see a movie actually being filmed. They will go through the outdoor settings at Universal City and they will have lunch with the movie stars at the Universal City movie cafe. Perhaps some of them will obtain autographs from stars as some of the girls did on the trip a year ago by winners of the contests conducted through the Washington Press association. They will undoubtedly have their pictures taken with the movie actors again.

Last year 60 Washington girls made a similar trip to California from Washington. This year the trip has been made longer and with new and added features to make it even more enjoyable if that were possible.

The cars with the Washington state winners will leave Seattle at 11:30 p. m. Friday, March 13. At Portland the cars containing the Oregon winners will be attached to the train, also club car and dinner. The train will leave Portland at 8:15 a. m. Saturday, March 14, and will travel down the Willamette valley that day, picking up additional winners from various cities enroute. All meals will be in the special diner that day and the following. The club car will be open all day and serving for the exclusive use of members of the party.

Sunday morning the train will be in California and the day trip will be down the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys, arriving in Los Angeles during the evening. Where the cars will be switched to the Santa Fe railroad and taken to San Diego during the night. Breakfast will be at the San Diego hotel, and the party will proceed by special buses to Coronado Beach, down across the border to Tia Juana and Agua Caliente, to lunch in Old Mexico. Return to San Diego will be during the afternoon and the balance of the afternoon and evening will be spent at the exposition grounds, with dinner at the Cafe of the World.

The sleepers will not leave San Diego until 1 a. m. so the whole evening may be spent at the exposition. Arrival will be in Los Angeles at 10 o'clock A. M. The headquarters will be made at the Rosslyn Hotel where breakfast will be served. After breakfast there will be an all day tour of Hollywood, Beverly and Los Angeles, with a visit to the 20th Century Fox studios, to see a movie being filmed, lunch at Universal City, Grauman's Chinese theatre in Hollywood for a matinee, and dinner at the famous Lucca's Italian restaurant.

Wednesday after breakfast at the hotel the party will leave for an all-day trip to Catalina Island, guided by Pacific Electric cars to Wilmington and then by the steamer "Avalon" to the famous resort.

Lunch will be at St. Catherine's hotel where in the afternoon the girls will be taken on glass bottomed boats to the submarine gardens. Arrival back at the hotel will be at 7:45 p. m. with dinner on arrival.

Thursday will be open day so the girls may visit Venice Beach, see friends or take what side trips they desire. All meals will be provided at the hotel. The cars will be attached to the popular Coast Route train "The Lark," leaving Los Angeles at 9:30 p. m.

Breakfast on Friday will be on the train, which arrives at San Francisco at 9 a. m. The baggage will be taken direct to the William Taylor hotel, but the girls will be taken on a 30-mile sightseeing trip of San Francisco. Lunch will be at the Lido Club, where there will be a floor show and dancing. Dinner at the hotel that night, and a conducted tour of Chinatown and return to the hotel at 11:30 p. m.

Breakfast will be at the hotel, with Saturday morning left open for the girls to visit famous San Francisco stores and shops if they desire, or see friends. That afternoon there will be a matinee party at the Fox Market Street theatre.

The party will leave on the limited "Cascade" train at 6:20 with dinner on the diner.

Meals will all be on the diner the next day as the train speeds northward through Oregon and Washington. Arrival in Portland at 3:30 p. m. and Seattle at 9:25 p. m. Everything has been arranged to make the trip one of the most marvelous that is possible. Special cars, fine hotels, luxurious sightseeing trips, movie studios, the San Diego exposition, Old Mexico and novel and unique places to dine. Every item of expense of the winners on the trip is paid, the girls only needing money for what souvenirs or purchases they might make. Even their tips are all taken care of. Each girl has a berth to herself. In the hotels two girls are placed in twin bed rooms with bath.

The contests are arranged by the local merchants to stimulate business during January and February and also to help on the collections of old accounts. Ordinarily business is quiet in these months. The travel contests conducted by merchants in 31 Washington towns in January and February, 1935, proved very successful and every girl who won is an enthusiastic booster for the marvelous time she had on the trip. The reward for the winners is worth a real effort and there are going to be winners here and elsewhere.

Travel prizes will be an all-expense nine-day trip to California and Old Mexico, starting from Seattle Friday evening, March 13, and from Portland Saturday morning, March 14, and returning to the north Sunday, March 22, after visits to Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Hollywood and other interesting California points and also to Tia Juana and Agua Caliente, Mexico. There will also be a side trip to Catalina Island off the coast of California.

A large group of young women from 40 or 50 towns in the states of Washington and Oregon will make the trip together. They will travel in chartered sleeping cars, with a club car and a dining car for their exclusive use. It will be a real "good will" tour of the south and will be a travel adventure, with every cent of expenses, including tips, paid for the contest winners.

The trip is arranged under the joint auspices of the Washington Press and the Oregon Editorial associations, with hostesses to look after the welfare of the young ladies and with an experienced tour manager in complete charge of all arrangements.

The young ladies will be guests at Fox-Twentieth Century new studios in Beverly, where they will see a movie actually being filmed. They will go through the outdoor settings at Universal City and they will have lunch with the movie stars at the Universal City movie cafe. Perhaps some of them will obtain autographs from stars as some of the girls did on the trip a year ago by winners of the contests conducted through the Washington Press association.
