

Rain Aid to Potato Crop

Helvetia School Opened; Seven Go to Hilhi

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)
HELVIETIA—A fine rain fell Friday night and Saturday. This is the first soaking rain since April. It came just in time to insure a late potato crop in most places here. Farmers are all busy ploughing now for winter grain.

Losses Fine Horse
One of Elmer Guerber's best horses died Sunday. This makes eight horses that have been reported dead in this vicinity since spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jossy and family visited the Cliff Floyd family at Tualatin Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Baertischer have been visiting there for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCuen and family of Longview, Wash., visited over the week-end at the David Tschabold home. Harold Mc-

Cuen remained with his grandparents. He has been at the Tschabold home for some time. Margaret Brooks of Brooks Hill is helping Mrs. Elmer Guerber. Mrs. Guerber is slightly improved.

School Opens
Twenty-eight are enrolled at Helvetia school. Ten years ago there were 52 in school.

Seven in High
High school bus comes by the north Helvetia road this year as there are seven students to pick up. Those attending from Helvetia are Jean Wenger, Lilly Schneider, Jack Bauman, Helen and Lucille Yungen and Pearl Pieren and Walter Hershey from Mason Hill.

Mrs. VanLom and her baby boy returned from St. Vincent's hospital Thursday.

Laurel Club to Meet
Laurel Ladies' club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Mulloy, with Mrs. Rollin Meyers as assisting hostess. Officers will be elected. This meeting was postponed a week on account of a heavy rain.

Club to Give Good Program

South Tualatin Play Cast for Tonight Listed

SOUTH TUALATIN—An especially interesting group of plays and music has been arranged for tonight's (Thursday) program by the dramatic branch of the South Tualatin club. Rehearsal of the school's comedy, "Prof. Hoozit's Academy," was held Tuesday evening. The cast was chosen at a meeting at the home of Yvonne Bunnell Wednesday evening and includes John Leibenow, Eugene O'Connor, Calvin O'Connor, B. W. Wilson, Willie Keims, Yvonne Bunnell, Virginia Bunnell, Wilma Schildauer, Walter Leibenow, Lillian Lorence, Bob Leibenow, Lucille Keims. Other members of the club will fill in non-speaking parts. Bob Wilson, a newcomer in the community, will yodel and the Bunnell sisters trio will sing.

After the program a pie social will be held with W. A. Bunnell as auctioneer. The public is invited and the ladies are asked to bring a pie, the men to furnish the funds. The money derived from the entertainment will be used to buy books for the winter activities of the club.

Fay Meade has accepted employment at the Charles Demmin place.

Most of the farmers in this section have been filling silo this week.

Henry Behrman sustained a double loss during the past week, losing his uncle, John Kamna, and a fair-in-law, both within a few days.

Mrs. Newt Johnson returned to her position as teacher at Maplewood school Sunday, following a week-end spent at her home here.

Johnson expects to teach next year in a new school, as her present one is to be closed permanently, following the spring session.

Barbara Brown, Mary, Harry and Leo Sonada registered at Johnson school Monday for the fall term. They have been picking fruit.

Calvin O'Connor plans to make a trip to Eastern Oregon during the next few days.

W. A. Bunnell and family are staying at Laurel for a time and plan to pick fruit and hops. The two elder daughters, Virginia and Yvonne, will go to Forest Grove to pick prunes for their aunt, Mrs. J. E. Lewton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sattler of Portland visited this week at the C. C. Demmin home.
