Hillsboro Quintet Leads in County

Two Victories Won by Locals

St. Mary's, Tigard Teams Lose to Hillsboro

(By LuVerne Abendroth)

Hillsboro's blue and white basketball team came into its own over the week-end and took first place in the race for county championship by decisive victories over the Tigard and St. Mary's fives. Only two more county league games are still to be played before this year's team can repeat the championship

Wahner, Hillsboro's fast forward, who had been temporarily eclipsed during the McMinnville game by Selfridge, came into action during the second quarter with two baskets to his credit. The first quarter had seen Selfridge sink a basket and make a good foul shot. In the sec-ond haif of the game Baumgartner and Howell each had a basket, with Wahner and Selfridge shoot-The final score stood Hillsboro, 21, this season are reques Tigard, 16. The game was played representatives present. on the Tigard high floor Friday

The Hilhi team also trounced St. Garlton Mary's aggregation, 25 to 16, in a very fast contest on the local floor Tuesday evening. Although the Wes Schulmerich fouls to Hillsboro's six, Wahner five goals in the first half insured a local victory. The score at half time stood 18 to 4 in favor of Hills-boro, and St. Mary's attempt to change the result during the second period while it brought in 12 points for the Catholic five, was futile. Hall and J. Hughes were outstanding players on the Saints'

In preliminary games Hillsboro B squad lost to Tigard B squad, 8 to 22, and to St. Mary's B squad, 27 to 30. Tsugawa's shooting for baskets was a feature of the last game. On Tuesday afternoon the Hillsboro girls met St. Mary's and men and the American Legion. Communists, he pointed out, detest ever possible to split organizations and government into factions, maktheir conquests easier.

In Germany after the war, he he told how, with other veterans of the war, he attended every pos-sible communist and labor meeting to learn the tactics and methods of communist propaganda. At these meetings, he declared, he saw the leaders of the movement and among them was the man who furnished the money. This man, he said, was in Portland three months ago but is now in Paris. His name, he said, was withheld because the man has a brother, who is a respected and honored citizen

"But should this man ever re-turn to Oregon," Wullert declared," I shall give his name to the American Legion."
