

Banks Class Play Success

High School Team Defeated; Fire Victims Helped

(By Mrs. Fred Wolford)
BANKS—The senior play, "Full House," was well rendered and was greeted with an enthusiastic audience, although the attendance was not as large as usual. Marian Maxwell kept the audience in an uproar throughout the play with her impersonation of a dumb maid. The other parts were all well played. Music between acts was furnished by Mrs. C. W. Moore and Charlotte Sullivan, violinists, accompanied by Miss Sylvia Duyck at the piano.
Banks high school was defeated by Gaston high school Tuesday afternoon here 7 to 2.
CCC Boys Move
Lyle Wolford of Co. 929 CCC spent the week-end at his home here. Company 929 has recently moved from Otter Rock to New Benson park on the Columbia River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins of Wishram, Wash., spent the weekend at the Hopkins home here.
E. E. Fugham of Dayton is visiting his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Tresham here.
A. H. Wolford, Lyle and Vernon Wolford visited Saturday afternoon and evening at the Emmett Wolford and Frank Genzer homes on Green Mountain.
Fire Victims Helped
Mothers' club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. G. W. McGraw. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the family whose household goods and clothing were destroyed when the house on the Ross place west of Banks was destroyed by fire April 28.
Amos Sellers returned home April 30 from the St. Vincent hospital, where he underwent a major operation. He is improving nicely and is able to be up and around the house.
Mrs. Katherine Keenan and Mrs. Mary Reid of North Plains visited Mrs. Keenan's daughter, Mrs. N. J. Griffen, Thursday.
The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Delaney was taken to the Jones hospital in Hillsboro Saturday, where it is receiving special care for a week.
