New Sherwood High School Site Being Cleared

(By Miss Helen Ashah)

LAUREL RIDGE—One hundred and twenty-five Masons and their friends participated in the annual homecoming of the Sherwood Lodge, A. F. & M., March 17. It was the twenty-first anniversary of the organization of the lodge, which was effected in 1915. William Rasmussen, who was the first master of the local order, gave a description of the organization and early problems of the lodge. Among the visitors and dignitaries were R. Frank Peters, deputy grand master of Oregon; Jack Murton, district deputy grand master of Oregon; O. P. Coshov, past grand master who gave a resume of Masonry in Oregon and the Northwest.

Aid Sons of Legion

The Argonne post, American Legion, sponsored a dance in Sherwood Saturday night as the first step in its drive to raise money to finance a drum and bugle corps for the local organization of Sons of the Legion. Department Adjutant Carl Moser presented 22 members with five-year citations cards, seven with ten-year and nine with 15-year citations.

Sherwood Grange exemplified first and second degrees of the order for a class of seven candidates Wednesday night. ### A Bad Day for the Iceman

Spring floods played some queer tricks in New England and southeastern Canada, and among the most baffled-victims of these caprices was an iceman in Port Hope, Ont. He awoke one morning to find his route blocked by the huge cakes of ice shown above. Adding to his woes was the fact that his regular customers had plenty of ice delivered to their front doors—and free of charge at that.
