How To Write A GOOD Want Ad---

THE ARGUS' Want Ad Page is a meeting place for its readers, a meeting place where buyer and seller, employer and employe, home owners and renters may gather. This is the readers' own page.

Not only is the Want Ad Page of The Argus read by nearly every subscriber at some time or other, but it is actually written by hundreds and hundreds of readers.

Mrs. Jones sends in an ad for a spare room and immediately becomes an "associate editor" of the Want Ad Page. Mr. Smith needs a hired man. He inserts a small Want Ad and thereby becomes a member of the "editorial staff" of the Want Ad Page for that particular week.

This service—these advertisements on how to write a good Want Ad-is offered to those who buy or sell merchandise, sell or rent real estate property, and to those who sell services or seek jobs, and to others who employ workers through the Want Ads.

It is to be hoped that the few suggestions that will be given in this series of advertisements will promote a better understanding of the Want Ads, and enable readers to write Ads that will bring them satisfactory results more quickly.
