

Senior Class Play Staged Here May 8

Senior class play, "Growing Pains," will be presented May 8 in the Hillsboro high school auditorium. The curtain will rise promptly at 8:15 p. m.

The play tells of the dilemma of the McIntyres who see their boy and girl tossed in the cataclysm of adolescence and can help little further than give directions for the turbulent course from a distance, advice which egocentric youth always rejects, of course.

Those two kids, George and Terry, go through their throes in company with the neighborhood kids. Many things happen to all of them, but the end is bright and promising.

Robert Tongue plays the part of George McIntyre, Marjorie Montgomery, Perry McIntyre; Bernice Howard; Mrs. McIntyre; LuVerne Abendroth, Professor McIntyre; Violet Wick, Sophie the maid; Josephine Gillette, Mrs. Patterson; Christine Robb, Elsie Patterson; Lewis Garfield, traffic officer; Dick Abts, Dutch; Lowell Chase; Brian; Kenneth Woodward, Omar; Lloyd Selfridge, Hal; Billy Allison, Pete; Joy Foelker, Prudence; Ann Munkres, Patty; Marjorie Meek, Jane; Margaret Laver, Miriam; and Wilona Putnam, Vivian. Extras will be Frances Meyer, Doris Gregg, Betty Hobbs, Helen Becker, Dorothy Jackson, Herbert Munkres, Vernon Kreitz, Ed Seus, Melvin Mariner and Fred Grant.

Miss Tennessee Weathered is directing the play, Herbert Munkres is business manager, Betty Hobbs and Ruth Kraus are handling the publicity and advertising, Ernest Brown and Harold Meyers are stage managers, Margaret Laver is in charge of costumes, Maydane Patterson and Melvin Mariner are property managers, and Hazel Churchley is head usher.

The action of the play is laid in the patio of the McIntyre residence. The set is being made by Mr. Romig and his manual training students.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Owre and son and Mrs. Tina Owre, all of Woodburn; Mrs. Trine Valo, Loui Valo, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Valo, all of Portland, and Nils Sorby of Juneau, Alaska.

Social Club Meets—Social club of the Eastern Star voted at their meeting Friday to hold another businessmen's luncheon at the Masonic hall May 12.

Many Young Ladies Planning Weddings

Something old... something new... something borrowed... something blue; and if a formal wedding there are invitations, announcements, visiting cards to think of, or if a very informal one they will at least want to break the happy news to friends far and near with announcements.

Hence, newlyweds of 1936 will appreciate the new "Art-Point" wedding announcements which cost as little as $6 for 50 and the visiting cards which are fully as moderate in price. Both informal and formal styles are now being shown at the office of this newspaper. They have the even, smooth, velvety "raise" good taste demands.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY RUSSELL MORGAN

The Present District Attorney

I ask the support of the voters of Washington County for re-election as District Attorney. I stand squarely on my past record. When elected to that office in 1932 I entered into a solemn covenant with the people of my county that I would maintain the office of District Attorney in the Court House, where it properly belongs for the convenience of our citizens. I have kept this covenant. I promised that I would conduct the office of District Attorney without a deputy. This promise has been kept. I pledged that I would reduce the cost of maintaining the office. I have reduced the costs of the office of District Attorney almost 50%. The figures speak for themselves. For the four-year period preceding my election, the average yearly expenditure for maintenance of the office of District Attorney was $2791.00. During my term I have reduced this amount to $1432.00.

If re-elected for another term I will continue to carry out the pledges which I made when first elected. Neither personal matters nor private business have detracted from my giving to the office my full time and attention. During my term I have already handled nearly 1000 cases. More than 95% of those who have been arrested have been convicted.

I was born in Washington County 29 years ago of a pioneer family. I am a graduate of the University of Oregon. For fifteen years I have been engaged in the practice of law. I am an ex-service man. The manner in which I have performed my duties is best attested by the judges before whom I have practiced and the jurors with whom I have worked.

If re-elected, I will continue to conduct all civil and criminal business of the county honestly, efficiently and with absolute impartiality.

Clubs of Third District Meet

Federated Women's clubs of the third district will hold a Spring Institute in Portland Friday at the Woman's club building, 1220 S. W. Taylor street, and some of the club women will attend.

Registration will begin at 9:30 a. m. The institute program will be given in the forenoon. There will be a no-host luncheon during the noon hour, and the afternoon program will begin at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Emmott left Wednesday for Yakima, Wash., where he has employment with the Oregonian.

Seymour Johnson of San Francisco, Cal., was a week-end visitor of his Argus friends and others.

Mrs. E. L. McCormick, Miss Eva McCormick and Adair Lockwood were Sunday guests of Mr. Lockwood's mother at Salem.

No wonder dandelions cannot be kept out of lawns, Vernon Nelson brought in a dandelion last week with a root almost 14 inches long.

Thurlow Hansen of Scholls underwent an appendix operation
