Miss McAlear Presented in Speech Recital

Miss Kathleen McAlear, student of Elizabeth Woodbury, head of Speech Arts department, Ellison-White Conservatory, was presented in a graduation recital Thursday evening at the local Christian church. Miss McAlear displayed wonderful technique and captivated the audience by her selections.

Miss Marjorie Sewell, violinist, and Mrs. Fred Sewell, pianist, assisted Miss McAlear in the recital.

Miss McAlear's selections included "Vaughan's House," by Don Blanding; "I Was Made of This and This," by Gertrude Robinson Ross; "Journey," by Edna St. Vincent Millay; "The Ancient Beautiful Things," by Fannie Stearns; and "A Lantern in Her Hand," by Bess Street-er Aldrich.

Miss Sewell's violin numbers included "From the Canebrake," by Samuel Gardner; "Adagio," by Franz Liszt; and "Concerto No. IX," by Charles Debussy. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Fred Sewell.

Mothers' Group Formed Thursday

Approval of a constitution was the chief order of business of the newly organized Mothers' association of Hillsboro Christian Council Thursday evening at Pilgrim House. Mrs. Fred H. Caldwell, president, who was in the chair, will announce district vice-presidents and chairmen of committees before the next meeting. Regular meetings of the mothers will be held the fourth Thursday evening of each month. It is expected that council will call an organization meeting for July 11, at 8 o'clock, according to Richard A. Rutschman, council president. Council will also make plans for a "rush week" for new members of the various chapters affiliated with the group.

Miss Rutschman Becomes Bride

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brett-hauer Jr., in Hillsboro, when Miss Hannah Rutschman of Laurel became the bride of Carl Brett-hauer of this city. Rev. H. Hergert of Portland performed the ceremony.

The bride was dressed in pale green crepe with a corsage bouquet of white sweetpeas and pink roses. Miss Helen Rutschman, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore printed chiffon with a corsage of pink sweetpeas. Albert Brett-hauer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The rooms were attractively decorated in lilies, snapdragons, and roses, carrying out a color scheme of pink and white.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Rutschman of Laurel and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brett-hauer Sr.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Rutschman Sr., Ted Rutschman, Mr. and Mrs. A. Rutschman Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brett-hauer Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, Mr. and

Cornelius Girl Weds Portlander

CORNELIUS—Of great interest to Cornelius people was the wedding of the Elizabeth Rithaler and Archie D. Handewitz Saturday evening at a beautiful ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran church in Portland, with the church pastor performing the ceremony.

Palms and baskets of Regal lilies and summer flowers of pink hue with candelabrum made a beautiful setting.

Tom Ward, cousin of the bridegroom, sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Freda Haehle played the wedding march and throughout the ceremony. Henry Rithaler, father of the bride, gave the bride away.

The bride looked strikingly lovely in a white satin high neck, floor-length dress with her long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of Bride's roses and sweetpeas.

Her maid of honor, Miss Caroline Hoffman, was given in pink with an arm bouquet of painted daisies. Miss Besie Handewitz, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lydia Renner, cousin of the bride, wore similar ruffled frocks of pink and yellow, and carried blending arm bouquets of sweetpeas and roses.

The attendants wore matching flowered bandeaus. Philip Rithaler, brother of the bride, was best man and William Hellbrunner, cousin of the bride, and Clarence Carter were ushers. The mothers of the couple wore dark dresses with shoulder corsages.

Following the ceremony over 100 relatives and friends met at the Henry Rithaler home in Cornelius for a reception. A beautifully decorated three-tier wedding cake was cut by the bride. The bride's bouquet was caught by Misses Caroline Hoffman and Lydia Renner.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Henry Rithaler of Cornelius and has been bookkeeper at the Franz Butternut bakery in Portland for the past ten years. The bridegroom is also employed at the bakery and is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Handewitz of Portland.

The couple has recently been given showers in Portland and received an unusual amount of wedding gifts.

After a wedding trip to the beaches the happy couple will reside in the Woodstock district in Portland.
