Miss Warren of Orengo Marries

Orengo—Miss Viola Ruby Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, and George M. Leasia, son of Martin V. Leasia of Portland were married at an attractive ceremony May 3 at 3 o'clock in the Orengo Community church, Rev. T. C. Duncan officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white crepe dress, with long tulle veil arranged in a halo with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Cecile Brunner roses, lilies of the valley and white carnations.

Leona Warren, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a dress of coral silk crepe and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids were Miss Susanna Buzi in open blue, Miss Hattie Warren in lavender, and Miss Edith Walters in pale green, all carrying bouquets of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Gracie Karns, dressed in pink silk, was flower girl and little Walter Warren, brother of the bride, was train-bearer.

Leland Jensen acted as best man and ushers were LeRoy Warren, brother of the bride, Frank Warren of Portland, cousin of the bride, and Werner Raz of Hillsdale.

Following the ceremony Miss Lucile McGee played "To a Wild Rose" and "Dawn". Mrs. Otto Loehden and Mrs. A. Frailer of Portland sang a duet, "I Love You Truly". Mrs. E. J. Kortzeborn of Hillsboro sang "Because" and Mrs. A. Frailer sang "Oh, Promise Me". All were accompanied by Miss McGee, who also played the wedding march.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren. Refreshments were served to about 150 guests by Mesdames L. Rennella, T. Clark, Harry Warren and Mary Head, the last three of Portland. Misses Lucy Clark, Esther Calvert, Pearl Knuse, Eva Tobin, Dorothy Warren, Rosie Balle, Virginia Robinson, Barbara Burdette and Mrs. J. Chapman assisted with the serving.

After a two weeks' trip to California Mr. and Mrs. George Leasia will make their home in Portland.

Daily Vacation Church School Planned Locally

Ministerial association Tuesday voted to sponsor a union Daily Vacation Church school the first two weeks of June. All arrangements and management of the school was placed in the hands of R. L. Putnam, Christian church pastor, who has had charge of such schools of recent years.

The association also voted a resolution favoring a series of health and social hygiene lectures for boys and girls and if possible to be sponsored by the local school board. Fred B. Messing of Portland, an outstanding advocate and lecturer of hygiene, is recommended as speaker. He has had signal success lecturing to youth in the schools of this state and at summer Christian conferences.

The association is sponsoring two outstanding union meetings soon. With Charles Reed, chairman, assisted by the local pastors, they will have charge of the union baccalaureate in union high school May 24. Again the evening of June 14 a union evangelistic service in the high school. The same evening there will be a demonstration by students of the Daily Vacation Church school and an exhibit of work accomplished.
