

Lafky Speaks Laurel Union

Social Meets End Till Fall; Mrs. Bretthauer Honored

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—H. E. Lafky of Salem addressed about one hundred members of the Farmers' Union on the "Frazier-Lemke" bill at the local meeting held at the community hall Thursday evening. The monthly social meetings have been discontinued until fall. Mrs. John Haase was elected chairman. Refreshments for both social and business meetings for the next six months.

Mrs. Carl Bretthauer (Hannah Rutschman) of Hillsboro was honored with a miscellaneous shower by the Laurel Ladies' Social club at the hall here July 10. The reception room was beautifully decorated with large baskets and vases of cut flowers and greenery. A color scheme of pink and white was carried out in decorations of the luncheon table. Mrs. L. Carow of Hillsboro and Mrs. John Crawford were hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Rollin Meyers, president of the club and Mrs. Adie Rutschman. Twenty-five ladies were present. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by Mrs. Bretthauer, a former resident of this community, who was married June 29.

Earl Baker's broken leg is mending satisfactorily at his home here, where he was removed Sunday after a week at the home of his clubmate, Mrs. William Jones Jr. of Hillsboro. The leg was broken while playing ball at Kansas City July 7. A number of Mrs. Baker's and Earl's neighbors planted potatoes for them last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dunsmoor of Salem were guests at the Dewey Mercer home from Friday until Sunday. Other Sunday guests were Merle Dunham, Mickey Dean, Lyle Dunsmoor and Arthur Newland, all of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Stoller and children visited his mother, Mrs. Anna Kauffman, and his sister, Mrs. Margaret Abraham of Toledo, at Woodburn Sunday. Mrs. Abraham is caring for her mother-in-law, who is quite ill.

Berries Damaged
The intense heat here Saturday and Sunday did much damage to berries. Fortunately the major part of the crop had been harvested. Poultry also suffered from the heat, several poultrymen losing a number of hens. Reports of temperatures in various locations vary from 103 to 108 degrees.

Fourteen members of the Broadcasters class of the Sunday school attended the party at the B. G. McNay home in Forest Grove Friday evening. Outdoor games were played. En route to the party the class called on Earl Baker at the home of his sister, Mrs. William Jones Jr. of Hillsboro, where he was staying while receiving treatment for his broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Twigg and sons Leland and Kenneth of Scholls were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown. Leland remained with his aunt for a few days.

Sunday guests at the Sidney Rothstrom home were Mr. and Mrs. Hines Hendricks and two children, Miss Nellie Rothstrom and E.

Tragedy Averted Orchardale Mill

(By Mrs. Richard Husner)
ORCHARDALE—A tragedy was averted by the quick action of Alvin Hunger Saturday afternoon. Ernest Hudson came to the rescue when he saw Alvin was unconscious in the water. As a snag was falling in the mill dam, Alvin Hunger rushed forward to save Mrs. Richard Hudson, who would have been killed, as she was in direct line with the falling snag. They were both hit by the roof of the pond saw. Alvin was knocked unconscious in the water as he jumped, pulling Mrs. Hunger almost clear. Alvin is in the Forest Grove hospital seriously hurt. Mrs. Hunger was slightly injured.
