

B. P. Club Elects; Entertains Candidates

Mrs. E. Fayette Allen was elected president of the Business and Professional Women's club at the meeting Friday night. Other officers are Mrs. Marie Hoffman, vice-president; Miss Elaine Caldwell, secretary; Mrs. Anna Townsend, treasurer; and Miss Gertrude Reedham, council member for three years. Miss Marion Lytle and Mrs. Z. J. Riggs are holdover council members. The new officers will take office in July.

Candidates for Goddess of Liberty were honor guests of the club for dinner and later were guests of the Venetian theatre, where they were introduced by Mrs. Zola Morgan, chairman of the club committee, which is sponsoring the contest.

The program included several solos by Miss Minerva Fuller, accompanied by Mrs. Howe, singing of club songs, accompanied by Miss Kathleen Caldwell, the emblem ceremony and a reception to new members.

Mrs. Fayette Allen was elected as delegate from the local club to the National convention in Seattle July 14-20, inclusive, and Miss Gussie Slinger was elected alternate. Mrs. Zola Morgan is one of the five delegates-at-large for the state. Mrs. Morgan, who is vice-president of the state federation, was presented with a gift from the council members, the president, Mrs. Emma McKinney, making the presentation.

Those having birthdays in June, July and August were seated at the birthday table as honor guests, and included Dorothy Snyder, Ivsy Sverson, Eleanor McDougall, Ethel Barnes, Margaret Cady, Anna Townsend, Minnie Coy, Edna Tupper, Elva Batchelor, Marie Hoffman, Dorothy Howe, Marie Schmidt, Bernita Kummer, Eric Johnson, Josephine Boszka, and Mary Louise Higby.

Decorations in the room and on tables were bouquets of red, white and blue flowers, Canterbury Bells, Spirea, and Rambler roses. The finance committee with Mrs. Townsend as chairman was in charge of the dinner, and the emblem and scholarship loan committee with Gussie Slinger as chairman had charge of the program.

The next meeting will be held on July 12 at the home of Mrs. Marie Priest at Hillsdale, and will be a picnic pot luck dinner in the evening. Committee in charge of the picnic includes Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Minnie Coy, Mrs. Nellie Fayram, and Miss Angie Harrington.

Miss Anderson Weds Mr. Willard Shipley

Miss Marie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson, became the bride of Willard Shipley Sunday evening at the Four-square church, at 9 o'clock. Rev. Betty Wilson performed the service, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The platform of the church was decorated with a small white picket fence and gate entwined with roses, lilies and vines. Back of the platform were three panels of white with heart-shaped motifs in pink, roses and pink and white streamers.

The bride was gowned in white satin with a long train, and wore a veil with a bandeau of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, white carnations and water lilies. Mrs. Helen Schroeder of Marshfield was matron of honor and wore cream tulle. She carried pink carnations.

Elmore Schroeder of Marshfield played by Mrs. Green, sister of the bride, accompanied on the vibrato harp by Mrs. Katie Shipley, aunt of the bridegroom.

Miss Anderson was employed for several years with the Spruence-Retz store in Hillsboro, and the past two years has owned a variety store in Portland. Mr. Shipley is employed at Yamhill. The couple plan to make their home in Portland after a short wedding trip.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for about 75 relatives and friends.

Mothers' Club Formed Thursday

Mothers' association, authorized last month by Hillsboro Christian Council, came into being last Thursday afternoon at Pilgrim House.

Miss Junia Johnson of Alma Bennett Olden tent, D. U. V., was elected state department council member No. 3 at the election held in Portland Thursday in conjunction with the state convention of G. A. R. and affiliated organizations. Miss Johnson is a past president of the local tent.

Local Folk Wed Vancouver Monday

Miss Lillian F. Lance, daughter of Mrs. J. Henuengardt, and Vernon R. McFall, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. McFall, were married Monday at Vancouver, Wash., in the presence of relatives and friends. The couple will make their home in Hillsboro.

Stage Circus—

Jean Ann Pasley, Ardis Ellingson, Katherine Wiley and Velma Abendroth staged a circus Saturday afternoon in the Dr. W. H. Pasley yard. Side shows in small tents, fortune tellers, an art gallery, pink lemonade, and balloons added to the gaiety of the occasion. The girls impersonated Zazu Pitts, Greta Garbo, May West and other prominent movie actresses. Ardis Ellingson gave a reading "The Hermit," and Jean Ann Pasley danced the hula-hula. A small admission fee was charged, and the girls netted $2.20. They were assisted in placing the stage and tents by Evelyn Pasley, Mr. Abendroth and Dr. Pasley.

Mother Succumbs—

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Williams, 87, mother of Mrs. Henry Wendt and Mrs. Ford Kenney of Hillsboro, died in Portland Sunday. Other children surviving are: Mrs. D. Z. Irwin, Mrs. James M. Murray, J. R. Williams, all of Portland, and W. W. Williams of Gibbon, Umatilla county.

Appears in Program—

Wayne Nickeson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Nickeson of Hillsboro, has been invited to appear as guest artist tonight (Thursday) on a program sponsored by Harry Sampietro, Portland banjo teacher.

Mrs. Sparks Ends Series Musical Recitals Friday

Friday evening Erma Taylor Sparks closes her series of piano recitals at the Baptist church with a program by her older pupils in solos and duets. Several numbers will be played on four pianos, using twenty-four hands. Other numbers will feature three pianos, twenty-four hands; four pianos, sixteen hands; two pianos, six hands; and two pianos four hands. All solos and ensemble numbers will be done entirely from memory. The program begins at 8:15 o'clock. The public is invited.

Miss Mary Manley was presented last Friday evening in piano recital. She performed an interesting program with poetic insight and understanding of interpretation exceptional for her years. She was ably assisted by Miss Louise Rossman and Master DeLoss Anderson, readers.

Monday evening Miss Evelyn Haworth and Miss Ann Peters were accompanied by their chosen and balanced program. They had selections with much assurance, technical facility and musical charm.

The last number on the program, "The Contra Dance," by Beethoven, arranged as a piano duo, was exceptionally well played. Both these students gave individual recitals last year and it was evident to everyone there that their improvement was marked. Master Robert Peters assisted his sister in the playing of "Liebestraum" by Liszt, arranged as a duet. His work showed much musical ability. Miss Edling Ellingson assisted with two readings.

Tuesday evening Erma Taylor Sparks presented three of her advanced and professional pupils: Miss Blanche Finigan, Miss Dixie Lee MacDowell and Miss Marian Hagge. Each gave a splendid recital counting of her talents and training. In a program of classic and modern compositions they proved to be accomplished pianists with solid technical attainments and musical understanding. The program was divided in two parts, the second half being devoted to compositions by Chopin. Most all types of this great master's compositions were represented on the program and each was given with musical charm and technical facility.

Miss Johnson State Officer
