Miss Anderson Bride Saturday

A simple and beautiful wedding took place at St. Michael's and All Angels church in Portland Saturday morning when Miss Elsie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Anderson, became the bride of C. Kenneth Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Emery, all of Portland. The Rev. Richard Flanz Ayres read the service in the presence of members of the two families.

The bride wore a suit of navy blue crepe with a blouse of powder blue triple sheer, matching hat and corsage of Sweet Adeline roses, bouvardia and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Mrs. Mildred Anderson, who was her only attendant, wore a dress of gray crepe trimmed in rose, with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of Joanna Hill roses with bouvardia and violets. Harold Girvan was best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the St. Andrews hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery left later in the afternoon for Seattle, from where they will, August 19, on the Portland for an Alaskan cruise. They will be at home in Hillsboro after September 1, where Mrs. Emery is a member of the Junior high school faculty.

Teacher Bride

Miss Luella Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Taylor, of Hillsboro, and C. Willis Wright of Hillsboro, son of Mrs. Della Wright of Bean Station, Tennessee, were married Friday at Vancouver, Wash.

The couple will make their home on their farm northeast of Hillsboro, the place just vacated by Mrs. Eleanor McDougall. Mrs. Wright is an employe in the office of the Portland General Electric company. Mr. Wright came here about ten years ago from Tennessee.

The bride was dressed in pure white flat crepe and carried a bouquet of Tanagerie gladioli. The bridesmaid, Miss Betty VanDombelen, wore an ash-rose ensemble and carried a bouquet of gladioli. Raleigh Baker, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip to Detroit, Mich. Upon their return they will make their home at the Kirkpatrick farm.

The bride, who is one of the popular teachers of the county, will continue to teach this year in the Mead district, near Manning.

Miss Rains Weds J. Clyde Hopkins

BANKS—Miss Venita Rains, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rains of Salem and J. Clyde Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hopkins of Banks, were married Saturday, August 10, at the bride's home in Salem.

The ceremony took place at 4 o'clock in the spacious living room, which was beautifully decorated with appointments of coral and orchid gladioli. The Rev. Charles Ross read the service.

The bride wore a gown of peach satin, tip-toe length, and carried a colonial bouquet of Talsman roses.

Mrs. Basil Weathersby, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a dress of pink organdie and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas and blue delphiniums.

Clark Powne of Banks acted as best man. The wedding march was played by Miss Moxie Hopkins, sister of the groom.

Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served to the immediate family.

After a short wedding trip to the lakes of central Oregon the couple will be at home at Sherwood, where Mr. Hopkins will take up his duties as principal of the grade school.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins are graduates of Oregon Normal school. Mr. Hopkins is affiliated with Phi Mu Delta fraternity at Oregon State college.

Mrs. J. Kamna Given Shower by Past Chiefs

Mrs. John Gardner was hostess for a shower and card party Tuesday evening at her home, complimenting Mrs. John Kamna Jr. Guests were members of the Past Chiefs' club of Phoenixia Temple, and a few relatives of the guest of honor.

Mrs. Kamna, who lost her home and contents recently by fire, was presented with many beautiful gifts for a new home, which Mr. Kamna contemplates building this fall. Following the opening of gifts, bridge and rummy were played. Mrs. Kamna receiving the prize at bridge and Mrs. H. R. Emmott at rummy.

Business and Professional Women's club is invited to join the Salem club at a picnic Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mabel Savage on Garden Road. Dinner will be served at 6:30 at 50 cents per plate. All members planning to attend are requested to notify Mrs. Fayetta Allen.

Miss Helen Crook returned Monday morning to her duties at Well's store from a week's vacation at Reedsport, Winchester Bay, where she visited her brother; a visit with her sister, Mrs. L. M. Murphy, at Toledo, and a visit at Albany with another sister, Mrs. E. C. Haley, and family. Miss Crook was accompanied on the trip by her mother, Mrs. Mattie Crowder, and brother, Ralph Crook of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Harter and daughter of Portland.

Return from Long Trip

Miss Nora Costelloe and Mrs. A. H. Abts returned Friday from a six weeks' visit in Iowa, Nebraska and Montana. They report conditions in the middle-west considerably improved over last year. Iowa's corn seems to be in fine condition. Rain is badly needed in Nebraska for the corn, which was damaged considerably by rust and hail, but there are bountiful crops of hay. The ladies went by auto and traveled approximately 4000 miles, encountering some very hot weather during their trip.

Miss Mohr Injured

Misses Emma Mohr and Mattie Cox returned Saturday night from a vacation trip to Yellowstone park. While at Mammoth Springs in the park, Miss Mohr stepped to the side of the road to avoid a car and slipped in loose gravel, causing a fall and a compound fracture of a bone in her right hand. The young ladies report extremely hot weather in the park.

Old Oregonian Exhibited

Leland Eckhart brought into the Argus Friday parts of a copy of the Oregonian of February 4, 1911, which commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Daily Oregonian. It contains some very interesting data, relative to that date, including a picture of the first press used by the Oregonian and at that time in use by the Argus.

Find's Shortcut

An appreciated household hint was phoned in this morning by Mrs. Elwood Johnson, who discovered that a short adjustable knife, which she calls a cabbage knife, is a time saver in cutting corn from the cob. A department of this kind together with recipes will be started soon and co-operation of all is urged.

Large Muskmelon Displayed

A muskmelon of the Victor Spear variety, weighing 6 1/2 pounds, was brought into the Argus Tuesday by J. H. Trent of south Hillsboro. It was grown on his place on Jackson bottom. A double cucumber was brought in this week by Raymond Miller of this city.

Mrs. Wieber Hostess

Mrs. W. H. Wieber entertained Friday with a miscellaneous show in honor of Miss Jean Rogers, who announced her engagement to Vernon Nelson. Afternoon was spent in playing games. Honors went to Miss Madeline Shattuck, first, and Mrs. Carl Christener, second.

Commander Gates Ill

H. V. Gates, state commander, G. A. R., became seriously ill last week and was taken to Good Samaritan hospital August 14. The last report received was that his condition showed general improvement, though slow.
