 The gift stock running strongly this year to package goods which have been gaining yearly in popularity. Particularly is this true of gifts for women, where a new, interesting and varied stock will be found in Hillsboro to meet almost any taste.
 Hillsboro merchants, too, are approaching the Christmas season with a more optimistic feeling toward business possibilities due to a steady upswing in sales, which began during the summer and which has been more manifest as the year nears its end.
 The chamber of commerce trades committee is suggesting the slogan this year of, "First try Hillsboro." Howard Hadley of the Imperial Feed & Grain company is chairman of the retail trades committee.

Native Daughter Dies in Portland

FOREST GROVE—Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Elizabeth Nickell, 53, who died in a Portland hospital after an illness of five years, were held at the Buxton church Monday afternoon with Rev. Hood officiating. Interment was in Buxton cemetery.
 Mrs. Nickell was born at Mountaineer March 26, 1882. She is survived by the widower and two children by a former marriage, Lewis Griffin and Mrs. Hattie Johnson of Vancouver, Wash. A sister, Mrs. Nellie Simpson of Tacoma, Wash., and a brother, Donald McPherson of Remote, also survive.

Portland Ditches Meat Ordinance

Portland city council Tuesday unanimously killed an ordinance that would have increased inspection and provided for the grading of meat. The measure had been submitted by the retail meat dealers' association.
 The farmers, including Washington county representatives, particularly protested that phase of the ordinance which required inspection "on the hoof." They said this would eliminate the Portland market for the small farmer.

Beaverton Youth Caught Under Car

Suffering from a deep cut on his neck, loss of blood and serious bruises, Jack Saunders, 20, Beaverton, was recovering in Jones hospital Wednesday. He was injured Monday when his automobile, held up on a hydraulic jack in a Beaverton service station, toppled over on him when he reached inside the car for a wrench.
 A jagged piece of glass from one of the doors struck Saunders just below the right ear, tearing a deep gash downward into his neck, barely missing the jugular vein.
