

Party Planned at Hazeldale

Community Club Meets Friday; Social Success

(By Mrs. J. C. Smith)
HAZELDALE—Community club will hold a valentine card party in the school Saturday evening. Play will start at 8:30. Mrs. Max Berger and Mrs. George Altshin are in charge.
Community club will meet Friday evening in the basement. A valentine party will follow, with Joe Berger and Charles Shaper in charge.

Birthday Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. William Heil entertained with a dinner Sunday honoring Mr. and Mrs. William Berkeley and Mrs. Lucy Groves of Vancouver, Wash. The occasion was Mrs. Berkeley's birthday anniversary, and she is a sister to Mr. Heil.
Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart and family have moved on to the Chowning place. They were former residents of Beaverton.
Claire Walker has been out of school with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

Social Success

The program and shadow box social sponsored by the 4-H boys' club last Saturday was quite a success. The boys put on a fine program. Joe Berger was the auctioneer, who sold the shadows, and the proceeds netted over $15, which will be used as a scholarship to the 4-H summer school. Much credit is due their leader, Ray Kincheloe.

Sam Garber is quite ill at his home.

Mrs. S. C. Dwyer of Newberg visited Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Staub last week.

Virginia Miller, who is living in Portland, spent Sunday at her home here.

Sybil Taylor Honored

Mrs. Lyle Taylor entertained with a lunch and theatre party in Portland last Saturday for the following: LaVerne Browning and Laurene Fugua of Portland, Joan and Patsy Heil, Jean Miller, Thelma Broad of Hazeldale. The occasion was her daughter Sybil's birthday.

Double-Vote Event Slated in Contest

shoppers will be given the double opportunity to boost their favorite candidates and to make real savings in their purchases.

Notices of a few of the specially priced items are to be found on page 3 of the second section of this issue of the Argus. Double votes are not limited to these special bargain items.

Announcement of $75 in additional prizes was made this week by the 21 co-operating merchants. In addition to the two grand prizes of nine-day all-expense free trips to California and Old Mexico, second prizes of $25 each are to be awarded in each contest and third prizes of $10 each. Another prize of $5 has been announced for the girl, listed at 4 p. m. yesterday (Wednesday) with 15,000 votes or less, who makes the greatest progress during the balance of the competition.

These awards will be in the form of merchandise orders which will be honored in part or in total by any of the co-operating merchants. A special contest is planned for Friday night by O. Phelps, manager of the Venetian theatre. A $5 book of theater tickets has been offered to the candidate, who receives the most votes cast between 7 and 8:45 p. m. in a special ballot box to be placed in the theatre lobby. Votes placed in the regular ballot box, which will be located in front of the Argus office Friday evening, will not count in the theater contest.

Due to conflict with the Rotary club play at the high school auditorium, the dinner for the candidates, scheduled for Friday night, has been postponed. The event will probably be held next Thursday evening at the local chamber of commerce.

Seventeen candidates were introduced by W. Verne McKinney at the Venetian theatre Friday, where they and their escorts were guests. Extreme cold weather prevented the large attendance that was expected.

Zero Blasts of King Winter Fetter Niagara

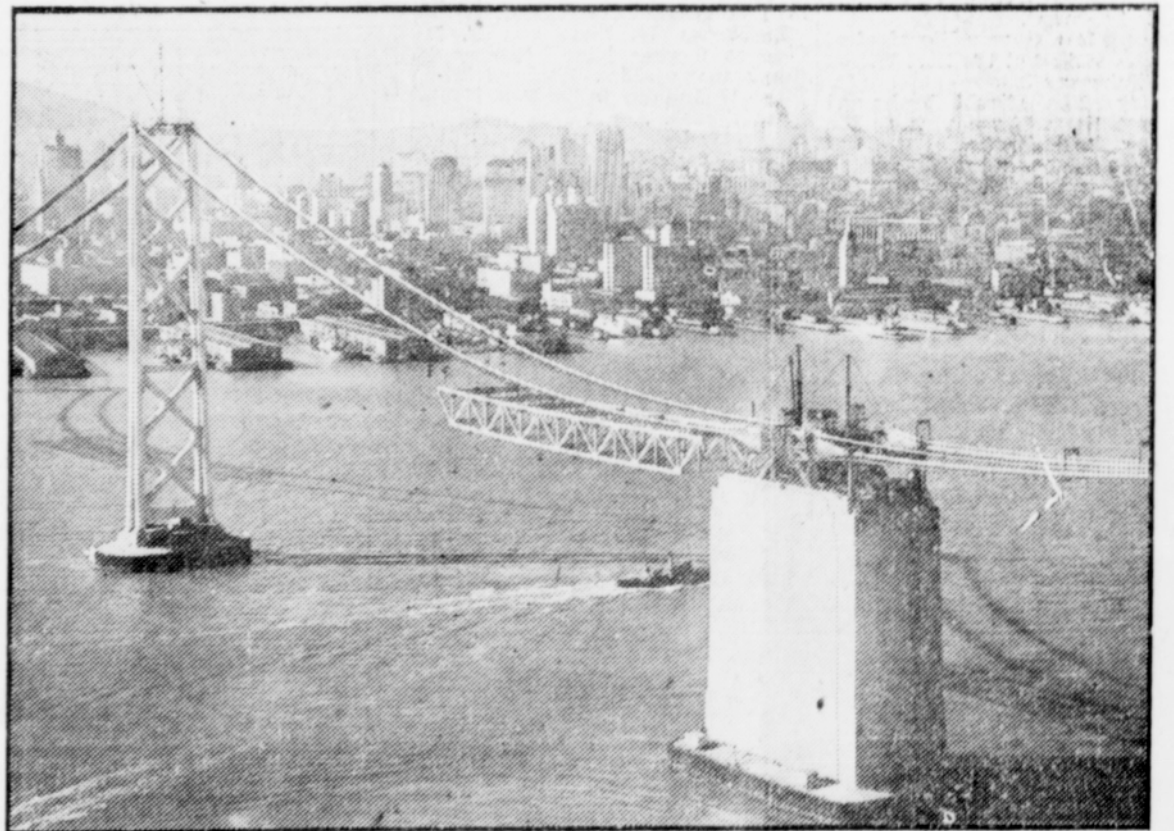

Record-shattering storms that swept down from the Canadian northwest gripped Niagara Falls in sub-zero temperatures, for days, fettering the flow of the mighty cataract. Here is a view of the American side of the falls, from the gorge. The entire falls and gorge froze so solidly that hundreds of spectators took advantage of the opportunity to walk about at the foot.

H. W. Ray Residence Completed

Attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ray, recently completed at Hawthorne farm east of Hillsboro. Exterior is of white-washed brick up to the second floor level, and from there to the roof the exterior is of wide boards, set vertically, with bats. The house covers a ground area of 4700 square feet. It is set off 500 yards to the south of the Oreneo-Cornell road by a private lane, bordered by poplar trees. A small stream virtually encircles the knoll on which the house stands, dammed to form a small lake in the front yard. Mr. Ray is the head of A. J. Ray & Son and chairman of the board of Ray-Maling Co.—(Cut courtesy Oregon Journal)

World's Longest Bridge Speeds to Completion

Rapidly, section by section, skilled engineers are assembling the mammoth San Francisco-Oakland Bay bridge, longest in the world. This photo, taken from the air, shows the newest phase of construction on the 4 1/2-mile long span—trusses which form the deck of the bridge—in place below the cables. These deck sections are hoisted by pulleys from barges anchored in the bay and hung by 2 1/4-inch steel ropes suspended from the main cables of the bridge. The center concrete anchorage is shown above at the right and the San Francisco skyline at the left.

WHERE THE TIMID GROW BOLD

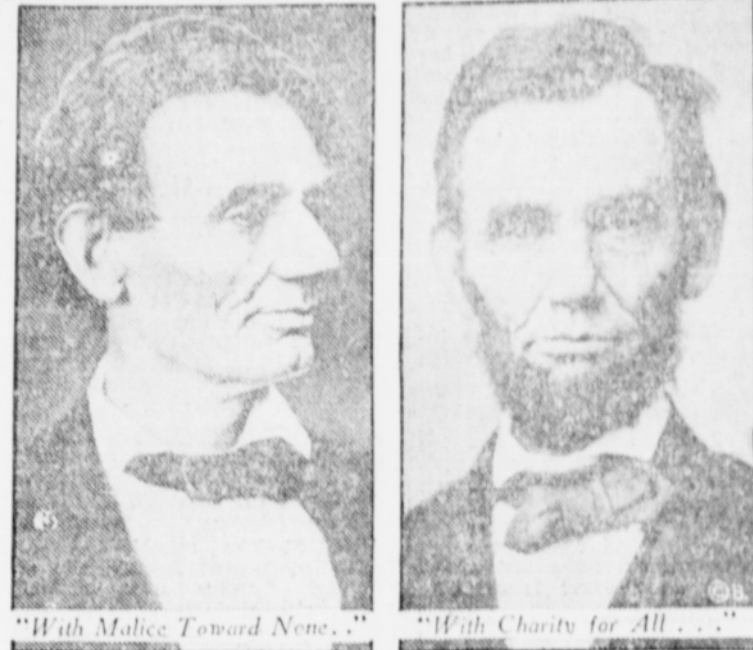

These deer were snapped through a kitchen window at the Oregon Caves chateau, the attractive stopping place for folk who visit the famed underground caverns which are under the jurisdiction of the National Parks Service. They come to the kitchen door regularly looking for "handouts." The deer have a particular appetite for hot-cakes. The Oregon State Highway commission keeps the highway open to the Oregon Caves throughout the winter which gives Oregon folk and visitors from afar opportunity to visit them at any time.

'Diving Venus,' 1936 Model

It is hard to believe that just about 25 years ago Annette Kellerman, the original bathing beauty, was arrested in Boston for wearing a one-piece bathing suit which came to the calf of the leg. Miss Kellerman is shown above wearing a 1936 model bathing suit at Palm Beach, Fla.
