Council Groups Hold Celebration

First of the annual inter-faith pre-Christmas exercises of Hillsboro Christian Council was held at Pilgrim House Tuesday evening, in a celebration of the 400th anniversary of the printed English Bible, when three chapters of council, Omegas, Deltas and Alphas met together. Christmas carols were sung, and Pastor Henry S. Haller, council advisor, gave a brief talk on the worth of the Bible, pointing out that though various groups used different translations of the original languages, the basic ideas of religion were the same in all.

This was the first of a series of joint meetings for the anniversary celebration. Vikings, C-H and Sigmas will meet tonight, and the Gammals will have their observance in connection with their Christmas party next Monday evening. Christmas exercises will be climaxed with the annual Christmas Eve midnight musical celebration at the Venetian theater, December 24 at 11:30 p. m. Conducted by the young people, this musical event will be open to all parents and others of the community Council members, after the public exercises, will go caroling through the Hillsboro streets.

A Capella Singers Give Concert Here

There's No Waste Motion Here

The hand that rocks the cradle may rule the nation, but in this The Dalles, Ore., household, the foot that rocks the cradle churns the butter. As this ingenious housewife works the treadle of her sewing machine, two wooden bars move up and down; one imparting a soothing movement to the baby's crib; the other stirring the butter.

D. A. R. Regent Makes Official Visit Tuesday

Mrs. Mark V. Weatherford of Albany, state regent of the D. A. R., made her official visit to the David Hill chapter, D. A. R., Tuesday. She was accompanied by Mrs. G. Glen Holmes, also of Albany, state corresponding secretary.

The ladies were honor guests at a no-host luncheon at the Hillsboro Pharmacy, and the business meeting was held at the home of Mrs. R. D. English at the Washington hotel.

Mrs. Weatherford, in her speech before the chapter, told of the plans which are being perfected for the selection of the most outstanding senior girl in the Hillsboro union high school, who will draw lots with girls from other high schools in the state for the Good Citizenship tour. This tour will include a trip to Washington, D. C., and a visit to all government buildings. Every state in the union will be represented by one high school girl. She also told of the Pageantry at the 44th National D. A. R. conference last April at Washington, D. C., where she represented Oregon. During her talk she stressed the duty of every patriotic citizen in preserving the principles upon which the United States were founded, especially in guidance of the youth of the nation, since our youth of today constitute the government of tomorrow.

Mrs. Weatherford also told of the progress which had been made on the restoration of McLoughlin house at Oregon City.

Birthdays Celebrated

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freudenthal and daughter Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Freudenthal and daughter Norma, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilhelm, Walter Tews, Mrs. Lena Morris and son Chester, Miss Marjorie Vanderzanden and Bill Greener.

Divorce Suits Filed
Lee—Edie V. from William J.

Indignant bridegroom (bursting in upon editor of local paper): "Look here, I distinctly told you I was going to live at the old manse? What the blazes do you mean by saying in your rotten little rag that 'the happy couple will make their home at the old manse'?"—Humorist.

No longer do motorists scurry from the road at first sign of snow and put their cars up on blocks until spring thaw, according to the touring department of the Oregon State Motor association. Not only are people continuing to use their cars throughout the winter, but more and more they are planning long motor trips, usually southward to more balmy weather.

world; you saw the vast millions for whom Christ died; you took to heart the command to reach them with the Message of eternal life. You put your young people, pray-ers, money into this business—the biggest business in the world. The only business that bridge over into the next world.

Like the Apostle Paul, you would be "pure from the blood of all men." The deepest wish in Christ's heart became your life-passion; to make known to all men that God had a Son who died for your sins. And now to the man who cooled off—

"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel," still stands. God has no pleasure in those who put their hands to the plow and then draw back. Figures from twenty denominations, gathered by Dr. Charles Stelzie, say that in the past ten years, support to local churches has fallen off 35 per cent and to missions, world-wide, 50 per cent. Are you keeping up the car and letting down on religion? Have you merely the form of godliness but deny the power thereof? Just going through the motions from old-time habit, but with no zeal, no love? Then read Revelations 3:15; 16—"I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot; I would that thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth." Harsh words; solemn warning.—George N. Taylor, Beaverton.—Paid adv.
