

P-T.A. Council Will Meet Dilley Tuesday

"Juvenile Protection Through Parent Education" is the theme for discussion at the regular county council of the Washington County Parent-Teacher association's meeting at the Methodist church at Dilley Tuesday.

Local presidents' reports will be discussed by Mrs. Allen Knight, who studied with Miss Alice Sewers, parent education specialist from the national congress at Corvallis last year.

E. Britt Nedry, principal of Tizard school, will give "The Youth Problems as it Looks to a School Principal." Mrs. Elizabeth Todd, county juvenile officer, will tell of her work in juvenile protection in Washington county.

Local presidents' reports will be given at a luncheon "pop-wow" at noon, along the lines of the membership pop-wow at the Meadford convention.

Mrs. F. W. Blum of Portland will continue the course for credit in P-T.A. work, and the usual conferences and business will begin at 10 o'clock.

Singers of Rose City Here Sunday

A Cappella Singers of Portland, under the direction of Prof. Clarence Paris, will make their first appearance in Hillsboro at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday evening at 7:30. This group, comprising twenty-five trained voices, is the first group of a Cappella singers to be organized in Portland. The singers have been heard over KEX each Sunday evening during the past weeks.

In their concert Sunday evening they will feature several Christmas numbers.

This is the first of a series of musical features to be brought to the city during the winter by the Choral Society of the Methodist Episcopal church. These programs will provide the best in music and give opportunity to all to enjoy these numbers. A silver offering will be taken to defray expense of bringing the singers and assist in the local program of the Choral society.

Clubs to Join in Observance

In common with Christian people throughout the English-speaking world, members of the various chapters of Hillsboro Christian Council will commemorate the 400th anniversary of the first English printed Bible during the coming week. Young people of the clubs will bring with them copies of the various translations of the Scrip-

Miss Kuratli Bride of William Doern

Miss Gladys Kuratli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kuratli of Hillsboro, and William Doern, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doern of Beaverton, were married at the Bethany Presbyterian church November 27 at 3:30 p. m. Rev. H. D. Dickman performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a long-sleeved, high-necked gown of white satin with a train. Her cap and veil were trimmed with pearls and orange blossoms which her mother had worn. She carried a bouquet of Miss Eleanor Schaefer of Bethany, Talisman roses and bouvardia.

Miss Eleanor Schaefer, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a frock of light blue chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Jack Herman of Portland, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ruben Kuratli, brother of the bride, and Henry Doern, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Miss Burkey Weds Ira B. Witaker

Miss Fern Elizabeth Burkey and Ira Berry Witaker of Sebastopol, Cal., were united in marriage at a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Burkey, November 27, with Rev. Charles M. Reed of Hillsboro officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a blue velvet dress with silver accessories. She wore a corsage bouquet.

The bride's only attendant, Miss Evelyn Puncocor, wore a dress of wine-colored velvet with a corsage bouquet. Adrian Hornicker acted as best man.

The house was decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums, which were also used to form an altar before which the ceremony was performed. Lighted candles were used during the ceremony.

Mrs. Mabel Fox of Portland played Mendelssohn's wedding march and accompanied Mrs. Charles M. Reed of Hillsboro, who sang "O Promise Me."

New Books Added to Local Library

Short reviews on four of the splendid collection of new books at the library are given as follows:

Edwin Hamilton's new book, "Tin Craft," opens new possibilities for young and old in metal craft. Herebefore many have been handicapped by the cost of material, but this tells how to make many things from tin cans, with very simple tools.

In "My Country and My People," the author, Lin Yu-fang, writes an excellent characterization of the spirit and personality of his country, with a sense of humor that is an essential part of the Chinese nature. He sees clearly the value and shortcomings of his own civilization as compared to western culture.

Children Given Christmas Party

Hillsboro children will be made happy at Christmas time if plans of the Coffee club, Service club, and Women's Relief Corps are carried out. Children who might not otherwise receive toys are to be invited to a Christmas party on Monday, December 23, when toys and candy will be distributed to all.

The party will be held at the Venetian theatre instead of at the chamber of commerce as formerly.

Bazaar and Dinner Friday

Ladies of the Methodist church will have a bazaar and dinner Friday in the church basement. Bazaar will open at 1 o'clock and many articles will be on sale which will make nice Christmas gifts. A chicken dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 in the evening at a nominal price. Everybody invited.

Sale Endorsed

The 1935 Christmas Seal sale deserves the hearty support of every resident of Washington county.

No enterprise justifies itself in any more tangible manner than does this effort to combat tuberculosis. The contribution which we all should make returns a dividend incalculable in its value—a dividend payable in health.

We urge that the people of this county give their united support and whole hearted co-operation to the Washington County Health Association to make the 1935 seal sale the most successful effort of its kind ever made in this county.

(Signed) Donald T. Templeton, county judge; James Lewis, county commissioner; H. D. Kerkman, county commissioner.
