

Helvetia Has Annual Event

Church Festival Held; No. Services for Sunday

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)

HELVIETIA—The Phillips and Helvetia German Reform churches held their annual harvest and mission festival at Helvetia Sunday. In spite of the rainy weather a large crowd attended. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and autumn leaves. Rev. B. M. Frensenberg was in charge of the service. The choir from both churches sang special numbers, also a male quartet from Hillsdale. Messrs. Henry, Mike and John Fox and Mike Frutiger, Rev. G. Hafner preached in German in the forenoon and Rev. C. Hoffman preached in English in the afternoon. At noon a luncheon was served in the basement of the school house, which is near the church. Many came from a distance, some from Portland and Hillsdale churches. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Youngen of Salem attended. He is a brother of Abe Youngen.

There will be no service at Helvetia church next Sunday as the pastor, Rev. Frensenberg, speaks at the Second Reform church at Portland in the forenoon and at Bethany Presbyterian church at the regional Sunday school convention in the afternoon.

Mrs. George Walters of West Union and Mrs. A. Shannon were hostesses for the Helvetia Sunshine club October 16. Mrs. James Davis of North Plains telephone office received a quilt. Several ladies received packages from an unknown friend. Date for the annual bazaar and program was set for December 7, to be held at the Helvetia school. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Lauge of North Plains November 20.

A very large crowd of friends and neighbors attended the charivari for Mr. and Mrs. Chris Christensen at their home Wednesday night. The ladies had a miscellaneous shower for the couple and they received many beautiful gifts. Later lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. William Rufener of Firdale were among the group.

Miss Ritta Colyer of Woodburn, Mrs. Schlack and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Schlack were visiting at the Henry Staehli home Wednesday and attended the charivari that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Youngen attended the silver wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Youngen recently at Salem. Mrs. Irene Korn and children Kathryn and Robert of Yakima, Wash., visited at the C. E. Korn home over the week-end. Other guests Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wenger and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Hershey and family and Mr. Cottage.

Elmer Guerber visited his wife at the Good Samaritan hospital Sunday. Mrs. Guerber is improving slowly.

Ruth and Donald Guerber spent the week-end with their aunt, Miss Hulda Berger. They visited their mother at the Good Samaritan hospital Saturday.
