

Mr. and Mrs. Grindle, Banks, Wed 55 Years

BANKS—Mr. and Mrs. Ell Grindle celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary Friday. They were married in Ashburn county, Kansas, where they lived for a few years and from there moved to Arkansas. In 1891 they moved to Oregon where they homesteaded on Green Mountain. There they made them a nice home. This place is where the Elwood Logging company building is now located. The house and barn were destroyed by fire and the orchard has been so neglected that it no longer bears fruit. Only a beautiful pine tree which was planted by their small son remain to remind the Grindles of their mountain home.

After selling off the timber, Mr. and Mrs. Grindle moved to Banks in 1908, where they have since lived. They both have taken an active part in Sunday school and all church affairs and all other civic affairs.

Mrs. Grindle, whose maiden name was Ida Wolford, was born in Summers county, Pa., in 1861. Mr. Grindle was born in Kosciasko county, Indiana, in 1877. They have two sons, Bert, who lives near McMinnville, and Frank, who lives in Portland. They also have two granddaughters and one great grandchild.

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Grindle, E. E. Nickerson entertained them and Mr. and Mrs. McGraw with a dinner Tuesday evening.

Richard Jensen, and their daughter Marjorie, who has been visiting there for sometime, but will return home with them. Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Schuman of Portland accompanied them.

Council to Honor Late Mr. Turner

With ceremony and ritual that has been used only twice before in the ten years of the existence of the clubs of Hillsboro Christian Council, the name of H. Delbert Turner, member of the Viking chapter during 1928, '29 and '30, will be transferred to "Paradise Chapel" at a convocation of council next Monday evening at the chamber of commerce rooms.

At this convocation, in which all chapters of council will meet together, formal notification will be given to ex-Mayor Orange Phelps of his choice by college-age boys as "Hillsboro's Most Valuable Citizen." Judge R. Frank Peters and O. B. Gates, named "Valuable Citizens," will also be invited to be present.

While chapters have been meeting this week, convocation officially begins the second term of the school year, and various clubs will begin preparation for social functions and the May festival.

Speaks Monday
