Cornelius Firemen Called Out for Two Blazes During Week

Seventy Enjoy Sunday School Party; Bazaar Success; Victim of Accident Returned; Club Plans Bazaar

(By Miss Dorothy Cooke)
CORNELIUS—The local fire department was called to the farm house southeast of town owned by Mrs. Sam McIvaine Wednesday evening, to a chimney fire. On Thursday evening the fire department was called to Merle LaFollette home northeast of town to a roof fire.

Party Enjoyed
About seventy Sunday school workers and friends of the M. E. Sunday school enjoyed a "School Club" party at the church Tuesday evening. The bell for school rang sharply at 7 with Mrs. Mattie Smith as teacher. Nursery rhymes, a reading, a backward spelling match, and a birthday song, group singing, and games were a part of the school's program. A special feature was the showing of everyone's baby picture, on a screen as a moving picture. Much fun was enjoyed by guessing who the baby was. Rev. Charles Reed was presented with a motto as prize for being the prettiest baby.

Aid Holds Bazaar
Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church held a silver tea fish pond and bazaar at the church Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Reed played a piano solo and accompanied Rev. Reed, who sang a solo; Mrs. L. Holcomb of Hillsboro gave the books of the Bible and Mrs. M. Sabin, also of Hillsboro, gave a reading. Mrs. George Wilcox and Mrs. Ray Shaw gave appropriate readings. A goodly sum was realized.

Mrs. Joseph Mann of Portland visited Mrs. M. D. Mann Saturday. Robert Cochrane, who teaches at Orcharddale, held a program and party Friday evening. Misses Beth Cochrane, and Cecelia Kalsch, Wilfred Kalsch and Joe Gnos attended.

A group of young folks enjoyed a party Wednesday evening at the home of Betty Jo Osborne.

Drive Underway to Make Homes Safer

Drive is under way this week throughout the United states to make the American home safe for occupancy.

A survey disclosed that more than half the accidents reported last year occurred in the home.

In an effort to reduce the accident hazard, local Red Cross workers are making a nation-wide check of homes, with the aid of FHA workers.

Purpose of FHA cooperation, as explained by Jamieson Parker, state director, is to determine the character of repairs needed, if any.
