

Junior High Hears of Trip

Many Local Students Get Writing Certificates

The Junior high pupils and teachers enjoyed a special treat March 20 when Neil Richardson, a graduate of Hillsboro high school, gave an interesting account of his trip around the world as a cadet officer on a large steamship. The boys' and girls' choruses sang several selections under the direction of Miss Esther Weeks, music supervisor.

Hillsboro grade schools are proud of the results shown in the writing classes at the Junior high. In the seventh and eighth grades there are 25 pupils who have earned high school certificates, and 21 pupils with grade school certificates. The teachers, Mrs. Gertrude Ide, seventh and eighth grades, and Miss Georgiana Brown, sixth grade, report the following students as recipients of these Palmer certificates: High school certificates—Seventh grade, Alice Pirie, Winifred Wiley, Evelyn Ann Busch, Lillian Miller, Edith Sabnov, Lorraine Bump, eighth grade, Lorraine May, Phyllis Amacher, Phyllis Johnson, Elaine Cruzon, Rosanne Weil, Helen Cyrus, Anna Mary Hartrampf, Jacqueline Walters, Ann Webb, Ella Rose Mason, Caryl Estep, Katherine Wiley, Colene MacDowell, Virginia Havens, Lucille Walters, Marion Ruecher, Jack Goodman, Albert Loomer, Mary Jane Duxbury. Make-up classes are being started at the Junior high this morning in an effort to help these children who have missed work. The teachers are holding these classes before school, at noon, and after school. Through it means an extra burden for the teachers, they are willing to put in this extra time in an attempt to end the year.

"Will consider every bill on its merits and vote for the best interests of the state and county.
"Everyone is a taxpayer, either real, personal, intangible, gas, industrial, automobile, driver's licenses or other tax.
