, A. C. Wahl, took charge.

Fir Grove Sewing club met Wednesday with Mrs. Fred Wilcox, north of Banks. A chicken dinner was served at noon.

An order has been issued by the postal department making the following change: In route 1, which Mr. Kessler has served, beginning April 1 all mail between the Roy corner and the Greenville corner and from there to the road running west to the Jacobs and Moore place will be served directly from the Forest Grove postoffice by the carrier on route two from that office. The remainder of what is now route one, Banks, will be served by the Forest Grove carrier, who will prepare his mail in Banks postoffice and serve the patrons from the Banks postoffice. Therefore, the only changes in address necessary will be between road running west to Moore place and Greenville corner and from there to Roy corner.

Miss Wilson Hostess
Bridge club met Friday with Mrs. Cass Wilson. High score was by Mrs. W. W. Moore, second by Mrs. C. B. Hall and consolation by Mrs. Ray Lien.

Our Father in Heaven

Text: John, 14:8-24

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for April 7

THIRTEEN lessons upon the subject of great Christian teachings and purposes, ending with a temperance lesson on "Liberty Under Law," begin a new quarter with this lesson.

The first of these great teachings concerns the Heavenly Father. This is basic in the teaching of Jesus and in the conception of Christianity.

If we examine carefully all that Jesus did and taught, we shall find that primarily what He brought to the world was not a command, but a gospel. The first and primary thing in His teaching was not to tell men that they should love God, or that they should love one another, but to tell them that there was a Heavenly Father who loved them. It is the story of the love that God has for us that constitutes the gospel, and this story and this message were inherent in everything that Jesus did and said.

This does not mean that our love to God is less a privilege and duty, or that man's love to his fellow men is in any way of less importance. On the contrary, our love to God and our love to our fellow men are alike in harmony with and in expression of the love that God has toward us. John makes this very clear when he says, "If God so loved us, we ought also to love one another."

HOW do we know that there is a Heavenly Father who loves us? This was the question that was troubling Philip when he came to Jesus and said, "Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us."

Jesus did not answer him in vague or philosophical terms. He said that the evidence of God's love and goodness were in the love and goodness that we find in human life, especially in His own life given over so completely to doing the Father's will that men might behold in Him the reality of God.

It is important to grasp this.

Present were Mesdames Genevieve Doyle, Althea Harmon, Fred Wolff, Nora Dooley, George Moss, Vera Prickett, Charles Cliff Thompson, Henry Atlee, N. J. G. Wren, Oscar DeLaunay, and the Misses Marjorie Griffen, Rena Duyck, Hazel Paetsch, and the hostesses Moxie and Ida Hopkins.
