

Coffee Club Backs Showing of Picture

Coffee club will sponsor George Hiss in "Mister Hobo," at the median theatre next Wednesday and Thursday nights, April 22 and 23, according to announcement made at the meeting of the club day afternoon at the chamber of commerce. Mrs. E. L. Moore is in charge of ticket distribution, and all members are requested to drop on the ticket sale. Mrs. R. Hank Peters will arrange for free numbers between shows. Mrs. J. M. Person, chairman of literature committee, had charge of the afternoon's program, and presented Mrs. A. H. Blasing with a lovely plant as a prize to the member who had read and given views on the greatest number books during the literary contest. Mrs. V. W. Gardner sang several solos, with Mrs. Fred Sewer as accompanist. Rev. Charles Reed gave an inspirational address, and Mrs. R. L. Smith, in a new spring frock, which she had on display tables. Mrs. Gladys Meyer of Tigard, unity federation president, was present and made a short talk, giving the members to attend the unity federation meeting at Fort Grove Friday. She also requested that members attend the strict meeting in Portland on May 1.

Delegates to the county meeting were elected as follows: Messrs. G. N. Taggart, Lloyd Brown, F. Buckland, T. G. Brodewee, J. Wismer. The president, Mrs. Ed Engeldinger, and Mrs. T. Innell and Mrs. H. H. Stannard, county board members, will also attend.

Return from Two Months' Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hagle of this city and Mrs. H. A. Lowry of Aloha returned Thursday night from a two months' trip which included Washington, Eastern Oregon, California, and New Mexico. They traveled 5000 miles during their vacation, and encountered good weather, with the exception of hard rains and slides in Northern California, and snow in Eastern Oregon, which was piled up about four feet at each side of the highway.

They visited every town of importance in California, and found the fair at San Diego very interesting.

Play Presented Saturday Night

"The Old District School," a two-act play, will be given by local talent for the benefit of the Hill and Dale Social club, at the Laurel hall, Saturday night. There will be two hours of roaring fun, according to the committee in charge, and a special attraction is the spanking machine.

Dancing and cards will follow the play.

Tigard Couple Married Easter

HITON—At a pretty wedding Easter Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Zweiner of Tigard, Miss Ellen Zweiner became the bride of Henry Metzentine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Metzentine.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white silk crepe gown with a white tulle and satin. She carried white Easter lilies and asparagus fern.

Her only attendant was Miss Ruby Johnson, who wore a frock of yellow dotted swiss and carried Talisman roses, freesias and maiden hair fern. Freezes Metzentine acted as best man for his brother.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Helen Schmelzer, a cousin of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Mary Schmelzer and Harry Schmelzer on the violin and saxophone. Miss Mary Schmelzer played the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

Rebekahs Meet in Convention Friday

Rebekahs of District No. 14, comprising Hillsboro, Forest Grove, Banks, Gaston, Beaverton, and Hillsboro, will hold a convention at the Odd Fellows' hall Friday, beginning at 10 o'clock and continuing all day.

Mrs. Cora M. Heaton, state president, will attend, and perhaps other state officers.
