

Reunion of Lilly Clan Held Rippling Waters

Annual reunion of the Lilly clan of Oregon was held Sunday at Rippling Waters. Following a bountiful lunch at noon a short program was given with D. G. Lilly, president of the clan, as master of ceremonies. Virgil Lilly, research professor at the University of West Virginia, was the main speaker. He spoke of the history and traditions of the Lilly clan in West Virginia, where the Oregon clan originated. Raleigh Lilly and Mrs. Louranie DeBord of Los Angeles, and Nicholas Gaughen of Vancouver, Wash., also gave talks. Guitars were furnished by David Hines and Lyle Wolford.

Present of the relatives were Mr. and Mrs. Herb Taylor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jacobsen and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Winkle and family, Mrs. Delphia Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. E. VanMarkel, Mrs. Edith Heiler and two daughters, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Lilly and daughter, Elma Belle and Mrs. Louranie DeBord, Los Angeles, Cal.; Mrs. Belle Lilly, Cornelius; Mrs. Marian Lilly and two sons, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bills and son, North Plains; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bump and two sons, Hugh Lilly and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Foster, Forest Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Herb Kyle and daughter, Jewell; Virgil Lilly, Morgantown, West Virginia; Fred Lilly and James DeLacy, Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolford and four children, Banks; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lilly and family, Gaston; Mr. and Mrs. W. Lampus, Carlton; Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Lilly, Hillsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lilly and family, Mrs. Phreda Wilson and daughter, Mrs. and Mrs. Eugene Loving and children, Mrs. Roxie Loving, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lilly and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hines and son, Roscoe, Melvin and Jack Phelps, Mrs. Troy Hines and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hines and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunley, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hanley and two daughters, all of Gales Creek. In addition to this number there were eighteen friends present among whom were Oliver and Nicholas Gaughen of Vancouver, Wash., who were among the early settlers at Gales Creek and attended school there. Several of the older members of the Lilly clan.

Local People Back from South

Fred Engeldinger and family returned Friday from a 19-day California trip. They were in San Diego and Tijuana. They visited his brothers, Vincent, Joe and John Engeldinger, and two cousins of Mrs. Engeldinger, Mrs. Max Johnson and Mrs. Vincent, who was well known here as a pianist years ago, is now playing over the radio on commercial programs and appears sometimes in the movies. This was Engeldinger's first trip south and while he did not care much for the country because of its barrenness.

Party and Play Aloha Saturday

A card party and one-act play will be given at the Aloha Grange hall Saturday. The play is a comedy entitled "Wanted, a Man" and will be given immediately after the card party. There will be refreshments and prizes. Everybody come and enjoy the evening.

Hilhi Alumni to Picnic Sunday

Alumni of the Hillsboro union high school are planning the annual picnic Sunday afternoon at Blue Lake park east of Portland. All former students of the school are invited to meet at the park at 2 p. m. with picnic lunches.

Moves Back to Hillsboro

Floyd Bentley moved his sign shop and residence from West Slope to Hillsboro last week. He had been at West Slope since early in February.

Attend Republican Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Patterson and Edward Schulmerich were among Hillsboro people attending the republican meeting at Salem during the week-end. H. V. Gates was the speaker at the banquet Saturday evening.

On Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Durst left Sunday for a week's trip to Seattle, Wash., and Canada. Merle Johnson is in charge of Safeway store here during Mr. Durst's absence.

Want An Owl?

Who wants a live owl for a pet? Michel VanPouke of near Jacktown caught a live owl in a trap two weeks ago but wishes to give it away. Anyone who wishes it may have it.

Mrs. Keenon Hurt

Mrs. Katherine Keenon of near Pumpkin Ridge suffered a fractured right hip July 21 in an accident at her home. She is at Smith's hospital.

Salesman Named

James VanLom of Cornelius is now employed as salesman for Thomas S. Sholes, dealer for Hudson and Terraplane.

Letter Praises Oregon

Mrs. Hulda Enrick received a letter recently from her daughter-

Golden Wedding
Health is the birthright of youth, but how beautiful it is when retained to extreme old age. It is a rare sight to see a contented, radiant old couple who have gone hand in hand together down the years. That mellow old age may enjoy good health, we must follow the advice of our physicians while still in the prime of youth.

A Prescriptionist Pills Rx's Carefully at

HILLSBORO PHARMACY
Z. J. Riggs, Prop.
243 Main St. Hillsboro

Patriotic Groups in Annual Picnic

About 200 Spanish American War veterans from McMinnville, Portland and Hillsboro Camps, with their families, met in annual picnic Sunday in Duncalf Grove, south of Cornelius. Scout Young group corps was in attendance; a bountiful picnic dinner was served and races and other contests for prizes helped to make the picnic a success.

Department Commander James Beach, Senior Vice Hugh Rogers, Jr. Vice Sam Hansen, Inspector E. R. Leedie, Adjutant James McCarron, Surgeon Dr. Hamilton, were department officers in attendance and the Auxiliary department was represented by the junior vice president, Irene Cambell, of Portland. Past department commanders present were Robert Cambell and Leslie Hale of Portland.

Have Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. George Selfridge and Lynn, Mrs. Winifred Selfridge, Charles Selfridge and son of Cornelius and Mrs. Edith Gudge and Mrs. George Follis drove to DelLake Saturday evening to attend the regatta, and later to Delaney Day. They accompanied the beacher south toward Newport and returned home through Toledo and Corvallis.

O. M. Heaton, in company with E. G. Heaton, W. C. Heaton and H. T. Hesse of Scholls attended the regatta at Newport Saturday afternoon. Mr. Craven was one of the first acquaintances made by the Heaton upon their arrival in Oregon 40 years ago.

Dailey Visits Here

Walter Dailey, former Hillsboro resident and now of Newport, was here Saturday afternoon on his way to Laurel to visit his mother, Mrs. Callie Dailey. He is working on the new coast bridge there and says the contractors are having considerable trouble in locating bottom for piers because of shifting sands. Dailey was one of the Hillsboro volunteers in the World War and is active in the American Legion at Newport.

Fine Berries Show

Youngberries of extraordinary size were brought into the Argus office last week by Frank Rowell of Scholls. Marigolds with two or three blossoms and stems grown together were brought in by Patricia Kroeger, also from Scholls, in the Argus window. Lost articles in the window include gloves, keys, and a child's cap. Oral Gardner brought in a large cluster of filberts.

Guild Meets Tuesday

Women's Missionary Guild of the M. E. church will meet Tuesday at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Charles Reed. Mrs. Bessie Baker will assist the hostess. Mrs. Lucy Holcomb will lead devotions and Mrs. William Bucher, Miss Florence Freeman, Mrs. Thomas Connell and Mrs. Mary Sabin will have charge of the program. All members and their friends are asked to be present.

Entertain at Supper

Mrs. Gordon Sahnov and Mrs. W. T. Putnam Jr. were joint hostesses for a buffet supper at the Sahnov home Friday evening. Present were Rev. and Mrs. George Reule, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Voges and children of Mountaineer, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Sahnov.

Return from Trip South

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Mariner returned Sunday from two weeks' vacation trip to Klamath Falls, San Francisco, Cal., and Los Angeles. They returned by the coast route through the redwoods. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoen at Klamath Falls, whom they say have a fine bakery business there.

State Currency Displayed

Four pieces of old state currency, dating from January 1, 1862, to April 6, 1863, including a Confederate States of America dollar and a cotton pledge of the state of Mississippi, were brought into the Argus Thursday by R. Aldrich of Hillsboro. Mr. Aldrich wishes to sell them.

Attend Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. McGee and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Howell spent the week-end with Mrs. McGee's brother, J. S. Hannah, and family near Seio, where they attended a family reunion. Miss Ruth Hannah returned with them for a visit.

Mrs. Reed Hostess

Mrs. Charles M. Reed entertained with a dinner party Sunday following church service. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams of Portland, and Misses Esther and Florence Freeman. The occasion was the birthday of the Misses Freeman.

Mrs. Staehle Honored

Mrs. M. Staehle of Helvetia was honored with a birthday dinner Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Trachsel of Redville. Other guests were Messrs. Ernest Zurcher, Fred Amacher, Henry Staehle and their children.

Visits in East

Faurest Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Anderson, left Saturday on the Portland Rose train for Detroit, Mich., from where he will drive to Erie, Penn., and to Ishpeming, Minn., to visit relatives before returning home.

Has Exceptional Yield

L. S. Logan of southwest of Hillsboro threshed Saturday and got a yield of 60 bushels of wheat per acre on 3/4 acres. The ground had been planted previously to alfalfa, and then to corn.

Teddy Gardner to Head Stamp Club; Plan a New Class

Provisional officers of the Stamp club, organized under the local playground project, were named Tuesday as follows: Teddy Gardner, president; Stuart Richardson, vice-president; Herbert Christensen, secretary; and Phillip Corwin, treasurer and historian.

Other hobby clubs are to be organized in the near future. A girls tumbling class is under consideration and if sufficient interest is shown activity will be started soon. The class will meet at Peter Bosch school Wednesday mornings at 10. Tumbling and pyramid building will be taught by an experienced teacher. No personal equipment aside from regular gym clothes will be necessary. Girls interested may report to Miss Dorothy Boy on the grounds next Wednesday morning.

Three Linkers Meet at Grove

Washington County Three Link association met Friday evening at Forest Grove. Hillsboro people attending were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mohr, C. C. Bannister, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. George Selfridge, J. N. Wiley and children, and Miss Katherine Weik. Little Winifred Wiley played a piano selection on the program. The next meeting will be held in Seavert.

A. W. Hoffman and A. H. Busch went over to Camp Sherman on the Metolius river, where the Busch family has been spending the summer and Mrs. Hoffman has been vacationing for two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and Busch returned Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Bechen of Bend, John and Haary Bechen of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Braman and children of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week-end at the J. C. Bechen home. Mrs. Bechen and the children remained for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hamilton are planning to move back to Newport this week and the P. C. Hamilton family will move into the home they vacate, while their own will undergo some repairs and remodeling.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harder returned Saturday from several days' vacation trip to Roseburg, where they lived 18 years ago. They returned the coast route visiting the beaches along the way.

Miss Christine Chalmers sailed Wednesday from Vancouver, B. C. for a 12-day cruise in Alaskan waters on the steamship, "Princess Charlotte."

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Bell and daughter Barbara of Corvallis spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Brown, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Davis of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Simpson, and Rupert Davis of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Davis.

Lynn Selfridge left Tuesday with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whalley, for three weeks' visit with them in Chico, Cal., and in San Diego.

Sunday guests at the W. F. Aldinger home were Messrs. and Mesdames Harry Aldinger, Arthur Aldinger of Portland, Mrs. Hansen of St. Johns and Mrs. C. Reimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roach and children of Grants Pass are visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. C. Brown. They are planning to locate in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Cull and Beverly Scheible, accompanied by Mrs. Lena Holm, returned Sunday night from a week's vacation at Rockaway.

Mrs. Alex Bruce, who has been very ill in St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, is somewhat improved at this writing and is able to sit up for short periods.

Mrs. W. W. Phillips and children left Saturday for their home in Oakland, Cal. Miss Geneva Marugg of Tobias accompanied them.

Miss Ruth Witcher of Tillamook visited Mrs. Winifred Selfridge and Mr. and Mrs. George Selfridge several days last week.

An unusually small egg laid by a Rhode Island Red hen was brought into the Argus office Monday by Miss Hemrich. It is in the window.

Mrs. W. F. Aldinger gave an afternoon party Monday for little Marjorie Aldinger, Loraine and Rita Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schneider, Miss Julianna Schneider and Mrs. Ray McCoy spent the week-end at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cook of Portland and Rev. M. S. Woodworth were guests at the F. Abendroth home Wednesday evening.

Marjorie Lou Bennett of Woodland, Wash., is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Bennett, this week.

A. E. Turner and daughter Opal of Yakima, Wash., visited his mother, Mrs. C. W. Hankins, Sunday.

Miss Alice Willard of Tacoma, Wash., is visiting her sisters, Mesdames R. C. Brown, Don McLaren and R. Butterworth, this week.

Mrs. W. S. Tilton is ill and Mrs. Ora Laws is caring for her.

Miss Bean Weds Orville Reynolds

Miss Ella Bean, eldest daughter of Mrs. Sylvia Bean of Hillsboro, and Orville Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reynolds of Mountaineer, were married Friday evening at the Christian church, with Rev. R. L. Putnam performing the ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Fred Vining, machinist's mate aboard the U. S. S. Callista. She wore a gown of white taffeta and veil, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and gladioli. Her cousins, Misses Violet Harris, Leora Williams, and Gwendolyn Dumas, were bridesmaids, and wore frocks of pink, blue and orchid organdy. Miss Vida Bean, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore green organdy. Little Hazel Bean, flower girl, also wore a green organdy frock.

Eugene Mast was best man for Mr. Reynolds, and Harry Dumas, James and Fred Bean were ushers. Mrs. L. R. Harris of Forest Grove, aunt of the bride, sang a vocal solo, accompanied by Miss Mildred James. Mrs. Harris also played Lohengrin's wedding march, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Dumas on the violin.

The church was beautifully decorated with lighted candles and flowers. Mrs. Fred Vining had charge of the decoration.

After a short trip to the coast the couple will make their home at Mountaineer, where Mr. Reynolds is employed with Buckley-Lowe mills.

Past Chiefs to Meet at Chantlers

Past Chiefs' club of the Pythian Sisters will meet at the H. R. Chantler home at 7 o'clock sharp tonight (Thursday) for a pot luck picnic supper. All husbands of past chiefs are also invited. Phoenicia Temple officers will be guests and special entertainment will be provided by Mrs. Florence Reynolds who will assist Mrs. Chantler.

Mrs. VanMook Honored

Mrs. Kenneth Biersdorf of near Schefflin entertained Tuesday evening with a farewell party for her sister, Mrs. Natalia VanMook, who is leaving Friday for Coronado, Cal., to make her home with her brother, Robert Hilbert. About twenty guests were present. Mrs. Biersdorf and Mrs. Gordon Biersdorf assisted the hostess.

Californians Visit

Guests of Mrs. Mary Hill Sunday were Mrs. Ferdinand Schumann-Heink and daughter in Linn and Hollywood, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Osborn and grandson Jimmy of Ridgefield, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Browning and children of Aberdeen, Wash. Mesdames Schumann-Heink and Browning are nieces and Mrs. Osborn a sister-in-law of Mrs. Hill.

Uppenkamps to Leave

Mrs. B. A. Uppenkamp and daughter Margaret have leased their building on South Second avenue for a year and will leave the first of the week for Lancaster, Cal., where they will remain for some time. They have operated a tailoring shop here since Mr. Uppenkamp's death several years ago.

Mrs. Wells Hostess

Mrs. C. E. Wells entertained Tuesday evening with a buffet supper honoring Mrs. Mattie Bertoli of Oakland, Cal., who is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. D. Megarrel. All guests were members of the Tualatin chapter Past Masters club. Mrs. Bertoli was presented with a corsage of gardenias.

Grange Picnic Planned

Home Economics club of the Grange has planned a picnic for Grange members at the spring on the G. C. Chase farm Thursday next. Ladies will meet there in the afternoon and a pot luck supper will be served in the evening.

Mrs. W. O. Joos Honored

Mrs. Ross Hall and Mrs. Pete Schukart entertained with a party honoring Mrs. W. O. Joos Tuesday evening. About 25 guests were present.

Annual Picnic of 4-H Club People Sunday Attracts

Two hundred 4-H club members, leaders and their families enjoyed the annual Washington county 4-H picnic at Balm Grove Sunday. H. C. Seymour, state club leader, and C. D. Minton, president of the Washington county fair board, were special guests and principal speakers.

Ball games in the morning were featured by the annual tilt between club members and local leaders. The afternoon was devoted largely to sports and swimming.

Among the competitive events were blindfold boxing, tug-of-war, ball throwing contest for the older girls and sack races for the younger boys and girls. Watermelons and suckers were awarded as prizes to all members who competed in the events.

John Staehle of Rock Creek played several trumpet solos during the picnic program.

Assembly Head Visiting Lodges

Mrs. Cora E. Heaton, Rebekah Assembly president, returned home Sunday after a week spent in Linn and Lane counties visiting Rebekah lodges. Today (Thursday) Mrs. Heaton will pay an official visit to the Rebekah lodge at Monmouth and Friday will visit Sterling Rebekah lodge in Portland.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy extended to us in the loss of our husband and father, Julius Asbahr, and also for the beautiful flowers. —Mrs. Julius Asbahr and family.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for the sympathy extended to us in the recent death of our son and brother, Lester Maller. —Mrs. Casper Maller, mother; Mrs. Justine Maller, wife; H. J. C. C. and R. E. Maller and families.

We think they're well named.

GOLD STRIPE BUBBLE WEIGHT CHIFFON HOSE

They're sheer and clear and light as bubbles. You'll find them the most flattering stockings you ever wore.

GOAR'S Woman's Shop
E. M. Barnes, Prop.

Miss Huff Weds Wendell Schutt

BEAVERTON—The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Huff and Wendell Schutt of Molalla was solemnized July 21 in the Beaverton Bethel Congregational church. Rev. Charles F. Clark read the marriage services. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Huff. For the past two years she has been principal of the Tualatin View school. Mr. Schutt is a member of the high school teaching staff at Molalla, where the couple will make their home.

Change Meet

V. F. W. Auxiliary will hold a social meeting at the V. F. W. hall Thursday evening, August 15, instead of tonight (Thursday).

Good Time Dance
At Grange hall every Saturday night. Georgia Hess orchestra. Admission 25c. 214

Big Old Time Dance
Tuesday, August 6, at Verboort Walker's orchestra. 24

HARRISON D. HUGGINS
M. D.
EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT SPECIALIST
GLASSES FITTED
Room 3
Commercial National Bank Annex
Phones
Residence 2972 9:30 a. m. to 12 m.
Office 2971 1:30 p. m. to 6 p. m.

VENETIAN

THURS - FRI - SAT. This Week
Matinee Saturday at 2 P. M. — Evening at 6:30

LAUGH YOUR WAY THROUGH THE MERRIEST OF ALL MYSTERIES!

Four hectic hours in New York—and he had to solve a murder and win a bride! Check in at the Hotel Diplomat for your most hilarious screen thrills!

One NEW YORK NIGHT

with FRANCHOT TONE-UNA MERKEL
Conrad Nagel - Harvey Stephens
Directed by Jack Conway
Produced by Bernard H. Hyman

Plus Selected Short Subjects

PREVIEW SATURDAY NIGHT
At the End of Last Show
NO EXTRA CHARGE

SUN - MON - TUES. August 4, 5, 6
Continuous Show Sunday — 2 p. m. to 11 p. m.

THEY CAME! THEY SANG! THEY CONQUERED!

Last night America's Singing Sweethearts in this romantic story of the nation's fighting heroes turned the Strand's entire audience into one big cheering section!

Join the big parade marching to see them today in Warner Bros.' All-American hit-

FLIRTATION WALK

A First National Picture with
DICK POWELL RUBY KEELER
The West Point Cadet Corps • 100's of Girls

Comedy - Cartoon and News
10c and 25c

THE MEN'S SHOP
207 East Main Street Howe and Wells, Prop.
Phone 1412
(Venetian ticket, Mrs. Harry A. Richards, Beaverton Rt. 1)

JUST ARRIVED—
Another shipment of Hemstitched Pillow Cases

Stamped ready to be embroidered.

NEW DESIGNS

Extra fine quality. Pair... 69c And 79c pair

The C. C. Store
270 E. Main St. J. H. GARRETT, Prop. Phone 2601W

Golden Wedding
Health is the birthright of youth, but how beautiful it is when retained to extreme old age. It is a rare sight to see a contented, radiant old couple who have gone hand in hand together down the years. That mellow old age may enjoy good health, we must follow the advice of our physicians while still in the prime of youth.

A Prescriptionist Pills Rx's Carefully at

HILLSBORO PHARMACY
Z. J. Riggs, Prop.
243 Main St. Hillsboro
Phone 311