Old Papers Found

An Argus 34 years old and an Oregonian of 40 years ago were found by Fred Caldwell of Hillsboro, when going through an old landmark at Timber that was being razed. Apparently these papers had served as wall paper all these years.

This old house was built by Bruce Wilson, an Englishman, who came to what is now Timber about 60 years ago. Cedar split boards and pegged nails were used. Mr. Wilson built a dam across the Nehalem river (part of it is there yet) and a water wheel to mill for a living. He manufactured decoy ducks and sold them to a Portland hardware concern. During the last few years the house had been used for a "hobo" camp, where many men gathered to warm themselves by the big fireplace.

Interesting Bits of News Gleaned in County Trips

(By Francis R. Barr)

The garden shows promise, but if warm weather doesn't come soon it may have to be replanted was the expression of J. Heine of Cornelius. Mr. Heine has one of the best of early gardens but is waiting for the warm weather to bring it out.

Fishing season is open and John Witt of Cornelius route 2 couldn't resist the opening morning. The Witt party fished at Rock Spring on the Tualatin river, according to his sister. Early fishing in the Tualatin is good, but later on the water from Wapato lake is pumped into the river, making it too muddy for good fishing. Because the ground is too wet to farm the country people had a good opportunity to take advantage of the opening morning.

As in years back, Dairy creek should be lined with fishermen for the first few days, according to Mrs. F. W. Rafferty on Dairy creek near Mountaineer. Mr. Rafferty has 120 acres on which he is doing general farming and milking 11 cows.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Robb are homesteading a place on the Pumpkin Ridge road. They hope to have their place in shape soon for farming. Mr. Robb is logging at the present.

YOU'RE ALWAYS IN THE COMFORT ZONE

THE NEW FORD V-8

THE 1935 Ford V-8 brings you the most important Ford development since the introduction of the Ford V-8 engine—the new Full-floating Springbase with Comfort Zone Seating.

Wherever you sit in this new Ford V-8, you ride centered—between the springs. Springs are longer, more flexible, and the springbase increased to 123 inches. The result is "front seat riding comfort" even for back seat passengers.

New riding ease in the 1935 Ford V-8 is matched by new driving ease. Control, steering, parking are easier. Starting and shifting have been made almost effortless. Braking requires surprisingly little foot pressure—yet is surer, smoother.

Here is a car that is styled to the minute—built for the years. Welded all-steel body, engine and chassis improvements make it more durable than ever. Safety glass throughout at no extra cost.

Look to this new Ford V-8 for everything you could want in a modern car. See it at your nearest Ford dealer's now.
