

Hillsboro B. P. Club Receives State Honors

Mrs. Zola Morgan, past president of the Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's club, was elected to the office of first vice-president of the state federation at the fifteenth annual state convention in The Dalles the last of the week.

Mrs. Morgan, who has advanced from the office of second vice-president of the state, is deputy county school superintendent and is active in civic and fraternal affairs. Other officers are Mrs. Winifred Herrick of Salem, president; Mrs. Leona Bryant of Coquille, second vice-president; Miss Ethel Taylor of Eugene, secretary; Mrs. Faith Kimball Black of Salem, corresponding secretary; and Miss Martha Hagberg of Gresham, treasurer. Mrs. Emma McKinney, president of the local club, was elected as a director of the state federation.

Hillsboro also received honors in the "Hobbies" contest, when Mrs. Eleanor McDougall of the local club won first and second prize on paintings entered in the art department.

McMinnville club won the prize for greatest increase in membership and memorizing the club collect. The prize is a National highway sign, the same as won by Hillsboro last year, thus bringing the first and second National signs to be received in Oregon to this part of the state.

Salem received first prize in the chorus contest and will enter the National contest at Seattle in July. Mrs. Rose Humple Wilkes, formerly of Hillsboro, is a member of the winning chorus.

Roseburg has been chosen as the convention city for 1936.

Delegates attending from the local club were Mrs. Fred Caldwell, Mrs. Sam Coy, Mrs. Audrey Healey, Mrs. Pearl Allen, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. McKinney. Mr. Coy also spent the week-end at The Dalles.

Mrs. Eudora Ramsay Richardson of Richmond, Virginia, national field secretary, was the principal speaker of the convention, and also spoke at a dinner meeting of the Portland club at the Mallory hotel Monday evening.

Those attending the dinner from Hillsboro were Mrs. L. M. Townsend, Mrs. Ethel Barnes, Mrs. Ralph Dresser, Miss Gussie Sigler and Miss Helen Stevens.

Honor Conferred on Local Woman at Church Meet

Title of "Hillsboro's Outstanding Mother" was bestowed on Mrs. Emma McKinney Thursday afternoon at a gathering of mothers of Christian Council club members at Pilgrim House, when Miss Nayneane Patterson, president of Gamma chapter of the Council, presented Mrs. McKinney with a bouquet in the name of the girls of the chapter, who had unanimously chosen her for the honor. Pilgrim Guild ladies joined in the meeting.

Mrs. McKinney, in her response, said that she had only done her duty and received congratulations from several prominent Oregonians and was honored by editorials in the Oregon Journal and McMinnville Telephone-Register and in a radio broadcast by Art Kirkham over KOIN.

Altho the Gammans arranged the Mothers' afternoon, all the chapters of high school age joined in the program. Taking part were Delaurie Kump, Betty Mayes, Shirley Kelley and Patricia Moyer of Gamma chapter; Walter Foelker and Allan Sigler of Omega chapter; Edwood Coelett and LuVerne Abendroth of Vikings; Bud Person of Delta Chapter; Alvin Mohr and Robert McCulloch of C-H; and Claire Beeler of Pilgrim House young people. Mrs. Myrtle Blasing, who read an original poem, was presented with flowers from the Rose and Bluebell chapters of Flower Guilds, junior girls' groups, of which she is an honorary member. Presentation was made by Beverly Weil and Bernice Colfer, honor girls in those clubs. Gamma members served light refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Pastor Henry S. Haller, advisor for the Christian Council, also spoke briefly, reviewing the history of the clubs, and asking the mothers to take more interest in their children's social activities and their school life.

Brother Dies—Anton Carl Hansen, 77, brother of Mrs. Caroline Lund of Hillsboro, died May 16 in Portland and funeral services were conducted Saturday.

Garden Club to Meet—Hillsboro Garden club will meet Monday at the public library at 8 p. m. A committee from the club will have charge of the program.

Return from World Trip—Dr. and Mrs. Dan Merner of Witch Hazel returned last week from a six months' trip around the world.

Present Play Friday—Hi-Tri Missionary society will present a play at the Christian church Friday at 8 p. m.

Mrs. H. Liebenow Honored—A pot luck luncheon was given last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Liebenow of South Tualatin. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of

Welcome Gifts of JEWELRY

Boy and girl graduate will share the same joy—with a gift of jewelry. We urge you to select from our variety of appropriate gifts—all bearing our guarantee for enduring beauty, worth and worthwhile value.

J. L. ANDERSON, Jeweler
211 E. Main Street Phone 991Y

Vice-President

Mrs. Zola Morgan, elected vice-president of Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs at The Dalles Saturday.

Raymond Lair Chapter Leader

Raymond Lair was elected president of Omega chapter, Hillsboro Christian Council, at the annual meeting Monday evening. Officers named were: Walter Foelker, vice-president; Allan Sigler, secretary; and Elvis Dickason, treasurer. The new president was secretary last year, while the new secretary has served two terms as president.

The banquet was attended by 120 persons, table decorations being purple iris with white syringa and gold colored candles. The health committee, consisting of Mrs. Sam Coy, Margaret Dixon, Olga Konigsmann, Mrs. S. E. Fayram, Mrs. H. Batchelor, Mrs. A. F. Schendel, book-keeper of the Commercial National bank, as the candidate for Goddess. Miss Coulter's name is the first to be presented, but all organizations in the county will be invited to name a candidate. Rules of the contest will be the same as last year.

Local People Back from East
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gates returned Monday to their home at Leisville from Tekamah, Neb., where they have been since last September. Mrs. Gates, who was injured in an accident shortly after her arrival in Nebraska, is improving and is able to use crutches. Mrs. Nina Pratt, a cousin, returned with them for a visit. They spent a few days with Gordon Gates in Berkeley, Cal., on the way home.

P. T. A. Study Group to Meet
Adolescent study group of P. T. A. will hold the last meeting until fall Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. with Mrs. W. C. Christensen. Miss Tennessee Swanson, teacher, will lead a discussion on "Fostering Social Contacts in the Home."

Pythian Sisters Have Pot Luck
Phoenicia Temple, Pythian Sisters, will have a pot luck dinner for their families and friends Friday at 6:30 p. m. Committee in charge is Mrs. H. R. Chandler, Mrs. Natallie VanMoock, Mrs. Anna Schulerich, and Mrs. W. C. Christensen.

Cactus and Odd Blooms Shown
Purple cactus sent Mrs. C. B. Applegate by Capt. Edward Bittman of southern Utah, a spray of unusually large snowballs brought in by Vivian Hesse of near Sholls, and a double hilly grown by Ray Cline of Hillsboro are shown in the Argus window this week.

Miss Clapp Window
Miss Frances Clapp of Japan will be guest speaker at Congregational Social Circle luncheon Tuesday at 1 p. m. in the Sunday school rooms. Those who plan to attend the luncheon are asked to notify Mrs. B. W. Barnes, Mrs. E. B. Tongue or Mrs. H. A. Deck.

Have Dinner Meeting
Bi-monthly meeting of the local credit bureau was held Monday evening at the Blue Eagle cafe. A credit policy recommended by the board of directors was adopted by members present.

Beta Phi's Entertain
Beta Phi girls' club entertained with a dinner dance at Omar's restaurant in Portland Saturday evening. Mrs. George Fischer and Mrs. James Batchelder were chaperones.

Mrs. Taylor Hostess
Circle three of the M. E. Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. L. E. Taylor and Mrs. Hillsboro Tuesday evening. Members are urged to attend.

Has Bridge Luncheon
Mrs. A. W. Hoffman was hostess for a luncheon and contract bridge Monday. Mrs. G. Russell Morgan made high score and Mrs. Carl Miller second.

Visits Relatives
Lieutenant Commander Ross Dierdorff of Bremerton arrived Tuesday evening for several days' visit with his mother, Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, and brother, W. H. Dierdorff, north of Hillsboro.

Mrs. Stockton Honored
Mrs. C. E. Wells entertained Tuesday with a social afternoon and tea for Mrs. Lora Stockton of Portland, house guest of Mrs. L. T. McPheeters.

WOMEN'S RAYON HOSE

Women's Rayon Hose
Reinforced double sole, high spliced heels. Size 8 1/2 to 10 1/2 PAIR 25c

Anklets
10c Pair

ANKLETS
15c Pair

The C. C. Store
J. H. GARRETT, Prop.

Miss D. Brown Banquet Speaker at B. P. W. Club

Miss Dulcinea Brown, world traveler, was the speaker at the Mother-Daughter banquet of the Business and Professional Women's club Wednesday night of last week, and told of the habits and characteristics of mothers of different countries in which she had visited. Miss Brown, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brown of this city, is director of religious education in connection with the council of churches in Portland.

Other numbers on the program were tap dancing by Karolee Dietrich of Portland and Dale Busch, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Dietrich; accordion numbers by Dale Busch, vocal solos by Miss Dorothy Sigler of Portland, accompanied by Mrs. Sewell; song, "Lullaby," by the club chorus, directed by Miss Edwina Broadbent; reading of original poems, "So God Gave Us Mothers," by Mrs. Myrtle Blasing; and "To the Daughters," by the president. Each guest was presented with a rose. Karolee Dietrich and Dale Busch making the presentations while Mrs. Fred Sewell, Mrs. Lyman Howe and Miss Elaine Caldwell sang "Only a Rose."

Mrs. Fred Caldwell led in singing club songs with Mrs. Sewell as accompanist. Mrs. A. W. Hoffman of the scholarship loan fund acted as program chairman and her committee, with Miss Gussie Sigler as chairman.

Miss Roberta Barnes was the only member having a birthday in May, and was presented with a gift.

The banquet was attended by 120 persons, table decorations being purple iris with white syringa and gold colored candles. The health committee, consisting of Mrs. Sam Coy, Margaret Dixon, Olga Konigsmann, Mrs. S. E. Fayram, Mrs. H. Batchelor, Mrs. A. F. Schendel, book-keeper of the Commercial National bank, as the candidate for Goddess. Miss Coulter's name is the first to be presented, but all organizations in the county will be invited to name a candidate. Rules of the contest will be the same as last year.

Local People
Dr. and Mrs. Warren Horner of San Francisco, Cal., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Barnes and Kenneth Linklater Tuesday evening. Dr. Horner is a nephew of Mrs. Barnes, and is attending a specialists' convention in Portland this week.

Local People
Mrs. George T. McGrath has been confined to her home with a sprained knee during the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baldwin of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. McGrath visited Government Camp on Mt. Hood Sunday.

Local People
Mrs. C. B. Tyer and daughter, Mrs. Elmore, of Brownsville visited her sister, Mrs. C. C. Snyder, during the week-end. Miss Rosemary Snyder of Salem also spent the week-end at the C. C. Snyder home.

Local People
Mr. and Mrs. Francis Zicha and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldinger of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. William Aldinger and Mrs. C. Reimer spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mohr.

Local People
Mrs. E. A. Griffith and Mrs. L. C. Lomax drove to Albany Friday on business. Mrs. Emma Curran returned with them for a visit with Mrs. Sophia Freerksen.

Local People
Robert Watts and Miss Jane Millholland of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Darity and daughter of North Plains visited Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Watts Sunday.

Local People
Miss Jane Auld, student nurse at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, and her friend, Miss Dorothy Bowen, spent the week-end at the J. L. Auld home.

Local People
Mrs. J. N. Wiley left Tuesday morning for Medford to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. D. Thorndike, who died Monday.

Local People
Alf O. Johnson, S. W. Melhuish, and V. W. Gardner attended a laymen's dinner at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Portland Monday evening.

Local People
Miss Genevieve Brandaw, student at Laurelwood academy, is ill with mumps at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brandaw.

Local People
Mr. and Mrs. O. Everett of Sandy and Mr. and Mrs. W. D. MacDowell of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Everett Tuesday evening.

Local People
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jenkins of near Hillsboro and H. E. Hadley went fishing on the Trask river last week-end and caught the limit.

Local People
Mrs. Bertha Otis of Blaine visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Malchow, and her sister, Mrs. Hallie Ireland, Friday and Saturday.

Local People
Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Marugg of Tobias and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shei of Portland visited Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Chase Sunday.

FINE FEATHERS HOSIERY
The new three-quarter length hose in all the new, popular shades. Pure Silk. PAIR 49c

Fine Feathers Full-Length Hose
All silk, fine gauge. Chiffon or Service Weight. PAIR 79c

Two Pairs ..... $1.50

Betrothals of Two Announced

Betrothals of Misses Gertrude Needham and Rowena Herrmann were announced Tuesday evening at a party given in their honor by Mrs. L. C. Mooberry and Miss Maurine Moore at the Mooberry home in Cornelius.

Miss Moore played the wedding march and a bevy of young girls entered with corsages for all guests. In each corsage was a tiny scroll in the heart of a rosebud, announcing the engagement of Miss Needham to Russell Ide and Miss Herrmann to Charles Ketcham.

Miss Alma Eslinger sang an appropriate solo. Games added to the evening's pleasure and refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated with tall lighted tapers.

Guests were Mesdames Maurice Romig, Milton Simon, and Victor Bryant, Misses Ina Pearl Allen, Georgina Brown, Eva McCormick, Elsie Anderson, Dixie Lee MacDowell, Alma Eslinger, Oradell Prickett, Virginia Perkins, Louise Cruzen, Ann Munkres, Dorothy Challacombe, Esther Harty, Dorothy Barr and Leanoere Sherman.

Miss Reddig and W. Austin Marry
FIRDALE—Miss Helen Reddig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reddig of Firdale, was married to Walter Austin, son of Charles Austin of Hillsboro, at a simple home ceremony Thursday evening, May 16.

Arthur Austin of Portland and Ruth Austin of Vancouver, brother and sister of the bridegroom, were the only attendants. The B. M. Putman of Hillsboro performed the ceremony.

Only relatives and a few very close friends witnessed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated with early spring flowers.

A reception was held for those attending the wedding following the ceremony.

The couple will make their home at Mr. Austin's farm at Yamhill.

Anniversary to be Observed
Moose members and their friends are invited to attend a dance at the old Grange hall Friday evening, May 31, to celebrate the first anniversary of the local organization.

Hillsboro Moose lodge visited Vancouver lodge Friday evening and the old Grange hall Friday evening this Friday at a meeting on the Battleship "Oregon." Weekly card party was held Monday evening at the home of Steve Privratsky.

N. E. W. F. Social Tonight
Entertainment and social evening will be held today (Thursday) at 8 p. m. by the N. E. W. F. at the old Grange hall. Everyone is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sprague
of Seaside were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday, accompanied by C. L. Harrison, who joined his wife at Laurel for a visit with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Schultz. The Spragues were looking for Jonas Nuen, who was thought to be in business here about 30 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wells and son Bobby of Sheridan were Sunday guests of Mrs. Wells' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Long. Mrs. Fred Baumann and little daughter of Eugene, who had been visiting at the Long home, returned to Eugene Monday.

Miss Tillie Cornelius
and Mrs. Maude Brower of Portland were calling on Hillsboro relatives Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Kramien was brought home from Jones hospital last Thursday. She is convalescing from a recent operation.

L. P. Stranahan
visited Mr. and Mrs. E. Barham at Salem Sunday.

Choice rhododendrons and azaleas now in bloom. Portage Nursery, 3 miles northeast of Hillsboro. 14-5

At Helvetia hall Saturday night
May 25 Swiss Alpine orchestra, Admission 25c. Tell your friends, everybody welcome. 14

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our appreciation of the many acts of kindness and sympathy extended during the illness and obsequies of our wife and mother, Mrs. Paul Seligman, and also for the beautiful floral offerings.—Paul Seligman, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith. 14p

CARD OF THANKS
As relatives of Myra Rae Oppenlander, we wish to thank those who aided us by sympathy and understanding during the recent loss of our loved one, and for their beautiful floral tributes to her memory.—J. A. Oppenlander, Clifton Oppenlander, Mrs. J. B. Prickett. 14p

Memorial Wreaths Flowering Plants
Shop Location Fred's Superior Market
Greenhouse 12th and Oak St. Phone 651 or 1021

Big Montag Range Special

10 DAYS ONLY!

$68.75
Includes 4-piece aluminum set—Coffee percolator, large tea kettle, double boiler and stew kettle.

$76.75
Includes 7-piece set Federal Enamelware, ever brilliant chromium lids—2 large stew kettles, tea kettle, coffee pot, 3 sauce pans.

SEE OUR WINDOW
Lester Ireland & Co.
Hillsboro, Oregon

art of Beaverton and Miss Moore of Multnomah, and a piano number by a Newberg member. Dancing followed the program.

County Women at Garden Meet
Mrs. Earl Hobbs of Hillsboro and Mesdames Robert Warrens, Isabel Warrens, Mary L. Roberts and Dorothy Seymour of Forest Grove attended the annual meeting of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs at Medford last week. They drove down the inland route and returned by the coast highway. Wild lilacs and rhododendrons were in bloom along the entire route.

Officers of grand lodge present were Edith I. Phillips of Portland, worthy grand matron; Milton L. Myers of Salem, worthy grand patron; Inez Glazier, associate grand matron; Nellie McKinley, grand secretary; Reba Byers, grand ruler; and Milo B. Mack, grand sentinel. Three past grand patrons were present, Judge R. Frank Peters, Frank Mangold and Frank Baldwin.

Program included violin
number by little Charles Treglow of Hillsboro, vocal selections by Miss Stev-

Big Old Time Dance
Tuesday, May 28, at Verboort, Walker's orchestra. 14

Good Time Dance
At Grange hall every Saturday night. Georgia Hess orchestra. Admission 25 cents. 14p

Modern Dance
At Aloha Grange hall every Saturday night. Greenwald's orchestra. Walter Keffer, manager. Admission 25 cents. 14

Rambling Mountaineers
Dance at Laurel hall Saturday night, May 25. Old time and modern. Dad Thomas, floor manager.

VENETIAN
THIS WEEK
Thu - Fri - Sat.
Matinee Saturday at 2 P. M. — Evening at 6:30

A story of farm and fireside that throbs in the hearts of millions... now on the screen, in all of its whole souled beauty!

GENE STRATTON-PORTER'S

LADDIE
JOHN BEAL, GLORIA STUART, Virginia Weidler

Directed by George Stevens
A Pandro S. Berman Production

PREVIEW
SATURDAY NIGHT, 11:15
No Extra Charge
MARLENE DEITRICH
in
"The Devil is a Woman"
Direct from Portland First Run.

And Selected Short Subjects

Sun - Mon - Tue. May 26, 27, 28

DOUBLE FEATURE BILL
Continuous Show Sunday — 2 until 11 p. m.

Memorial Wreaths Flowering Plants
Shop Location Fred's Superior Market
Greenhouse 12th and Oak St. Phone 651 or 1021

Muller's Flower Shop
— and —
Greenhouse
Shop Location Fred's Superior Market
Greenhouse 12th and Oak St. Phone 651 or 1021

GEORGE RAFT BEN BERNIE AND HIS LADS
STOLEN HARMONY
A Paramount Picture
10c and 25c
PLUS FEATURE No. 2

WAR DECLARED!
As Tim defies the hired assassins of the prairie's secret terror!

Tim McCoy
Justice of the Range
with Billie Seward
Directed by David Selman
A COLUMBIA PICTURE

— PLUS —
Short Subjects