Wedding Held at Cornelius Church

CORNELIUS—Mrs. Emma DePrez and Ovid C. Chartrey were married at St. Alexander's church, September 19. The Rev. H. E. Boesch received the vows, blessed the union and celebrated the nuptial mass Salus Aeterni Justorum, which was served by Paul DePrez and Raymond Chartrey, vested in Stephanie dalmatics with pentecostal straps.

The bridal procession was headed by Grace Schorb, ringbearer, governed by Sean organdie. Miss Marie DePrez acted as bridesmaid and Earl Chartrey as best man.

Main altar and side altar were decorated with gladioli, asters and larkspur.

The musical program included ingress procession, Butler's "Christian Band March" by Miss Irene M. VanDyke organist, Lambillotte's "Holy Mary Guardian Dear," a trio by Mrs. William A. VanDyke, Miss Evelyn Vaere married September 25 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Hemmy, at Boring. Rev. H. Dickman of Bethany performed the ceremony in front of a bower of flowers.

Miss Verna Hemmy, sister of the bride, played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of metallic lace with a tulle veil, made in cap shape, with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Tailsman roses and maiden-hair fern.

Miss Florence Hemmy, sister of the bride, and Miss Anna Marie Meyer, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore pink organdy and carried bouquets of lavender dahlias and ferns. Alfred Shuboth, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

About fifty attended the reception which followed the ceremony. The bride is a former Helvetia girl, and is a graduate of the Hillsboro class of 1934. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer of Helvetia, and the young couple have many friends in this section. They will make their home on the bridegroom's farm near Connell station.

Mrs. Ide, Mrs. Emery Honored

Teachers of the grade schools of Hillsboro enjoyed a tea at the Peter Boscow school after dismissal September 25 in honor of the two brides, Mrs. Kenneth Emery and Mrs. Russell Ide, (Elsie Anderson and Gertrude Needham, respectively). Miss Esther Wicks, new music supervisor, played two violin selections. Miss Maurine Moore sang with violin obligato. Gifts were presented to the honor guests following the reading of an original verse written by one of the group as a toast to the brides. Miss Ruth Jones poured at a beautifully appointed table, and was assisted in serving by Miss Eva McCormick, Miss Maurine Moore, and Mrs. Margaret Mooberry, teachers of Peter Boscow school. Mrs. Margaret Simon of Forest Grove, formerly a teacher here, was the only out-of-town guest. Decorations were of beautiful fall flowers presented by L. J. Rushlow.

Temples Visit Here Friday

Members from the North Plains and Forest Grove Pythian Sisters Temples were guests of Phoenicia Temple Friday evening at a fellowship meeting. Several members were re-instated, and a short program followed the temple session. Agne and Robert Peters played several piano duets, and cards were played the remainder of the evening. Mesdames Henrietta Morgan, H. R. Emmott, Lloyd Brown, A. F. Schendel, and Anna Gottlieb were the hostess committee.

Conference of Church Held

First quarterly conference of the Hillsboro Methodist church was held Sunday. Dr. Louis Magin, district superintendent of the Salem district, preached at the morning service and presided at the conference. A basket dinner was held in the basement of the church and the members of the Cornelius church were present with members of the local congregation. Good reports were made by the officers of both groups.

Choirs Formed at M. E. Church

Members of the choir of the Methodist church met Wednesday night at the church to organize for the year's work. Jesse Foster has been engaged as leader of the choir and plans to have two choirs, one for the morning service comprised of older members and a young people's choir for the evening service.

Visitors Entertained—

Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Pitman entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Armstrong of Pasadena, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gardner of Quatama, and Utley Buckley of Silverton at dinner Tuesday evening.
