Local Sea Scouts Open House Hosts

An open house of the Sea Scout Ship Rainbow of Hillsboro will be held tonight (Thursday) at the Congregational church at 7:30. At that time all parents of members and prospective members, members of the district committee, and scouts, and the interested public are asked to attend.

R. L. Burnett, skipper of the Regional Flagship Columbia of Portland, will be in charge of the meeting. He is acting as skipper of the Rainbow for the next two months in order to build up the local ship to a point where it will compare favorably with any in the council. With Mr. Burnett will be 20 Sea Scouts from the Columbia.

Demonstrations of ships' ceremonies, drills, and a first aid contest will be on the program. Working with the Hillsboro Sea Scouts a routine meeting will be held with the learning and singing of Sea Chimes.

Over 25 parents of the Portland Sea Scouts will also attend. They sponsor the ship and are anxious to meet Hillsboro parents and point out how they can help build a strong organization with adequate leadership and members.

Rock Creek Clubs Receive Awards

Ten members of the Rock Creek dairy, poultry and crops clubs were awarded achievement pins at the annual achievement meeting held in the home of Harry Hansen at Bethany December 3, according to L. E. Francis, assistant county agent.

Dairy club, led by Fred Jossy, and poultry club, led by John Hansen, completed work 100 per cent and were awarded certificates of achievement.

Following the achievement program the dairy club was organized for the coming year with Henry Dickman, president; Jack Baumann, vice-president, and John Hansen, secretary. Fred Jossy was re-elected leader. Moving pictures were shown.

Club members receiving awards were John Hansen, Albert Grossen and Jim Davidson, seventh year certificates; Irene Hansen and Henry Dickman, third year certificates; Dick Jossy and Paul Dickman, second year certificates; Jack Baumann, Elmer Grossen and Donald Meier, first year pins.

Didn't Get New Washer in Time

"The gasoline motor I advertised recently in the Argus sold so fast that I hadn't even had time to get an electric one to replace it, so had to dust off the wash board to do the week's wash." Writes Mrs. Venus Bunnell of Laurel. "Next time I'll play safe and get the new one before I advertise the old in the Argus."

Classified columns of the Argus provide the great market place of Washington county. The cost is small, but the results are great.

Say you saw it in the Argus.
