

State Auxiliary Head Visits Hillsboro Unit

Mrs. Cecilia Gunn of Hood River, state department president, made a surprise visit to American Legion Auxiliary meeting Tuesday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. Blanch Jones of Sherwood, district president; Mrs. Gladys Turnbull of Portland, state membership chairman, and Mrs. Young of Sherwood.

Out-of-town members of the auxiliary challenged town members to a membership contest to close April 14. The national president will be in Portland April 16 at the Multnomah hotel. Legion as well as auxiliary members are invited to attend the banquet at 8 p. m. and open meeting at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Lee Clark received the award for bringing the most books to the library book shower.

P. T. A. to Meet Chamber Rooms Wednesday Eve

"The Family in the Community" will be the subject on which Mrs. H. P. Crane, secretary of the Oregon Mental Hygiene society, will speak at the next Parent-Teachers' association meeting. The date and place for the meeting have been changed to 8 p. m. Wednesday, April 10, in the chamber of commerce rooms, Mrs. J. M. Person, president of the association, announced.

There will be musical numbers on the program also. Rev. Charles M. Reed, vice-president of the P. T. A., added.

Add New Books Local Library

Louis Adams, "Native's Return" and "I Photographed Russia," by James E. Able, are two popular travel books now available at the public library. The former is the visit of an American immigrant to his native country, Yugoslavia, full of shrewd comments on the life, industry and politics of this nation. Able's book is gossipy and readable, containing 80 full-page photographs taken by this globe-trotting professional photographer. It gives the reader some notion of what life is like in Russia.

Fiction books just placed on the rental shelf are "Man on White Horse," by Warwick Deering, historical novel; "Chianti Flask," new murder, by Helios Zornes, and "Woman in Love," by Kathleen Norris.

Reunion Held at Biersdorfs

Family reunion was held Sunday at the George Biersdorf home near Schefflin. Those present were Fred Stevens of Acequia, Idaho, Messrs. and Mesdames George Stevens, Robert Stevens, Thomas Bilyeu, and Charles Lange of Portland, Will Stevens of Laurel, E. C. Wilson and daughters, W. Moore and son, and Mrs. J. C. Schulmerich of Banks, Otto Yoges and children of Mountaineer, William Putnam Jr. and children of Farmington, Ed. C. Schulmerich, E. L. Johnson and daughter Margaret, and Gordon Sawhney, all of Hillsboro, Kenneth Biersdorf and son, the host and hostess, and Delbert Biersdorf.

Doyle's Return

T. C. Doyle and family have moved back to Hillsboro from Vancouver, Wash. He was formerly in the automobile business here. He has taken a position as salesman with the Hamilton Chevrolet company in Forest Grove.

Shute P. T. A. to Meet

Shute school P. T. A. social club will meet the afternoon of April 11 with Mrs. Oscar Jacobs. Plans will be discussed for program and pie social to be held at the school house in May.

Townsend Meet Set

Townsend old age pension lecture and program will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. at the K. P. hall at North Plains. The public is invited.

W. R. C. to Meet

Woman's Relief Corps will meet Friday afternoon at the Veterans' hall. All members are urged to attend.

Group Meet Monday

Kings Daughters of M. E. Sunday school will meet at the Mrs. P. J. Kalkwarf home Monday night.

Style Show Planned

Classes under the adult education program in Washington county will hold an exhibition and style revue at the chamber of commerce rooms Saturday, April 27, at 2:30 p. m. The program is a relief measure carried on by the state department of education.

Salem Folk Visit Here

Lewis Dunn and family of Salem were guests of Rev. R. L. Putnam and family on Sunday. They brought with them Junior and Mary Kowitz, a nephew and niece of the Putnams, who are spending the week visiting in Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kowitz, parents of the children, expect to come after them and spend the week-end visiting with the Putnam family.

Easter's Entertainment

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Easter entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring his sister, Miss Edith Easter, of Seattle, Wash., who was a week-end guest. Present were Dr. and Mrs. Paul I. Carter, Mrs. Albert Sutherland and Miss Betty Sutherland of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Maling.

A. A. U. W. Meet Tonight

A. A. U. W. will meet at 8 p. m. tonight (Thursday) at Herrick hall, Pacific university, Forest Grove. Mrs. Stanley Chin of Portland will talk on "China" and show moving pictures she took there on a recent trip. A small admission will be charged. Anyone interested may attend.

Morris Well Back at Work

Morris Weil is back at his work in the U. S. Department store after being out two and a half years on account of illness. His illness was the result of an illness contracted while in France with the American forces during the World War. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Weil are expected back from California this week.

Birthdays Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kroeger entertained at dinner Saturday evening, honoring the birthdays of Mrs. Kroeger and her brothers, Lester and William Asbahr of Portland. Guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Lester and William Asbahr, and Mrs. Julius Asbahr.

Bible Class Held

Professor Virgil Beraff of Laurewood academy conducts a Bible study class each Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. at the Paul C. Rees home, 445 S. Tenth avenue. Everyone is welcome. Study subject Tuesday was "Two Laws—Moral and Conventional."

Dorcas Club to Meet

Dorcas club will meet April 11 with Mrs. John Huson at Beaver-ton. Members will meet at the All Saints mission at 7:45 p. m., and transportation will be furnished. Mrs. George Fischer is assisting host.

Silver Tea Planned

A silver tea will be held by Tuatatin Valley chapter, League of Western Writers, at Mrs. Charles Hines' home in Forest Grove April 23. The Portland chapter will assist the local group with the evening's entertainment.

Attend Institute

Mesdames Wilbur Bonar and H. H. Stannard of the Coffee club, and Mesdames E. L. McCormick and A. A. Hodges of the Needlecraft attended State Federation of Women's clubs' institute at Meier and Frank's Saturday.

Larsens on Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Larsen and Gloria left Tuesday for a week's visit in Marshfield with her niece, Mrs. Joe Detsman, who has been very ill. During their absence their store and restaurant will be closed for repairs.

Mrs. McGrath Hostess

Delphian society met for luncheon Monday with Mrs. George T. McGrath. Mrs. Edward Schulmerich led the study subject, "Progress and Political Development of Oregon," assisted by Mrs. H. A. Deek.

Plan Kummage Sale

Mrs. R. E. Wiley entertained officers of the Congregational Social Circle and members of the rummage sale committee at luncheon Friday. The sale will be held Friday and Saturday at Long's Hardware.

Mrs. Tilton Hostess

Mrs. W. S. Tilton entertained with luncheon Saturday in honor of the birthday of her sister, Mrs. Elma Denby. Other guests were Mrs. J. B. Dinmore and Tommy and Mrs. A. J. Whiddon.

Employs Entertained

H. L. MacKenzie of the MacKenzie Motor company gave a dinner for his employees at Ely's Chateau Tuesday night. Sales and service messages were brought out through a projection machine.

Mrs. Bellinger Moves

Mrs. Ida Bellinger of Portland moved last week to her mother's old home northeast of Hillsboro. She is having it remodeled to make her permanent residence here.

Study Group to Meet

P. T. A. pre-school study group will meet Wednesday at 3 p. m. at the Peter Boscow school. Mrs. B. W. Decker will have charge of the meeting.

Rosemary Rippa Winner

Rosemary Rippa, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winward Rippa, received one of the $15 awards in the Oregon Journal safety contest last week.

Mrs. McKinney Improves

Mrs. Emma C. McKinney is improving from her mastoid operation at the Jones hospital, but is still confined to the hospital.

D. B. Burkhalter's Given a Surprise

Mr. and Mrs. Dan B. Burkhalter were given a surprise party Sunday evening by members of the Grange and friends, it being their 45th wedding anniversary. Five hundred were present at which Mrs. Burkhalter and R. H. McAninch made high score and Mrs. George Easterday and Albert Howell, low.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames W. M. Smith, J. R. Forsythe, R. Hornecker, R. H. McAninch, Albert Howell, George Easterday, Alvah Logan, G. Blaker, Claud Cook, Mesdames Anna Schulmerich, M. Swartz, L. Miller, Anna Garton, Messrs. Wilson Taylor, Ray and Irvin Chase, Kenneth and Donald Logan, and Vernon Cook. They presented the Burkhalters with a potted fern.

Civil War Paper Creates Interest

Front page of the New York Herald of April 15, 1865, carrying news of Lincoln's assassination is being read by the Argus readers this week. The paper is owned by Mrs. P. A. Roberts of near Glenwood, and has been in her family for 70 years. Her father subscribed to the paper at the time.

Pictures of ship wreck of a cattle boat, taken by Ernest Behrman of south of Cornelius, who was on the ship, are also in the window. See item in Johnson news.

Program and Pie Social Wednesday

Hillsboro Townsend Old Age Revolving Pension club is sponsoring an entertainment and pie social in the old grange hall on Main street next Wednesday evening. The program will consist of music, readings, etc. The ladies are each to bring a pie to be auctioned. Proceeds are to be used for national war veterans. The Townsend plan. It will be an evening of entertainment and fun. It is open to everybody whether a club member or not.

Pythian Sisters Sponsoring Party

Phoenicia Temple, Pythian Sisters, will sponsor a card party Wednesday, April 10, at 8 p. m. at the K. P. hall, Bridge, "300," and pinocle will be played. Committee in charge is Mrs. L. P. Morgan, chairman, and Mesdames C. L. Oakes, Henrietta Morgan, R. F. Peters, Lloyd Brown, and E. J. McAlair.

Pot Luck Lunch Planned by Club

The Hillsboro Coffee club will hold a pot luck luncheon at 1 p. m. April 12, in the chamber of commerce rooms. After the luncheon, the meeting will be in charge of the literary department. Mrs. A. H. Blasing is chairman of the department.

Circle two of the M. E. Ladies' Aid held an all-day quilting bee Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. P. Connell. Pot luck luncheon was served.

Mrs. Henry L. Haag of Seattle, Wash., arrived Tuesday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. R. D. English.

Jean and Joan Baines of Portland spent the week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coy, Buster Jones and Mrs. M. Welch and grandchildren visited Troutdale relatives Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Graves and daughter of Vancouver, Wash., visited Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson Sunday.

Miss Betty Irwin, student at Monmouth normal school, spent the week-end at the Fred Chase home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ziegler and family visited Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Gann at Olympia, Wash., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stangel and family of Canby were Sunday guests of Mrs. Caroline Stangel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goff of Bonneville spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Coman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shearer of Forest Grove spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. George Darland.

Mrs. Lena Stewart of Portland is here for a month's visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Gardner.

Mrs. John Bailey is visiting a few days this week with Mrs. C. Buchanan at McMinnville.

Mrs. Lena Morris was brought home from Jones hospital Sunday and is improving steadily.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mead of near Beaverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hartrampf Sunday.

Paul Patterson Jr. underwent a tonsil operation at Jones hospital last Thursday morning.

Mrs. W. S. Everett is visiting her sister, Mrs. Carl Christensen, and friends at Gresham.

Mrs. H. R. Emmott spent the week-end in Portland with Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Pooley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Person visited Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ehle at Multnomah Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Tews underwent a major operation at Smith's hospital late Tuesday night.

Mrs. R. Frank Peters and children attended junior symphony in Portland Saturday.

Mrs. James Hamilton of Portland is visiting her niece, Mrs. Thomas Connell.

Mrs. H. Cline spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. George Tews, at Gaston.

Mrs. Boscow of Pendleton is visiting her son, Bill Boscow, this week.

Mrs. Gail Kennedy of Portland is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Millet.

Past Oracles of R.N.A. Organize New Club Here

Past Oracles of the R. N. A. met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Bertha Ennis to organize a Past Oracle club. Officers elected are Mrs. W. F. Lormor, president; Mrs. W. O. Morley, vice-president; Mrs. P. A. Qualls of Schefflin, secretary; Mrs. Bertha Ennis, treasurer; Mrs. J. R. Peppard, press correspondent, and Mrs. Claud Cook, chairman of the flower committee. Mrs. Qualls made high score at "500" and Mrs. Ennis, low.

The club will meet the first Tuesday of each month, the next meeting to be with Mrs. Lormor.

Girl Reserves Plan for Week

Plans were made for Girl Reserve Week, April 7 to 14, at a cabinet meeting of Girl Reserves Monday afternoon. The girls will do special service work during this period and will entertain their fathers with a dinner at Reed college in Portland.

Hillsboro Girl Reserves participated in and received part of the proceeds of a skating party at Oaks roller rink in Portland Friday night. The money will be used for summer camp.

Club Meets at J. E. Reeves Home

Service club was entertained March 27 at the home of Mrs. J. E. Reeves, with Mrs. George Laver and Mrs. P. A. Anderson assisting. Mrs. Harvey Batchelar gave the history of the club, which was organized here in 1934. Mrs. W. C. Gifford was made an honorary member of the club. Following the business meeting Mesdames L. B. Hall and Arthur Hill were honor guests at a club party.

Study Group Formed—St. Matthew's young people organized a junior study class Thursday evening at the Fred Caldwell home. Madeline De Fries was elected leader and Walter Foelker secretary. The group will meet Tuesday (Thursday) with Miss De Fries.

Miss Schneider Hostess—Miss Julianna Schneider entertained a sewing club Monday evening. Present were Misses Lena Chioffi, Elaine and Mary McCoy and Hazel Bernier. Mrs. R. A. McCoy and Mrs. E. P. Schneider.

Bride Former Local Girl—Miss Rose VanDooser, bride at the public wedding in Portland Monday evening, formerly lived in Hillsboro. The family moved to Portland about 15 years ago.

Mrs. Brown in Hospital—Mrs. J. M. Brown of near Manning, Ore., who has been ill in Portland for more than a week, was taken to the Emanuel hospital Tuesday. She will have to be there several days.

H. E. C. to Meet—Grange Home Economics club will meet April 11 with Mrs. C. H. Himes at Moffatt station. A pot luck luncheon will be served.

Delbert Biersdorf left Monday for Kalkwarf, where he has accepted a position with the M. S. State Construction company.

Billy Quaring Hurt—Billy Quaring, small son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Quaring of Oak Grove, burned his right hand badly on a stove Saturday.

Pythian Sisters' Past Chiefs' club meeting has been postponed until further notice.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davidson attended a bridal shower for his sister, Miss Arlene Davidson, in Portland Saturday. She is betrothed to Harold Kaufman of McMinnville.

Misses Gertrude Needham and Rowena Heftmann, L. E. Furrow and E. C. Overman, he attending the flower show in Portland Sunday and the Cinderella wedding Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Barham and children of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Stranahan Sunday. Doris Jean and Lela Marie remained to visit until Easter with their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Swanson of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Erickson of Portland and Mrs. James Anderson last week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Carrick and Mr. and Mrs. Chapman of Portland visited Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, northeast of Hillsboro, Sunday.

Mrs. B. C. Schulmerich and Alice, and Blanche McCormick visited Mrs. Elizabeth Reede at Scholls Sunday.

Miss Rosemary Snyder of Salem visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Snyder, last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Stevens of Portland visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Paine, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hensley visited Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dappen in Portland Sunday.

We wish to thank our friends for the sympathy and kindness extended in the illness and death of our father, Otto Wehler, and also for the lovely floral offerings.—The Family.

Only a scientific examination of your eyes and eyesight will reveal the true condition.—Dr. Thompson, Hotel Washington, next Tuesday, 9th.

CARD OF THANKS

WALL PAPER

ALL THE NEW Mayflower Wallpapers

have a Special Washex Finish which can be kept beautifully clean—indeed, ordinary surface soil sponges right off. Can be used safely in kitchens and bathrooms as in other rooms.

The C. C. Store

J. H. GARRETT, Prop.

Miss Carter Wed to Clarence Palm

BEAVERTON—Marriage of Miss Genevieve Carter and Clarence Palm of Seattle was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the Beaverton Bethel Congregational church. About fifty guests were in attendance. Rev. Clark F. Clark, pastor, read the wedding service. Presiding the ceremony Miss Jean Wilkins of Portland sang, "The Sweetest of Portland" and Samuel B. Lawrence Jr. sang, "At Dawning." They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Earl of Portland, who also played the wedding march. Samuel B. Lawrence Jr. acted as best man. Ushers were Robert Carter and Fielding Denney.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of white net and lace over white satin and a short net veil held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible from which hung white ribbons and a bouquet with pink rosebuds and freesias.

Miss Geraldine Carter of Portland was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a dress of light blue cloth and lace with hat and muff to match. Little Loraine Carter, cousin of the bride, in a fluffy dress of blue, was flower girl.

A short reception in the parlors of the church followed. Miss Dorothy Carter and Miss Katherine Denney assisted about the rooms. Ferns, Oregon grape and pink spring flowers furnished the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Palm left immediately for Seattle, where they will make their home.

Missionary Group Gives Tea Today

The M. E. church missionary society is sponsoring a Japanese tea at 2 p. m. today at the home of Misses Florence and Esther Freeman. Proceeds of the tea will be used for a scholarship for a girl in Korea. Mrs. L. Sherman assisting. Mrs. Harvey Batchelar will lead devotions, a Japanese missionary demonstration will be given by members of the society, a geographical and historical sketch of Japan by Mrs. P. J. Carter and a pantomime, "Froth of the Liquid Jamb," by the Queen Esther girls' class. The public is invited.

Couple Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fayram observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at their home here Friday night. Three tables of pinocle were enjoyed. Mrs. W. G. Hare and Sam Coy had high honors. Supper was served at Ely's Chateau after cards.

Mrs. Clarence Reeves of Denver, Colo., and her brother, Kenneth Shogren of Toledo, were Sunday visitors at the J. E. Reeves home.

Mrs. Clarence Reeves and her brother had not seen each other in several years and met there by chance. She accompanied him to Toledo for a visit. Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Forest Grove was also a Sunday visitor of Mrs. J. E. Reeves. She plans to move to Hillsboro in June.

Mrs. George Reynolds and daughter Ruth of Seattle, Wash., spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. L. A. Long, Mesdames Norman Hunter, Gerald Perry and Donald Long of Portland visited Friday with Mrs. L. A. Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Patterson and Charles visited the city and at Garibaldi with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Humburg. Mrs. Humburg and son Alan returned with them for a week's visit.

H. S. Rogers, department junior vice commander, U. S. W. Y., and Mrs. Rogers attended a banquet and official inspection of General Lawton camp at Eugene Monday.

Ralph Hoerber and his mother, Mrs. Hoerber, Mrs. Anna Koch, and Mrs. Gertrude Peterson and daughter, all of Portland, visited the F. Abendroth home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bergen of Marshfield visited Mrs. C. B. Applegate and Miss Ethel Bergen this week. They attended the Florists' convention in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Manley of Eugene, who he attending the convention in Portland, visited the city and at Garibaldi with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Humburg. Mrs. Humburg and son Alan returned with them for a week's visit.

H. S. Rogers, department junior vice commander, U. S. W. Y., and Mrs. Rogers attended a banquet and official inspection of General Lawton camp at Eugene Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Phillips and Rev. Roy Sedge of Portland, and Rev. Raynor Smith of Tigard visited Rev. Charles Reed Monday.

Mrs. James Jackson returned Saturday from several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Harrow, and family at Corvallis.

Mrs. Dean, Professor Cameron Marshall and Burtis Preston of Willamette university, Salem, spent Sunday at the R. A. Dean home.

Mrs. O. E. Edwards of Redmond is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Ennis. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will leave soon for Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Bowlesby and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Olsen and children of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whiddon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Campbell attended the florists' convention at Portland Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Patten attended the flower show Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips and Rev. Roy Sedge of Portland, and Rev. Raynor Smith of Tigard visited Rev. Charles Reed Monday.

Mrs. James Jackson returned Saturday from several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Harrow, and family at Corvallis.

Mrs. Dean, Professor Cameron Marshall and Burtis Preston of Willamette university, Salem, spent Sunday at the R. A. Dean home.

Mrs. O. E. Edwards of Redmond is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Ennis. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will leave soon for Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Bowlesby and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Olsen and children of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whiddon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Campbell attended the florists' convention at Portland Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Patten attended the flower show Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips and Rev. Roy Sedge of Portland, and Rev. Raynor Smith of Tigard visited Rev. Charles Reed Monday.

Mrs. James Jackson returned Saturday from several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Harrow, and family at Corvallis.

Mrs. Dean, Professor Cameron Marshall and Burtis Preston of Willamette university, Salem, spent Sunday at the R. A. Dean home.

Mrs. O. E. Edwards of Redmond is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Ennis. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will leave soon for Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Bowlesby and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Olsen and children of Salem were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whiddon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Campbell attended the florists' convention at Portland Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Patten attended the flower show Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Victor Phillips and Rev. Roy Sedge of Portland, and Rev. Raynor Smith of Tigard visited Rev. Charles Reed Monday.

Mrs. James Jackson returned Saturday from several weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. George Harrow, and family at Corvallis.

Mrs. Dean, Professor Cameron Marshall and Burtis Preston of Willamette university, Salem, spent Sunday at the R. A. Dean home.

Mrs. O. E. Edwards of Redmond is visiting her mother, Mrs. Fred Ennis. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will leave soon for Ashland.

Recreation Meet Set Grange Hall Here on Tuesday

Washington county recreational group will hold its second monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the Hillsboro grange hall. Miss Gertrude Skow, home demonstration agent at large, will be in charge of the instruction.

Recreational group is made up of delegates from the various organizations over the county. These delegates meet regularly each month and receive instruction in conducting recreational programs.

At present 23 organizations in the county who do not have representatives attending these meetings and would like to have the benefit of this instruction, are asked to get in touch with the county agent's office and arrange to have members take part. The meetings are not open to the public.

Mrs. F. S. Estep Honored Saturday

Mrs. F. S. Estep celebrated her 85th birthday Saturday. Members of the Woman's Relief Corps, Daughters of Union Veterans, and neighbors gave her a card and flower shower. Her daughter, Mrs. Frank Challacombe, served tea to friends calling during the afternoon.

Family dinner honoring Mrs. F. S. Estep on her 85th birthday anniversary was given at her home Sunday. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames C. T. Pomeroy and Charles Goodwin of Salem, B. F. Estep of Dilley, Frank Challacombe and daughter Dorothy, and Mrs. Ruby Estep and children.

Messrs. and Mesdames R. C. Busch and daughter, A. H. Busch and sons, A. W. Hoffman and G. R. Morgan spent the week-end at the Tillamook beaches.

Mrs. Edna Zilly and son Fred of Portland, who have been visiting Mrs. May I. Smith, left Tuesday for Los Angeles, Cal., to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs.