Opening Date of School Set

Helvetia Building Put in Excellent Condition

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)

HELVETIA—Helvetia school board met with the chairman, Robert Young, Monday night. They arranged to have the school cloak rooms ceiling and painted before school starts September 9. Last week the desks and other school furniture were vanished. An encyclopedia "The New World Book" has been purchased. Everything is in shape now for a more up-to-date school. Back taxes paid during the last year have made it possible for the board to have the work done.

Showing Good

The two Helvetia boys who took an active part in the 4-H club work at the county fair last week made a good showing. Jack Baumann, with a calf only two months old, got third place in Guernsey showmanship. Jack is a new member and gives promise to keep up the Rock Creek club's reputation for good showmen. Jim Davidson, a member of the same club, was awarded champion showmanship in the dairy breeds and many other prizes which are listed in this paper. Jim Davidson with John Hanson and Albert Grossen went to Salem Sunday. They were awarded a free trip and expenses paid for two days at Salem, the first prize for grain judging. They represent Washington county at Salem.

Mrs. Joe Hershey and family of Bacona spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. C. E. Korn. On Labor day the Fred and Wenger family of Portland visited the Hershey family at Bacona and visited with their relatives here, the Simon Hershey and C. E. Korn families on their return trip.

Mr. and Mrs. David Tschabold, Henry, Ernest and Clarence Tschabold visited Mrs. Martha Wenzel near Kinton.

A picnic party gathered at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Ritter Sunday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davidson Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Davidson Jr. and daughter Luella, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davidson, Lovat Davidson, Mrs. Anne Donaldson and son J. P. Donaldson, James Farmer and the hostess.

Henry Bishop is having his house painted by E. N. Finney this week. Herman Bishop was busy last week doing repair work on the house. David Dupp had his house painted last week. Kent from West Union did the work.

Visitors last week of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hren were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hren and family of Wyoming and Mrs. Michele and Mrs. Cromer of Salt Lake City.

Joe Hren and son John went on a trip to Renton, Wash., Tuesday and returned Thursday.

Townsend Group Meets Wednesday

Townsend club will meet next Wednesday at the M. E. church at 8 p. m. There will be a special program and speaker.

Announcement is made this week that the first national convention of the Townsend plan is to be held in Chicago during October. This and many other items of interest to all Townsend members will be presented at the meeting.

The local secretary announces that new members are steadily being added to the local roll. A plan to double the membership is being definitely planned.

The local club's extension committee has been kept busy fostering meetings in other communities. Rev. Henry Young was the speaker at Gaston last week and this Thursday evening he speaks at Oreno.

Flag Pole at Courthouse Gets Fresh Coat of Paint

Painting of the 105-foot flag pole in front of the county court house is being done this week by Leonard Ellington of Hillsboro. The guy-wires and the ball at the top are to be painted with aluminum paint and the pole itself white. Ellington estimates that it will take a gallon of white paint for the pole and a half-gallon of aluminum paint for the wires.
