

Hazeldale to Hold a Show

Several Persons Injured in Week's Accidents

(By Mrs. J. C. Smith)

HAZELDALE—Hazeldale Boys' 4-H club will sponsor a novel show on Friday night at 8 p. m. It is to be carried out in the leap year idea with both program and shadow social. The program will consist of musical and vocal numbers and a pantomime. All boys and men of the community are asked to bring pies, which will be purchased by the ladies. Proceeds will be used for a scholarship to the 4-H summer school at Corvallis this year, and which is to be won by some member of the Hazeldale group.

Virginia Miller is staying in Portland, where she has employment.

Several Injured

Several Hazeldale residents suffered injuries during the last week. Harold Shaper is laid up at his home with an injured right leg. He fell out of a tree last Thursday and tore the ligaments in his leg and sprained his ankle. Al Jelders, who is employed on the Gales Creek bridge job received two badly crushed fingers Tuesday when they were caught between pieces of steel. Ross Ward suffered a hip injury, two broken ribs, two broken toes, and severe bruises when his car went over a 30-foot embankment on the Canyon road near West Slope last Tuesday night and he has been confined to the Veterans' hospital.

Mrs. Wylie, who has been staying in Portland for several weeks, has returned to her home.

Services Sunday

There will be church service next Sunday, immediately following the Sunday school. These services are held in the basement of the school. Sunday school starts at 9:15 and church service at 11.
