"We are all travelling in the same direction," said Father Mc-Allister, "but we go over different avenues." The Prep school principal was substituting for Father Michael Earley, who was prevent ed by illness from attending. Father McAllister has been in Oregon only a short time, having come here from a teaching position in Notre Dame university.

"Why should I look down upon you because you do not go by the same avenue of faith," he asked, "or why should you look down upon me because I go by a different road than that by which you travel?"

"Father McAllister made plain that differences in faith could be discussed and even argued over discussed and even argued over week with temperatures ranging week with temperatures ranging the company of the company

Red Cross Membership Roll-Call

Red Cross Membership Roll-Call will be conducted from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving, and chairmen will be appointed in every section of the county. A large sum of money has been expended by the Red Cross for oin emergency relief in the county this year, and it is only by the co-operation of the citizens in the roll-call solicitation that this is possible. Fifty cents of every member-ship goes to the national chapter for relief and disaster, and on all larger mem-berships, the remainder of the sum is available for county relief.
