Mrs. J Dobbs is Recovering

Local People Injured in Automobile Accident

Mrs. John F. Dobbs, wife of Pacific university's president, narrowly escaped asphyxiation Friday afternoon when she was knocked unconscious in a fall from a stool in her kitchen at Forest Grove. Dr. Dobbs found his wife in a gasfilled kitchen, carried her to porch and called Fire Chief Walter Vandervelden. An inhalator was used for more than an hour before it was felt safe to transfer the woman to the Emanuel hospital in

The accident occurred when the heel of Mrs. Dobbs' slipper caught the top of the stool as she was looking into a cupboard above the range. In falling she struck her head. Water in a double boiler on the stove boiled over, extinguishing the flame and allowing the gas to escape into the room.
