

Auxiliary Finishes Successful Year's Work

Interesting reports were given on the state convention of the Legion Auxiliary at the Dalles at Tuesday night's meeting of Hillsboro unit by the delegates, Mrs. Clem Estlinger, Mrs. W. F. Cyrus and Mrs. Fred Caldwell. It was reported that this was the largest state convention ever held in Oregon. Mrs. J. B. Dinmore, chairman of the child welfare committee, also gave a report of the year's work, showing a large amount of relief done along those lines.

Mrs. Carl Christener, who had been elected sergeant-at-arms, tendered her resignation, and Mrs. John Puhols was elected to fill the vacancy. Officers will be installed sometime before the next regular meeting of the Auxiliary, probably at a joint meeting with the Legion.

The president, Mrs. Estlinger, presented silhouette pictures to those having perfect attendance for the year. Mesdames Fred Amacher, Nye Bristol, Fred Caldwell, Lee Clark and S. E. Olsen. A number of others received pictures for attending all but one or two meetings.

Mrs. Bristol will be hostess for the next pot luck lunch and sewing afternoon at her home on September 26, with luncheon at 12:30.

a capsule-shaped egg brought in by L. H. Mully of south of Cornelius, Bantam eggs brought in by Walter Hergert, a frog twisted cut brought in by Mrs. J. A. Short, a fragrant pink Amaryllis blossom grown by Jim Peppard, and an old picture of the court house donated by Mrs. Charles Sewell to the Historical and Museum society.

New Members Will Be Named

Election of new members will be the chief item of interest during the next two weeks for clubs affiliated with Hillsboro Christian Council, as all the various groups begin their new season with the opening of school sessions. Thirty-five boys and 39 girls will become new pledges to the clubs, if all vacancies are filled. President Richard Abts has announced. It is planned to have all pledging and initiation work completed before September 22, when Council will dedicate its new headquarters, Pilgrim House, at 232 North Third avenue.

Inauguration of the new president will take place during the week of September 22. Council has expanded during the summer through the organization of a Mothers' association, and plans have been made for the formation of a Dads' club. Besides the groups of high school and college age, Council will again sponsor two clubs of junior high school age, and two clubs of grade school age.

Meetings scheduled for next week include Omega and Gamma chapters, Monday evening; Delta chapter, Tuesday evening; C-H club, Wednesday evening; Vikings, Thursday evening. Alpha and Beta chapters, Friday evening. Junior clubs will meet in the afternoons, Wolf Cub Pack (for boys), Tuesday afternoon, and Flower Guild (for girls), on Wednesday afternoon.
