Mrs. E. Fayette Allen, new president of the Business and Professional Women's club, Mrs. Harry Morgan, state vice-president, Mrs. L. M. Townsend, and the Misses Gussie Sigler, Angie Harrington and Margaret Cady will leave Sunday to attend the National convention of Business and Professional Women's clubs in Seattle from July 14 to 20, inclusive. Mrs. Morgan as state officer and Mrs. Allen as club president will be among the official hostesses at the Oregon reception at the Olympic hotel Sunday evening.

About 150 members coming from the east and south will be entertained at luncheon at Laurelhurst park Saturday at one o'clock, and according to latest reports a dinner will be given in their honor at 7 o'clock p. m. at the Portland hotel. An invitation is extended to all local members to attend these events. Those coming from the east will be met at the hotel and brought to Portland over the scenic Columbia highway.

On account of the convention, the regular July meeting of the local club has been scheduled for Friday night and will be a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Marie Priest at Hillside. Mrs. Sam Coy, Miss Angie Harrington and Miss Margaret Cady are the transportation committee, and those planning to attend are requested to notify one of the committee.

Prof. Folkenberg Presents Violin Pupils in Recital

Professor Thorvald Folkenberg presented his students of violin in recital the evening of July 1 at the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. E. G. Palm was accompanist. The program consisted of identical selections ably executed. The students, some of whom had studied only two months, showed the result of splendid training and sincere application.

Assisting with the recital program were Miss Doris Weber, who sang "When I Come Back to You," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Reed; Master Delois Anderson, accomplished reader, who gave three humorous selections; and a trio Mrs. Wentworth of Portland, cellist, Mrs. Fred Sewell, pianist, and Mr. Folkenberg, violinist. Numbers by the trio were "Consolation," "Duet," by Mendelssohn; "Barcarolle," from Tales of Hoffman. The church was beautifully decorated with great baskets and bowls of flowers.

Former Local Girl Writes

Mrs. S. K. Jensen (Rhea Wilkes) in writing from San Jose, Cal., to renew her subscription, says in part: "It is surely a pleasure to receive the Argus and keep in touch with my friends there. We frequently see people from Hillsboro, too. Miss Alice Lund Birkes and her niece Bernice Helgeson visited us last week as they drove through on their way from Los Angeles to Hillsboro. The girls had returned in January from a trip around the world and had many interesting pictures of their trip. We looked for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, who said they might stop on their way south. Recently at a card party I heard a man speaking of Oregon and in conversation with him later learned that he was L. W. Josse, a brother of William Josse on Fourth and Washington streets, and had formerly lived 30 years in the vicinity of Hillsboro."
