Extension Meet Laurel Friday

Mother's Day Program at Church on Sunday

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)
LAUREL—The Laurel Home Economics Extension unit will meet Friday at 10:30 a. m. at the hall. Miss Blanche Eickworth will discuss "Buying Hosiery for All Members of the Family." There will be a pot luck lunch at noon. All are cordially invited.

Berries Washed Out
The hard rain Sunday, which seemed almost like a cloudburst in some sections, did considerable damage to fields and roads. A patch of newly-set blackcap berry bushes on the L. A. Whittle place was practically washed out.

To Honor Mothers
Mother's Day will be observed at the church Sunday with a short program consisting of numbers from each of the classes. Preaching and communion services will follow.

Poles are now distributed for the electric line extension from the Helm place to the foot of the mountain. This extension will serve Jacob and Walter Schmidt, Frank Meibus, J. H. McPherson and F. L. and Lee Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNay and Billy attended a dinner party at the Harley Looney home in Portland Sunday given in honor of the birthday anniversaries of Billy McNay and Rosalie Looney.

Mrs. Carrie Agas visited Sunday from an extended visit with relatives and friends in South Dakota. She said farmers were hoping for rain as it was very dry and dusty.

Festival Held

Laurel was the center of the musical festival held last Friday by the schools of this section of Washington county in observance of National Music Week. Schools taking part were Mountaineers with Gladys Bailey, teacher; Laurels with Mrs. Grayce Hughes, Firdale, Miss Rose Loukait; Fir Grove, Mrs. Helen Austin; Groner, Mrs. Thelma Hesse, and Laurel, Mrs. Mary Harleman. All met in the morning and hand ball was played by all who wished to participate. Lunch was enjoyed and the program commenced at 1:30. The three primary grades sang "Wee Ducky Goggles," "Marching Star" and "Piggie Wiggle and Piggie Wee"; intermediate grades, "Gondolier," "A Season from the Shore" and "Which is the Way to Somewhere Town." The Nightingale and "There's Music in the Air" and a combined chorus, "America the Beautiful." Special numbers by the various schools included a harmonica duet by Laur-

Candidate

R. G. Scott, who has lived on farm near Sherwood since 1909, with the exception of 2 1/2 years as county agricultural agent of Clackamas county, candidate for democratic nomination for state representative. He is in favor of strict economy in state affairs, believing that no legislation should be passed which would add to the tax burden.

Teacher Named
Mrs. Harry Schmelzer of Mountain Home has been engaged to teach the Laurel school the coming year.
Alden Rosewear's name was omitted in the announcement of the Laurel string band playing in the program at the Hillsboro dinner given at the hall April 23. They are a quintet, other members being F. L. and Lee Brown, Lloyd Dailey and Olive Mulloy.

Birthdays Celebrated
Thelma Mulloy and Billy McNay were honor guests at the W. H. McNay home Thursday evening at a dinner party celebrating their birthdays. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mulloy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNay and Gilman Wright.

LEONARD DOUGLAS WRIGHT
Leonard Douglas Wright, 17, of Beaverton route 2 died May 3. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wright, brother of Mrs. Percy Lawrence of Portland and James Edward Wright at home.

Remi Kerkoff and family have moved to Seattle, where Remi is working. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kerkoff are staying at the farm.
Kathleen Gregg went to Fossil on a geology field trip. The class, under the direction of Professor Watson, spent the week-end there. Mrs. Edwards entertained the missionary society last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hanley and family and Mrs. Einar Berggren and sons visited Lambert Gardens Sunday. Tulip season is at its height this week.

Helvetia Boy Breaks Hand

James Davidson Injured at School; Many in City

(By Mrs. John M. Davidson)
HELVETIA—James Davidson sustained a bad fracture on his left hand April 29 while playing ball during gymnasium class period at the union high school. Dr. Dinsmore took X-ray pictures and decided it would be necessary for the boy to go to a hospital in Portland, where the fracture was reduced and James was back in school on Monday with his hand in a cast.

Newlyweds Return
Mr. and Mrs. Steinmetz (Marie Rufener) returned from a three weeks' honeymoon trip to California and spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Rufener. They will make their home in Portland. Other Sunday dinner party guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Green and family and Mrs. M. Green of Portland. Little Sylvia Marie Green returned home with her parents after spending some time with her grandparents.

Extend Best Wishes
This vicinity was well represented at Hillsboro on Saturday. Farmers have been very busy and the rainy day gave them a chance to do business and take their family to the new store and show. This was the biggest crowd ever seen at a free show in Hillsboro and was a compliment to the donors of the free tickets. This community wishes Francis Barr and Bud Phelps success in their new enterprise.

Surprise Birthday Party Held Buxton
BUXTON—A surprise birthday party was given Mrs. Frances Canby at her home here April 30. The evening was spent in playing cards. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Della Cornutt, Mrs. Ira Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benefield, Mrs. Jesse Meyers, Fern Powell, Elsie Meyers, Dave Kaumer, Claude Riggle, Merlin Watson, and Chester, Neoma, Travor and Melvin Canby.

Leisville Club Meets May 14th
LEISVILLE—The Ladies' club will meet with Mrs. Coussens May 14. Plans for the annual Leisville picnic will be discussed.
The 4-H sewing club met at the school house Wednesday evening of last week.
Four-H calf club met with Wesley Gates and Cyril Lorenz Friday evening. Officers are Robert Gregg, president; Tom Gregg, secretary. Other members are Edward Seus, Albert Remi and Arthur Coussens. Next meeting will be at Coussens May 22.

Hayward
Luke brothers of Manning have finished logging the Roy Gatzoff timber and now are logging the former Ducett timber in the canyon back of the N. H. Nielsen property.
Udpike brothers made a trip to Molalla one day this week with their truck, bringing back a load of machinery.

MRS. JULIA A. COOPER
Mrs. Julia A. Cooper, 87, died at her home in Beaverton Thursday afternoon April 30, 1936. The funeral was held from the Beaverton Methodist church Saturday after-

Many Features Planned for Mother's Day at U. of O.

The University of Oregon student committee which is making arrangements for Mother's day, May 10, conferred recently with two mothers to make sure that the plans for the big event will please all. The colorful canoe fete, Mother's day banquet and other features are included among the attractions. Pictured above, left to right: Bill Marsh, Elmer Stewart, both of Eugene; Eugene; Marjorie Smith, Portland; Marjery Kinsing Salem; Mrs. Agnes Beckett and Mrs. Percy W. Brown; Co-chairman Grace Peck, Astoria, and Lucile McBride, Junction City.

Abner Briggs Was Former Legislator

Abner Briggs, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Abraham, in Hillsboro, April 26, was born at Lindsay, Carleton county, New Brunswick, Canada, October 2, 1853, the youngest son of George and Susan Briggs. His boyhood was spent on a farm. In March, 1880, at the age of 26 he went to Montana, where he was engaged in the mining and lumber industry until July, 1882. In August of that year he and two friends, A. H. and J. W. Ellison, made the longest trip ever made up to that time in a row boat. They hauled a boat built by themselves on the Pacific slope of the Rocky Mountains across the divide to the Big Hole river where they launched it, following this river into the Missouri and down that stream as far as Tonia, Nebraska, over 3,000 miles, where they arrived October 17. Mr. Briggs returned to his home in New Brunswick.
