Tozier Rings Out Old Year at Local Church 64th Time

New Year's eve watch night serv-ice at the Methodist Episcopal church in Hillsboro has become his-her brother-in-law and sister, Mr.

who has rung the bell for 64 years, was present again on New Year's eve this year for the occasion. Mr Tozier in testing the bell before th stroke of twelve made the dis covery that it would not ring, evi dently it had been turned over. With but a few seconds remaining of the old year a ladder was rush ed from the basement of the church Byron Reed ascended and speedil the bell was righted, and Mr. Toz ier with face beaming welcomed the New Year with the familian sound of the bell.

The program was arranged by the King's Daughters' class of the Sun-day school. Cornelius Methodist church sent many representatives and assisted with the program. Les-ter Mooberry sang a solo. Mrs. Mat-tie Smith and Miss Myra Wiede-witch some o duct and church the witsch sang a duet and played their own accompaniment on their guitars. Rev. and Mrs. Reed sang a duct. Mr. Tozier and Mrs. Edyth Tozier Weatherred each spoke on the history of Oregon. A brief de-votional service was held prior to the ringing of the bell.

Many friends of Mr. Tozier and Mrs. Weatherred came in for the services, and many came for the first time that they might have some part in this service, which is contributing to the history of Wash-Ben Coussens about nine years age ington county.
