

Jamboree Tuesday; Aid in Roll Call

Final plans for the fourth annual Jamboree to be held at the new Grange hall next Tuesday night were announced at the meeting of Business and Professional Women's club Friday night at the chamber of commerce rooms. Short skits, games, music, white elephant sale, and many other entertainment features have been planned. This event is for ladies only, and all women and girls in the county are invited to attend. Jamboree committee includes Mrs. Zola Morgan, Rose Cave, Mrs. Marie Caldwell, Bernice Kuntz, Gladys Matson, Mrs. Gladys Trask, Dorothy Snyder, and Mrs. Hattie Davidson.

The club's first president, Mrs. Ted Hornecker (Mildred McLeod) of Coquille, who was visiting relatives in the county, attended the meeting and was given an ovation. Mrs. Georgia Smith, librarian, gave a short talk on "First Steps Toward an Effective Democracy," the first of a series of short talks to be given at the meeting. Business sessions will be given on the district conference held at Bend recently.

The club voted to again sponsor the solicitation for the Red Cross membership roll call and 20 members signed up as volunteer workers.

Following the business meeting, games were played under the supervision of Mrs. Edna Tupper, Miss Marie Houge, Mrs. Ada Ible, and Mrs. Fayetta Allen.

The membership committee, Gussie Sigler, Roberta Barnes, Mrs. Audrey Heaton, Mrs. Elva Hatcher, and Rowena Hermann, had charge of the dinner, using the Hallowe'en motif for menu and table decorations.
