Blooming Aid Has Big Meet

Ladies' Aid Meet Friday; New People Arrive

BLOOMING - About 65 ladies, many of them visitors from nearby communities, attended a rally given under auspices of the Luthof the church November 14. Cedar boughs, laurel berries and green. orange and tan crepe paper were used in decoration. "Home and Mother" was the theme on which many songs and recitations were based. Games and community all, followed by a luncheon serv-ed in banquet style. Guest speakers were R. P. Moeller, teacher of the Lutheran school, and the Rev. E. Hinrichs. Tables were decorated with laurel berries, chrysanthe-mums and tall candles. Mesdames Henry Reese and John Kamna served on the reception committee.
