

Coffee Club Host for County Federation

The County Federation of Women's clubs will be entertained in Hillsboro in October with the Coffee club as hostess club, according to decision made at the meeting Friday afternoon at the chamber of commerce. Date of the convention has not been set. Hostess committee for the event includes Mesdames Lloyd Brown, W. E. Pittinger, F. J. Sewell, P. J. Karkwarf, and W. F. Montgomery. Club delegates to the convention are Mesdames Thomas Connell, A. L. Chase, T. G. Brunowice, Elwood Johnson, and Fred Amacher.

Miss Alice Maxwell, executive secretary of the Washington county relief committee, gave an interesting talk on "Public Welfare," stressing the fact that it should not be considered as charity, as the majority of families needed help through no fault of their own. She also explained the display of sewing and rugs made by women as an SERA project under "key women" who are capable in this work. Mrs. Isabel Warren of Gales Creek has charge of this project and brought the exhibit to the club. This work is very neatly done and is for use by families needing such articles.

Mrs. E. L. McCormick, chairman of the public welfare committee and of the program, made a report on some of the work planned for the year. The welfare committee will meet this afternoon (Thursday) at Mrs. McCormick's home.

The matter of a swimming pool was discussed and the secretary was instructed to write a letter to the planning board relative to the need of one in Hillsboro. Mrs. Elsie Schulerich, a former member of the club, was present and made a few remarks, as did Mrs. John Dennis of Tawnee, Cal., who was also a guest and a former resident of this city.

Miss Elma Williams, who is staging the "Prince of Egypt," gave an outline of the play, which will be presented September 26 and 27, and asked the co-operation of the club.

Hostesses for the afternoon were the officers, Mesdames Fred Engelender, Otto Hartkamp, Florence Reynolds, H. H. Stannard, A. L. Chase, and W. E. Pittinger, with Mrs. Stannard and Mrs. Hartkamp pouring.

Committees named by the president for the year are as follows: Greeting—Mesdames J. M. Pearson, M. Shaylor, J. F. Buckland, Finance—Mesdames E. L. Moore, Fred Holznapel, C. E. Mariner. Club Cottage—Mesdames Lois Walworth, Caroline Stangel, Lester Ireland.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Wedding Date of Fifty Years Ago Observed Here

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Batchelder of north of Hillsboro was the scene of a joyous occasion Sunday when more than 100 friends and former neighbors called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. William L. Batchelder of Hillsboro on the celebration of their golden wedding anniversary.

The bride and groom of fifty years were married at the farm home on September 13, 1885, and spent their entire married life at the same place until they moved to their Hillsboro home. Mrs. Batchelder, formerly Victoria Hayward, was born on the place in 1868, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayward, pioneers. The place is a part of the Meek, Moore and Evans donation land claims, and was purchased by her father in the early '60s, after he came north from the gold rush days in 1861 and 1862 in California. Mr. Batchelder was born in Maine on May 7, 1859, and came to this coast when 19 years of age. He spent a short time in Washington before coming to this section. Three children were born to this union, Mrs. W. H. Pasley (deceased), James and Elmer Batchelder, both living on the old home place.

The happy couple received many gifts and flowers, and the rooms were attractively decorated with gladioli, marigolds, and other fall flowers. Mr. Batchelder presented his 50-year bride with a beautiful diamond ring in honor of the occasion.

Mrs. Jack Anderson of Portland, mother of Mrs. Elmer Batchelder, poet, and Mrs. Emma Dierdorff, lifelong friend, cut cakes. Mrs. Elmer Batchelder and the granddaughters, Mrs. Thomas Sholes, Evelyn and Jean Ann Pasley, Wilma and Margaret Batchelder, assisted with the refreshments. Mrs. James Batchelder received 25 guests at the door and was a gracious hostess.

Elder Virgil Becraft of Laurelvale Academy, read the ceremony under a silver bower banked with autumn flowers. Only members of the family were present.

The bride wore a smart navy blue jacket dress with touches of white at the throat, and a corsage of gardenias. Her hat was also of dark blue with shirred taffeta trim.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left immediately for a short wedding trip to Seattle, Wash., before returning to Billings, Mont., where they will make their home.

Mrs. Templeton Hostess—Mrs. Donald Templeton gave a luncheon Monday celebrating the second birthday of her son John. Guests were Bobby Seacore, Virginia Patterson and Paul Casebeer, and their mothers.

Miss Homedew Bride of G. A. Jacobson

Miss Lillie Homedew and George A. Jacobson of Portland were married Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. O. Benson, in Portland. Rev. Harry Gelvin, formerly of Orenco, read the marriage service in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Leal Grunke of Bozeman, Montana, sang "O Promise Me," and also played the Lohengrin wedding march. Little Marion Frances Jacobson, niece of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer.

The bride was dressed in white flat crepe of Grecian design, with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Bride's roses and bouvardia.

The bridesmaid, Miss Alta Kershner of Salem, wore a dress of yellow net and carried a bouquet of yellow roses, lavender sweetpeas and white bouvardia. J. Henry Jacobson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The candle-light ceremony took place under an arch of autumn leaves, white gladioli and asters, and table decorations were of white gladioli and bouvardia. Miss Arline White of Portland acted as hostess at the reception which followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Leal Grunke assisting.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Karine Homedew of Albany, and a graduate of Oregon State college. She has been home economics instructor in the Hillsboro high school for the past nine years.

Mr. Jacobson is a native of Washington county, being a son of Mrs. Nettie Jacobson of Portland, formerly of West Union. He is a graduate of Tex Rankin's school of aviation in Portland, and has followed that business for several years.

The bride's traveling suit was of rust colored metal-shot cloth with black accessories. After a few weeks' trip to the Oregon beaches, they will be at home at the bridegroom's farm at West Union.

Enrollment for Parent-Teacher Move Advocated

(By Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen) There is parent strength in parent union for the support of the best values for our children in home and school," says Mrs. Carl Sande of Forest Grove in naming September 24 to 29 as enrollment week in the Parent-Teacher associations of Washington county.

"The more thinking parents who join together, the more can be done for building community life with the best permanent values for our children," said Mrs. Sande, county membership chairman. Last year the membership in Washington county increased from 499 to 900, a 90 per cent increase. Only three other counties in Oregon were higher. Linn county, with a 90 per cent increase, Coos county, 80 per cent, and Josephine county with a 61 per cent increase. The total membership in Oregon last April was over 23,000, and in the national congress over 1,727,000.

Mrs. Sande's letters, maps, and plans, with those of Mrs. L. D. Courtwright, Portland, state chairman of membership, were shown and studied at the national convention at Miami, Florida, as model committee work. Mrs. Sande was honored at a state board luncheon recently in Portland for her achievement.

A feature of the enrollment plan this year is the use of bright colored P. T. A. stickers on home and car windows, indicating membership. Local chairmen in each Parent-Teacher association are working to better last year's good record and increase the extension of P. T. A. work for the welfare of the children of Washington county.
