Grudge Clash Here Sunday

Hillsboro and Laurel Play Shute Park Diamond

Grudge clash between the local Sunset leaguers and the Laurel squad, expected to be one of the biggest games of the season for two clubs, is slated for Sunday afternoon at the Shute park diamond. Last Sunday Hillsboro took a 14 to 7 licking at the hands of Orengo while Laurel came through with a close 3 to 2 victory over Sherwood.

Laurel holds a slight advantage over the locals in the season's spending but the teams are evenly matched and a good game is expected. As additional incentive for a wild tilt, a barrel of beer has been wagered by the rival clubs.

Orengo pounced on three Hillsboro hurlers to gather 14 hits and trim the locals 14 to 7 Sunday. Hillsboro held a 5 to 2 lead in the fifth inning, but Orengo opened up during the balance of the game to hammer out an imposing 14 hits and trim the locals 14 to 7 Sunday.

Aloha went into the lead of the Sunset league Sunday by nosing out Cornelius 8 to 7 while Tualatin lost to Willamette 7 to 4. In the fifth game on the schedule, Tugard was beaten by Gaston 13 to 0.

Final games of the first half of the season are on tap this coming Sunday. Orengo will go to Willamette, Laurel at Hillsboro, Cornelius at Tugard, Gaston at Sherwood and Aloha at Tualatin.

Results of special games on Memorial Day found Hillsboro swamping Orengo 15 to 8, Gaston nosing out Tualatin 12 to 11, Willamette beating Laurel 11 to 2, Tugard defeating Orengo 13 to 3 and Sherwood blanking Cornelius 9 to 0.
