Pioneer Son of County Succumbs

FOREST GROVE—William H. Cooper, 81, of Portland and pioneer son of Washington county, died at Salem April 3. He had been ill since October 7.

Funeral services were held from the Forest Grove Undertaking company chapel Sunday afternoon with Rev. E. D. Kellogg officiating. Interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

The deceased, William H. Cooper, was born near Forest Grove May 31, 1854. His early boyhood was spent with his grandfather, David Ross Munro, one of Washington county's earliest settlers and a retired member of the Hudson's Bay company.

While a student at the old Tualatin academy, he met and later married Tabitha J. Porter, grand-daughter of Tabitha Brown. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. H. Whitney, lives in Portland. By profession, Mr. Cooper was an attorney. In Tillamook county, where he lived from 1883 to 1909, he served as county judge and later as deputy district attorney. His later years in the legal profession were spent in Columbia county, where he served as district attorney.

At the age of 62 Mr. Cooper retired from active practice, moving with his wife to Scappoose, where his widow now resides.

As a member of the Presbyterian church in Tillamook, Mr. Cooper was active as trustee, elder, choir member and Sunday school superintendent. He was a member of the Masonic lodge in Tillamook.

John Boeckli Back from Nicaragua

ROCK CREEK—John Boeckli of a three months' business trip to Nicaragua, Central America. On his return trip he boarded the Wyoming at Christobel on the Atlantic side, going through the Panama Canal twice, first from the Pacific side on the Mayan and then back on the Wyoming and traveling on the Wyoming as far as Los Angeles. From Los Angeles to San Francisco he traveled by motor car and from San Francisco to Portland by train. He visited at Petaluma, Cal. Among the many souvenirs which he brought home was a grasshopper, which measures five inches long, and which he says is only half size of Portland and its vicinity. He says that when it rains at Panama the sidewalks are covered with eight or ten inches of water.

Two Confirmed Sunday
Confirmation services were held at the Reformed church Sunday. The two girls who were confirmed are Helen Fuegy and Elizabeth Boeckli. Special musical numbers were a solo by Maddie Thompson and a song by the choir. The Easter services will be English and will be held at the Reformed church in Helvetia. The good Friday service Friday will also be held at the Helvetia church.

Birthday Party Given
Mrs. Jack Radke entertained with a birthday party for her granddaughter, Patty Marshall, Saturday. Little guests present were Florence Nelson of Willbridge and Ina Staus, Alice Ellinger, Caroline Benson, Laurene Leu, Adeline and Shirley Zahler.

June Fuegy was one of the six Beaverton high school students who went to Behnke-Walker Business college for the Washington county typing contest Friday.

Week-end sacks of potatoes, which had been grown in this section, were sold recently. Some of the No. 1s were sold for $1.25 per hundred.

Conrad Dick visited her daughter Lila Dick, student at Walla Walla college, from Thursday to Sunday.

Harold Zahler of Portland, who is a music pupil of Edward L. Scheidt of this section, played a piano solo on the Journal Juniors program Tuesday night.

Earl Johnson, pupil of Rock Creek school, is ill with pneumonia at the Smith hospital in Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berger and daughters Thelma and Gladys visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freudenberg at Yacolt, Wash., Sunday.

Robert Benson, who is employed as a printer in Portland, spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson.

Miss Marie Smith, who is teaching at Franklin high school in Portland, is spending her spring vacation this week with her mother, Mrs. Maria Schmidt.

Billie Wilken of Portland is spending his spring vacation this week with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zuercher.

Typists of Tigard Win in Tournament

TIGARD—Tigard union high school contestants dominated the annual Washington county typing contests held at the Behnke-Walker Business college in Portland Friday, winning 11 of 14 events in two divisions.

Tigard's speedsters claimed the first two places for accuracy, all three places for speed in the novice division, a second for accuracy, and first and second in speed in the amateur division. The school team won both speed and accuracy awards, and Eileen Collins, who won both accuracy and speed awards in the novice division, captured the all-around Behnke-Walker trophy.

Washington county's contest were between 36 entries representing six schools. Results were: Novice division, accuracy—Eileen Collins, Tigard; Eileen Jacquith, Tigard; Leona Sherman, Hillsboro. For speed—Eileen Collins, June Collins and Ellen Jacquith, all of Tigard.

Amateurs division, accuracy—Katheryn Arant, Forest Grove; Marjorie Langer, Tigard; Beulah Larson, Forest Grove. For speed—Geraldine Kellner, Tigard; Marjorie Langer, Tigard; Mary Hall, Beaverton.

Mrs. Nellie Elwert, Tigard union high school commercial teacher, coach of Friday's winners, has produced many team and individual winners in typing and shorthand in local and state contests.

Lower Your Feeding Cost

Are you satisfied with the results you are receiving from your present feed? Would you like to lower your feeding cost, and at the same time increase your cream test? Of course you would, and here is a low cost dairy feed which will accomplish both results for you. We recommend it as a combination to be fed with your roots, silage, hay crops or full pasturage. MIX ONE SACK COCONUT MEAL AND ONE SACK MILL LUN, PLUS DAIRY MINERALS. Feed 5 lbs. to 8 lbs. per cow each feeding.

For better results with your present ration, try adding about 3 lbs. of pure NUTCAKE BRAND Coconut Meal per cow per feeding.

If you have surplus oats, barley or wheat, take some of your home grown grains to your feed dealer and trade for Coconut Meal. Have your feed dealer grind and mix as follows: THREE PARTS YOUR HOME GROWN GRAIN AND ONE PART COCONUT MEAL, PLUS MINERALS. Watch the cream line rise when you feed NUTCAKE BRAND Coconut Meal! This mix is good for dairy cows, growing hogs, turkeys and cattle. Hog Farmers, this will save money for you, too.

All of the above feed mixes may be fed with your surplus skimmed milk with excellent results. Why not take advantage of these savings? Coconut Meal is low in price. See your feed dealer. Write to 2736 N. W. Front Ave., Portland, Ore. for copy of FREE booklet, "The Feeding of Coconut Meal for Profit." The booklet tells why—Paid adv.
