

Hazeldale Has Fine Program

Card Party Planned January 16; Speaker Invited

(By Mrs. J. C. Smith)
 HAZELDALE—Hazeldale Sunday school held their Christmas program and tree December 23, under the direction of Mesdames Heil, Jelderks and Brooks. During the evening R. B. Doughty of Beaverton, superintendent of the Sunday school, presented Bibles to Mrs. J. A. Black, Mrs. Flaville Jelderks and Stella Imlah, for correct memorization of eight Bible verses. Mrs. Black, on behalf of the Sunday school, presented Mr. Doughty with a Scofield Bible in recognition of his excellent service. The affair was in the form of a "white Christmas," and enough donations were received to fill several Christmas baskets.

Evelyn Day, who is a student at Normal school, is spending the holidays at her home.

Plan Card Party

The Community club met Friday night. Plans were made for the next card party January 16. Mrs. J. C. Smith is in charge. A tentative arrangement was made to have a representative of the Townsend club speak at the meeting January 10, with C. P. Sverson in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Sverson were hosts over Christmas for a family party at their home. Those who spent the day with them were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sverson and family of Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Sverson and family of Timber, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hallock, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barnes and their families, all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Robinson and family of Laurel, Doris and Arthur Sverson, at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Connor entertained a group of their relatives Saturday night at their home in Beaverton. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Connor and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Linn O'Connor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Pierce, Calvin and Lelia O'Connor and Fred Mully.

Buy Home

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Newton recently purchased a new home at Garden Home and plan to move there early in the year.

Arthur Sverson, who has been in Yakima for the last several months, has returned to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kincheloe had as their guest during the holidays Mr. Kincheloe's father, A. M. Kincheloe, of Walla Walla, Wash. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Decker at the Hahnemann hospital, December 20, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Murphy were called to Hoquiam, Wash., owing to the serious illness of their son-in-law, William Loomer.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Staub spent Christmas day at Newberg with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dwyer.

WHAT OF OUR TIMES?
 Is God to ring down the curtain on this scene and set the stage for a new and different day? We give as follows what the leading Bible teachers say as they glean the book.

This present set-up of nations is to end. The Stone that we cut out without hands—meaning Jesus Christ—is to smile the nations and they are to pass away as chaff from the summer threshing floor. Daniel 2:34-35. Not a gradual process but an event. Sudden; startling; Christ the Smiting Stone.

When will this take place? Let Christ himself tell it—"Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles—the nations—until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled." Luke 21:24. For centuries the Jews were shut out of their own land and scattered among the nations. A kept-out sign on their city. No Jews allowed."

Then in 1916, right before our very eyes it happened; the great decisive sign for which generations of Christians had waited. The Arabs who had held the city for long centuries surrendered it to the English. In 1922, six years later, to Great Britain was given the task of holding Palestine for the Jews. Jerusalem open, no longer trodden down, the Jews flow in, 300,000 already back. Cities building; business humming.

So far as the Bible has to say, the day of the nations has now come to an end; for the Holy City is no longer trodden down but open to her own people.

What next? The Lord shall descend for his own to take them out; then the great tribulation. "Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved."—Matthew 24:22. The nations have ruled the world in greed war, lust, selfishness instead of to the glory of God. So the curtain will fall or to rise again on terrible judgment. God is God; sin is sin; and woe to men when God trends out the winepress of his wrath. Now is the day of salvation. Receive Christ as Saviour while it is yet day.—George N. Taylor, Beaverton.—Paid adv.
