Groner & Rowell Crew on Barreling Berries

Miss Garnet Guild, who is with the Friends' public service field work at the Flaudreau, S. D., Indian school, received a one-year scholarship to the College Graduate's school at Pendle Hill near Philadelphia last week. She graduated from Pacific college at Newberg this spring and will take advanced social service work at the Pendle Hill college, which begins October 4.

J. C. Baker of Seattle and Miss Francis Lundgren of California visited at the Mrs. Ida Kays home July 23.

Burn Completed

The Scholls Tile has just completed the sixth burn of the sea-

The season started about the middle of March. They burn about 100 ton of building block during one run. There is a crew of eight. Miss Margaret Flint is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Marke Wolfe of Portland called at the M. B. Borzom home Sunday en route from Salem.

Harley Barber, assistant manager of the Forest Grove district of the West Coast Telephone company, was at the Scholls office Monday en route to Sherwood, George Bauman, district manager, visited here last Tuesday.

Home Improved

L. W. Crowder is having his house shingled and bathroom improvements made.

Mrs. John Pringle of Cass City, Mich., is visiting her brother, H. L. McCool, until September.

Will Hansen of Roseburg came Sunday to visit relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rueck and son spent last week with relatives at Puyallup, Wash.

July 22 guests at the H. T. Hesse home were Mrs. Roy Baker and two children, Mrs. Veyonne Bacon

Kinton Grange Meet Planned

Former Resident Dies; Aid to Meet at Cox Home

(By Mrs. E. L. Cox)

KINTON—Kinton Grange will meet at the hall next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The master, Albert Streiff, wishes all officers and members to be present. All grangers invited to be present. The lecturer, Mrs. Alice Fluke, is preparing a good program.

Repairs on the school house are nearly completed. The roof will have a new coat of shingles and the board of directors are considering putting on composition ones.

Former Resident Dies

Clyde J. Wilkinson, who with his family used to reside on the old mail carrier road on Cooper mountain, died at his home in Portland Sunday, the funeral service being held Wednesday morning. He is survived by his wife and son Harold. The family was well known in this vicinity when they lived here about 10 years.

H. E. C. to Meet

Grange H. E. C. club will meet at the hall August 15 to which all ladies are invited to be present. Plans are being made to hold a bazaar a little later in the season, and the ladies are making some nice articles which will be sold on the occasion.

Mrs. Aten Hostess

Mrs. Gladys Aten entertained members of the Rebekah club of Ruby Rebekah lodge of Scholls at her home on Pleasant Valley road Friday afternoon. A fine luncheon was served by the hostess.

Talking Pictures Shown at Rotary

Talking moving pictures, showing the Chevrolet automobile and its operation, were shown at the Rotary club luncheon Thursday by R. G. Dunn of the educational department of the Chevrolet Motor company. James Whitlaw, Hillsboro Motor company proprietor, arranged the program.

A group of local Rotarians participated in the Rotary golf tournament, arranged by the Portland Rotarians, at the Columbia Country club Thursday. Forest Grove retained possession of the plaque.

Tupper Wins Prize

Ross Tupper of Hillsboro won the grand prize in the Corwin Hardware trout derby this week with his 21-inch catch. The prize was a Pflueger-Akron reel. Weekly prize winners and runners-up were as follows: Donald Lind of Portland, 20½; John Puhols of Hillsboro, 20; Dr. E. W. Almqvist of Hillsboro, 20; and C. C. Snyder of Madras, 20. The contest was declared to be the most popular ever conducted.

Credit Code Display in Hillsboro Firms Planned

Hillsboro branch of the Credit Bureau, Inc., held its bi-monthly dinner meeting Monday evening at the Pharmacy. The group voted to have large placards of the credit code made to be displayed in the business places of members, and further plans were discussed for educating the public to the advantages of the organization.

Homemakers to Attend Session

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis—Members of the State Home Economics Extension council, representing homemakers in almost every county in Oregon, will gather on the Oregon State college campus at Corvallis Monday and Tuesday for their annual mid-summer meeting.

Delegates to the meeting from Washington county are Mrs. Lester Cypher, North Plains; Mrs. Thomas Roe, Gaston; Mrs. John Mulloy, Laurel, and Mrs. John Plass, Banks.

The establishment of a scholarship to be awarded annually to a student or graduate of the school of home economics at Oregon State college who is interested in home economics extension work and shows unusual promise of success in that field is one of the projects to be acted upon at the state meeting.

Also listed for consideration is the question of whether the Oregon council shall affiliate with the Associated Country Women of the World. That organization will hold its annual meeting in the United States this year for the first time—probably somewhere in the east.

Other business will include consideration of further expansion of

Change in Doctors at Camp Reehers

CAMP REEHERS, CCC, WEST-TIMBER—Continuation of adequate medical attention for men of Company 2906 was assured with the appointment this week of Dr. Warren W. Hale, first lieutenant medical reserve corps, as camp surgeon replacing Dr. W. H. Huntington, recently promoted. Lieutenant Hale was transferred from Camp Emigrant Springs, near Pendleton, to take up full-time service at Reehers.

Dr. Huntington at present is assistant surgeon for the entire Vancouver Barracks CCC district, working as a major in the medical reserve corps. Prior to transfer he was camp surgeon for Company 2906 for more than a year.

Change in Doctors at Camp Reehers

Minds of foresters were eased by the favorable forest fire situation. Patrol crews had fopped up the last fire that burned over an area some six miles southwest of Scappoose recently. The territory has been a scene of several burns during the present season.

During recent week-end numerous berry picking and outing parties have obtained permits at the camp forestry office to enter the closed fire area west of camp, on the Cochran road.

Tempo of educational work at camp quickened during the week. Issuance of a larger camp paper, re-organization of classes in mechanical and academic subjects and the formation of a photography club were features. Hugh Pullam and Albert Shaw, enrollees, were elected president and secretary-treasurer respectively, of the photography group. Object of the club is to study photographic composition and developing and printing.

OATS—Oats market quite with very little interest shown, according to information given here. With plenty of oats in sight east of the Rocky mountains there will be no movement of local oats east this year. Eastern cereal millers are offering their products on this coast now and this will tend to force our prices down. Prices indicated to date are around $20 per ton, it is said.

BARLEY—No interest in brewing grades being shown. California has one of the largest crops in history but they are holding which tends to hold up prices some. Demand is slow and quotations are nominal. Prices are running around $19 per ton.
