Beaverton Group Giving a Bazaar

BEAVERTON—Ladies of St. Cecilia parish are holding a card party, bazaar and supper at the Aloha Grange hall Tuesday.

W. H. Boswell is now employed at the Richfield oil station in the western part of Beaverton. He recently resigned his position in Portland, owing to ill health.

Floyd W. Allen of near Dallas, formerly of Beaverton, visited relatives here recently. Mr. Allen operates a sheep ranch in Polk county.

The Bethel Ladies' Aid and missionary study class Thursday elected Mrs. Jay Gibson treasurer to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. J. E. Fleetwood. A nominating committee for the annual election was appointed with L. D. Shellenberger, chairman.

Cow Skeleton Found
About three miles of the cleaning and widening of the beaverdam ditch has been completed. Sometime ago the ditch crew found the skeleton of a cow in the ditch, which apparently had been there for a year. The animal had gone into the ditch to get a drink and having been hobbled to prevent fence jumping, could not get up the bank and the heavy growth of tansy hid it from view.

Mrs. W. Barrett, who has been making an extensive visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shellenberger of Beaverton, returned to her home in Pocatello, Idaho, during the past week.

The Oregonian Traveling kitchen will be at the Beaverton Grange hall December 14.

Mrs. J. E. Fleetwood, who has been with her sister, Mrs. H. M. Barnes, for several weeks, left Thursday morning to join her husband near Scappoose, where he is employed. Mrs. Barnes, who has been in poor health for some time, is much improved.

Goes to Europe
Miss Margaret Zimmerman sailed Friday for Europe, where she will join relatives, who sent her the transportation. She will make an indefinite stay. Miss Zimmerman formerly resided with Miss Elizabeth McGowan and is a member of the 1934 Beaverton high school graduating class.

Mason Craig, 20, of Raleigh and Grace Miller, 19, of Beaverton received a marriage license in Vancouver, Wash., November 20. Mr. Craig is employed at the Ligman & Wolfe store in Portland and is a graduate of Lincoln high school.

Miss Miller is a graduate of the Beaverton high school and resides here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Program Held by Hazeldale Society
(By Mrs. J. C. Smith)
HAZELDALE—At the community club meeting Saturday evening F. H. Schoene of Beaverton showed pictures of the orient and Mexico, taken by him on a recent trip. Piano and accordion numbers were given by Helen Becker of
