Suggestion Has Merit

A suggestion of merit was made recently by the Beaverton Enterprise that should receive encouragement in Hillsboro and other Washington county towns on the Oregon Electric line. If feasible it should be the means of staging a comeback for one of the county's largest taxpayers, give much employment and be economy for the traveling public.

The belief was expressed by a Beaverton resident that if the Oregon Electric should inaugurate a "one man car" service over their electric line between Portland, Multnomah, Garden Home, Beaverton, Hillsboro, Cornelius and Forest Grove and way points, charge a ten-cent fare to Beaverton and balance at same low rate, the company would soon have a big passenger business out this way.

Why, not, it works elsewhere and with the number of commuters out this way a low rate should be successful. Now is a good time to get busy on the project and see what can be done with Oregon Electric officials.

One of our townsmen has advanced the idea that the state capitol might be built on the order of a forestry building with large cedar logs used for the exterior and the interior finished in Oregon products. This would no doubt make an attractive building and would symbolize our state, which has so much timber.

What Other Editors Say

Truth Will Out!

Early this week, the National Association of Manufacturers, in its report, asserted that the nation is about to break the backbone of the depression. "Virtually every business index studied, points upward at this time. There is an undoubted spirit of optimism in the land. Recovery is within our grasp," says the report.

It is difficult to reconcile such a report from business leaders with those recently made by GOP stalwarts Fletcher and T. Roosevelt Jr.—unless one senses the chagrin of these and other reactionaries at the failure of their efforts.

But if you contact business men of republican faith they will agree, in spite of any mental reservation they will make, that there is an upward swing, people are buying new goods and paying old bills, tax collections are better, and there is little trace of that deep pessimism which was common up till two short years ago.

Who has brought about this welcome change? Well, every man and woman is entitled to his or her own guess.—Hood River News.

Governor Martin's success in getting the legislature to adopt his views to such a great extent indicates that he has little practical use for a "brain trust" or "planning commission" to tell him what to do. If he will just follow his own inspirations, keep his temper and be tolerant with those who differ with him he will be far more successful than by trying to follow the plans of outsiders.—Newport Journal.

Our Yesterdays

Fifteen Years Ago

Argus, June 3, 1920—John Wesley Jackson, native son, died at North Plains Sunday. He was born on donation land claim of his father, Ulysses Jackson, March 3, 1858.

Eva Carstens of Banks and James Williamson of San Diego married in Portland May 27.

H. V. Gates speaker at Memorial Day exercises here.

Thirty Years Ago

Argus, June 8, 1905—William Reid reports from New York that Tillamook will have a railroad. It is anticipated that line will lead out from Washington county at some point on the Southern Pacific, probably Hillsboro.

There will be but one big celebration in Washington county this year and that will be at Cornelius on the Fourth of July. Washington County Veterans' association will meet there July 1, 2 and 3, and on the Fourth the citizens of Cornelius will close the program with a rouser of a celebration.

W. G. Hare returned from Ann Arbor, Mich. and is now in charge of the Washington county exhibit at the World's Fair.

Tuesday was Washington County Day at the Lewis & Clark fair. Southern Pacific carried ten coach loads of visitors to Portland. Hillsboro had four coaches; Forest Grove had four; Gaston one, and Cornelius one. B. P. Cornelius and W. N. Barrett addressed the fair visitors for Hillsboro; W. K. Newell for the county; G. W. Marsh, for Cornelius, and Judge Hollis for Forest Grove.

Laying of the cornerstone for the new German Presbyterian church of Bethany took place June 1. Hillsboro has finest public school in county. A ninth grade, very essential to the thoroughness of the school system, has been added.

Opposition to Recall Voiced

Recall Voiced

Producer, Shipper Group Cites Work of Agitators

ONTARIO, Oregon, June 4.—Political agitators have for the past several weeks been gathering together the forces of discontent in preparation for a bitter and determined recall campaign against Governor Charles H. Martin. It was charged here today by H. C. Boyer, president of the Oregon Producers' and Shippers' association.

Not only is it planned to attempt the recall of Governor Martin, but the same group will seek the recall in Multnomah county of State Senator H. L. Corbett, president of the state senate. Under existing Oregon laws the president of the senate becomes acting governor in the event of the death or removal of the governor. And those sponsoring this movement do not want Senator Corbett to serve as acting governor in the event that Governor Martin should be recalled.

Mr. Boyer revealed in the statement he made public here today. "Although the Oregon Producers' and Shippers' association is non-partisan and non-political, we believe that the recall of Governor Martin is a serious matter and we are so serious that the voters of Oregon, regardless of political affiliations, should stand as a unit in resisting this attempt to overthrow our duly elected state government," declared Mr. Boyer.

"As might be expected, these few ill-advised leaders of political and economic discontent haven't the moral courage to come out in the open. They prefer, for the present, to remain behind the scenes and such time as their insidious propaganda of class hatred has taken root in the minds of those who eventually will be called upon to support the recall of Governor Martin," declared Mr. Boyer.

"The chief trouble with these self-seeking political malcontents is that they do not state a man who is courageous enough to demand and insist on the observance of law and order."

"This small group of radical agitators now fomenting this recall agitation are the same ones who, a year ago, gave vocal as well as material support to a communistic labor organization which cost the farmers of this state millions of dollars during the longshoremen's strike. There was a strange bond of sympathy between them and those who were in the vanguard of law and order and brought many of our producers to the threshold of financial ruin."

"During the last session of the legislature, when the producers of this state were making a determined effort to obtain remedial legislation for their own protection and for the protection of the public, it was the last-minute tactics of the self-seeking political malcontents that defeated some of our plans."

"According to present plans, it is proposed to start the recall petitions against both Governor Martin and Senator Corbett in about six weeks. The welfare of this state is endangered. The political hypocrites instigating this agitation must either be stopped or we will be thrown into a state of chaos from which we will be many years trying to recover."

"As a citizen of Oregon, and without regard to partisan politics, I urge the thinking people of this state to stand together in stamping out this pending political racketeering. It is a serious menace to the economic, social and political life of this state. The recall campaign will be based on the flimsy and dishonest pretense that Governor Martin is in sympathy with the great mass of people that is the smoke-screen always employed by loud-mouthed opportunists to hide their own hidden motives."

"There is only one issue in this recall agitation. It is law and order and decency in state government as against the domination of a radical and ill-tempered few who are dissatisfied at not being able to control the office of governor for their own selfish purposes."

"It so happens that I am a lifelong republican, but I place the welfare of my state far above the horizon of party politics. In common with many thousands of republicans and democrats and followers of other political thought in Oregon, I have a profound admiration for the courage and sound judgment of Governor Martin. To remove him from office at this time would be a dire calamity."

Four-H Club Group to Attend Meeting

 The majority using money that they have made in project work.

Approximately 27 club members from the girls' division have registered to attend the summer school, according to Mrs. Harry R. Morgan of the county school superintendent's office. ## Recreation Program Proposed by SERA

Opportunity for a recreation program in Hillsboro this summer under the state department of education was announced this week in a letter to R. W. Weil, county relief chairman. Programs will be limited at present to urban areas or city school districts having a population of 1500 or more and Hillsboro is the only city that can qualify. Scope of the proposal may be extended later.

Recreational programs would be conducted along lines similar to the emergency education classes last year according to the letter. Qualified workers would be selected from SERA clients. Communities taking advantage of the opportunity will be asked to provide supervision. No definite action has been taken here.

Miss Alice Maxwell, executive relief secretary, has been appointed to conduct surveys in four counties for the state committee. She is working in Yamhill county this week.

Sale of Property Made by Galaway

That real estate is moving is evidenced by the sales reported by local realtors in recent weeks.

The Valley Fern place of 40 acres at Farmington was sold through Galaway to Peter F. Klein, who came to Oregon a year ago from North Dakota. Among other deals was that of C. L. Crocker's 55-acre farm near Newton to Fred Denthals of the Fir Grove Dairy. He also arranged the sale of 30 acres owned by A. Kaufman near Huber to E. E. Jenkins of West Union, who will move there in the fall with his family. Carl Peterson of Hillsboro bought the Mrs. John Dennis 55-acre farm at Newton through Galaway.

Nancy Ginton and family of Smith Center, Kan., have bought 99 acres from E. C. Peterson at Gales Creek. A house with an acre of ground was sold by Stella Ellis to W. Clark. The deals were made through Galaway.

Fire Breaks Out in Meacham Area

Fire broke out in the W. E. Kinner holdings south of Sherman's mill Saturday afternoon and has burned over approximately 150 acres logged-over land in the vicinity of Meacham. Situation was reported as quiet Wednesday evening in Forest Grove.

Nearly 100 CCC men and other workers have been stationed in the area under the direction of Fire Warden Cecil Kyle. The blaze was potentially dangerous as a number of summer homes and an abandoned sawmill were in the danger zone.

Summer Weather Finally Arrives

Summer arrived in Washington county with a vengeance this week. Maximum temperatures of 93 degrees Tuesday and 95 degrees Wednesday being recorded by A. W. Moore of the local U. S. biological survey. The sudden turn in the weather was particularly noticeable after several weeks of cool temperatures.

Straw hats and "Amazon" helmets became suddenly popular and local residents sacrificed looks for comfort by discarding coats. Even the council was forced to transact the serious business of the city in their shirt sleeves.
