Hilhi Leads All-Star Team

County Grid Mentors Name Mythical 1935 Elevens

Ten out of the 11 first string Hilhi gridders were named on the two 1935 Washington county all-star football elevens announced this week by coaches of the four major high schools. Tigard was second with five players on the mythical teams, Forest Grove next with four, while Beaverton placed three gridders in the line-up.

The Hillsboro squad, county champions, furnished the entire right side of the first team forward wall and the Tigard Tigers sup-plied the left side of the line. Hillis, capable Viking center, drew the keystone assignment to complete the line selections.

Warren Wahner, Hilhi backfield ace, was selected for a first string halfback position and was rated the outstanding ball carrier of the county for the season. Bailey of Forest Grove was selected as quar-terback for his ability to pick the right play along with the indi-vidual ability to handle the work of a ctrap balk corrier Bath Wahner of a star ball carrier. Both Wahner and Bailey were the unanimous choice of the coaches.

choice of the coaches. Coaches co-operating in the se-lections were B. M. Goodman, Hills-boro; Fred Halverson, Forest Gorve; T. W. Smith, Tigard; and Ed War-ren, Beaverton. Each named his choice for first and second rat-ings and from these selections the coaches agreed on the "super all-stars." (GREENVILLE — Pupils not ab-sent nor tardy for the past six weeks were Patricia Carmen, Mil-dred Cop, Norman Schulmerich, Vincent and Vernon Susbauer, Er-ma and Charles Vuylsteke.
