Honor Roll for Local Grade Schools for Period Announced

Class Groups Elect Officers; 7A Presents Program; Penmanship Certificates Received; Absences Decrease

Honor roll for the last six weeks' period has been announced. To attain this distinction a child must receive at least five S plus grades on his card with department of 90 or above. Pupils on the honor roll are:

Anna Mary Hartrampf, Katherine Wiley, Lucille Walters, Phyllis Johnson and Marion Rucher. The class made a special study of the much discussed article, "And Sudden Death," which appeared recently in the Readers' Digest, and also discussed editorials from various newspapers.

Each member of the 6B arithmetic class and the 7B language class is making an individual graph showing his daily progress in his work.

The second and fourth grades of the Peter Boscow school have joined the Junior Red Cross 100 per cent. Several rooms exceeded their quota in the sale of Christmas seals. The 4A sold more than their share, and the 3A sold 169 seals with a quota of 60.

A considerable decrease in absences at the junior high was shown during the last week. Eugene Schwinn of the 8A2 class at the junior high returned to school after an extended absence because of poison oak. At the David Hill school EuVane Gernhart and Evelyn Miley, 2A, were absent with chickenpox in the 4A John Wiley recently underwent an appendicitis operation, and Maxine McCluey was out with scarlet fever. The only absence at the Peter Boscow school was James Schafer 4A.

Several pupils moved from Hillsboro last week. Neva Smith, 2A at the David Hill and Lorena Smith, 5A, left for Corona, Cal.; Donald Robertson, 2A at the Peter Boscow school recently moved to Sherwood. Verduin Simms of North Plains is a new pupil in the 7A at the junior high. Charles Simmons is a new pupil in the 5A at David Hill.

The girls of the 8A class entertained the boys with a party at the junior high recently, as the result of losing a wager as to who would have the highest average in department for the six-week period. The boys won with an average of 99 per cent.
