Sunset Team Beats Laurel

Locals Turn in Victory for Start of Second Half

Local Sunset leaguers turned the tables on Laurel Sunday afternoon to chalk up a 6 to 1 victory for the start of the second half of the 1935 season. Hillsboro will clash with Orencia at Shute park this Sunday and a good game is on tap as the locals are out to avenge a first-half defeat at the hands of Orencia.

Laurel and Hillsboro came out of the first frame tied at one run each, but the locals took a three run lead in the second inning, adding one more in the sixth and two in the eighth. Rocky, the new Hillsboro hurler, allowed but four scattered hits during the game. Schreiner of Laurel permitted but five safe bingles, but errors by his teammates offset his work on the mound.

Bill Joss, local manager, had to retire from the game in the seventh when he collided with Shortstop Fox when both players were running for a Texas leaguer. Joss received a cut over the eye and his glasses were broken.

Aloha, winner of the first half, lost to Tualatin 11 to 6, while Willamette blasted Orencia 10 to 1. Cornelius took Tigar into camp 11 to 7 and Sherwood walloped Gaston 13 to 6.

Games scheduled for this Sunday are as follows: Willamette at Tualatin, Laurel at Sherwood, Gaston at Tigar, Orencia at Hillsboro and Cornelius at Gaston.

Mystery of the disappearance of the keg of beer, put up as a bet between Hillsboro and Laurel in the final game of the first half, was solved Sunday when the keg turned up at Laurel. What happened to the other one will probably always be a mystery as no one seems to have a clear recollection as to just where it went. Joss declared, "The Hillsboro squad, however, thinks that three guesses would solve the question."

Glenwood easily defeated Banks 11 to 2 at Banks Sunday in the Washington County League. Ticheur of Glenwood smashed out a home run in the sixth inning with the bases loaded. It was one of the longest hits ever seen at Banks. Nelson of the winners fanned 13 batters. Cooney Vanderzanden played the best game for the losers. He got three hits and stole four bases besides playing a sparkling game in the field.

Roy nosed out Garden Home 7 to 6. Both defeats for Garden Home this year have been inflicted by Roy.

In a slugging match at North Plains the Plains boys walloped Aloha 13 to 10. Tolke went in and saved the game for North Plains. The Maplewood-Gaston game was not turned in.

"Bears" Down Newberg Nine

Locals Show New Brand of Ball for Second Half

Hillsboro "Bears" opened the second half of the Tualatin Valley league schedule here Sunday afternoon with a bang, turning in a 21 to 3 victory over Newberg. This Sunday the locals will travel to Amity, Hillsboro fans expect them to continue to play the sparkling baseball exhibited against Newberg.

The "Bears" started the scoring attack in the first inning and continued to bring in runs in every frame but the seventh. Home runs by Deaville, Donin, Shattuck and Reeves featured the batting spree that resulted in 17 hits for the locals. Picher Donin held the Newberg batsmen for four bingles during the game and scoreless until the first half of the eighth.

Carlton, winner of the first half, continued his winning pace by defeating Vernonia 7 to 3. Amity lost to Sherwood 6 to 5 in an 11-inning game, while Verboort beat Forest Grove 3 to 2.

Tilts scheduled for this Sunday are as follows: Hillsboro at Amity, Sherwood at Carlton, Vernonia at Forest Grove and Verboort at Newberg.

at the blind school; $35,250 for additions and improvements at the tuberculosis hospital and $81,800 for the new building at the state hospital. In each instance the amount represents 45 per cent of the total cost of the proposed buildings, the legislature, appropriating $50,000, $66,500 and $100,000, respectively, for these three institutions. The federal funds, if forthcoming, will be added to the legislative appropriations to provide for larger and better buildings than was originally planned for.

Bricks from the old capitol building are being stored on the grounds of the state hospital, where they will be cleaned by inmates for use in future building operations. Broken bricks and mortar from the ruins are being dumped along Mill creek at other places in the city where "fills" are needed.

Seventy-two Oregon motorists lost their operators' licenses during May. Sixty of the licenses were revoked and an even dozen suspended. Fifty-five motorists were convicted of drunken driving during the month and required to surrender their drivers' cards for a year.

Members of the state board of control plan an automobile trip through Eastern, Central and Southern Oregon as soon as labor troubles quiet down sufficiently to permit Governor Martin to leave his office for a few days. The tour will include a visit to the tuberculosis hospital at The Dalles and the eastern Oregon state hospital at Pendleton and will require the better part of a week.

Of the $750,000 of outstanding unemployment relief certificates only $100,000 worth are in the hands of private investors. The balance has been bought up by other state funds, keeping the interest in the family so to speak.

Now is the time for school districts to take stock of their building needs in the opinion of C. A. Howard, state superintendent of public instruction.

With the federal government offering to advance 45 per cent of the labor and material costs and loan the remaining 55 per cent for an interest charge of only three per cent, school districts are advised by Howard to take advantage of the present opportunity to secure federal aid.

"While I have not been inclined to vigorously urge school districts to vote bonds for school house construction at this time, nevertheless, there are many districts that will need to build within the next few years and it would seem unfortunate for such districts to pass up this opportunity to secure substantial aid in carrying out necessary construction when it is available," Howard declared.

Howard pointed out that during the school year ending in June, 1934, Oregon school districts spent only $279,000 for buildings, furniture and equipment whereas prior to 1932 the average annual district outlay for Oregon school districts was nearly $3,000,000.

Twenty-one grade separation have been listed by engineers of the state highway department as deserving of immediate attention, but the $2,300,000 which the federal government has allocated to this state for grade crossing elimination will need to build within the next few months. The highway department here has it that 90 per cent of the labor to be employed on emergency projects must come from relief rolls and 40 per cent of the money allocated must be paid out of labor directly on the project.

Tourist travel into Oregon is falling behind that of a year ago. Registration of foreign cars during March, April and May was considerably below that for the same months of 1934. Registrations for the five-month period to May 30 total 19,614 cars or only 34 less than the record for the first five months of last year but the first two months of this year showed a substantial spurt in visitors from other states.

The state board of control has upheld the action of Superintendent Sam Laughlin of the boys' training school in dismissing Oscar Kauffer as parole officer for the institution and in so doing has reiterated its previously announced determination to keep its hands off the internal affairs of state institutions.

Fire insurance companies operating in Oregon have protested to Hugh H. Earle, state fire marshal, against diversion of their fees to the state's general fund. Earle has promised that hereafter fees paid

The Soda Works took a one-run lead in the first inning of the game with the Argus Thursday night, but the Printers came back strong in the balance of the game to turn in a 13 to 1 victory. The grocery store "civil war" between Safeway and Fairway resulted in a 7 to 4 win for the Safeway team.

Games scheduled for tonight (Thursday) are as follows: Irelands vs. Fairway at the north Junior high school diamond, and Argus vs. Safeway on the south field. Tilt between the Guards and the Soda Works has already been played.

Fairway nosed out Irelands 2 to 1 Tuesday evening in the make-up game scheduled between the two teams. Both scored a run in the fifth frame and Fairway put over the winning tally in the seventh.

for men who are able and willing to work, but who are now on relief. Thomas H. MacDonald, chief of the bureau of public roads, has advised R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer, Baldock still awaits instructions from Washington covering the expenditure of the $3,038,642 allotted to Oregon for highway improvement and the $2,334,204 which Oregon will receive for elimination of hazards at railway grade crossings.

Governor Martin now presides over sessions of the board of control with a gavel which Speed Rainey wielded in congress. The gavel was presented to the governor by the late congressman from Illinois shortly before his death.

Automobile registrations in Oregon promise to establish a new record this year. A large number of cars registered this year are new ones which Secretary of State Sells declares to be "substantial evidence of improved business conditions generally throughout the state."

The board of control has authorized the purchase of new fire fighting equipment to be installed at the state institutions south of Salem. The equipment includes two combination pumps and chemical wagons.

The property control division of the state budget department has received $32,000 of SERA funds to finance an inventory of state property. Workers will all be taken from relief rolls and approximately 30 men and women will be given employment for the next ten months, according to Clifton Mudd, state property comptroller.

With the state restoration fund exhausted through payment of losses, due to the capitol fire, there is nothing in the statutes to prevent departments, boards and commissions from purchasing insurance from private companies, according to Attorney General VanWinkle. The only fly in the ointment seems to be a lack of funds to pay the premiums. Self-supporting departments will be able to provide protection for their property but those depending on legislative appropriations must wait for legislative authority. This latter group includes all state buildings, including those at state institutions, it is believed here.

The state board of control has decided to apply for $248,730 in P.W.A. funds in connection with the building program authorized by the last legislature. This would include $31,680 for the new dormitory
